Abiding in Christ through Shifting Summer Schedules

The summer months looming ahead of May's "school year" end bring a different pace for us. This upcoming Sunday is the last of regular scheduling with three services at 7:45, 8:45, and 11. Church School Classes meet for the final time before summer hiatus this Sunday. Choir rehearsals, weekly Bible Studies, Education for Ministry classes and many other groups take a break for the summer. The staff and clergy look forward to bi-monthly staff meetings instead of our weekly gatherings!

And before all of this, May has brought a burst of energy. The choir concert is this Saturday at 5:00 p.m. Our Dining with Friends Event this past weekend brought a huge crowd together to support the Aids Action Coalition. The "May I Help You" outreach project for the Sawyerville Diocese of Alabama day camp is bringing in lots of beach towels for the kids of the Black Belt we serve. On Children and Youth Sunday we celebrated the important role our children and youth have as a vital part of Nativity's mission and ministry in so many ways. Coupled with many other community and school year end events, May is one of the busiest months on the calendar. All of this reinforces our need for a more relaxed pace.

And so, on Memorial Day weekend, the Feast of Pentecost on Sunday May 27 brings a dramatic schedule shift along with the wind and fire of the Holy Spirit (wear Red!). On Memorial Day weekend, we move to our summer worship schedule of 8:00 a.m. and 10:00 a.m. services. Folks take off for vacations and the nearby lakes and mountains call to us for weekend outings.

We Episcopalians like to joke about the fact that God trusts us enough to take the summers off. But that is not exactly true. God trusts us intelligent and creatively faithful Episcopalians to adjust our schedules and find different ways to remain connected to Christ. The Gospel a few Sundays ago reminds us that we are the branches and Christ is the vine. Unless we abide in Christ's love and presence, we will lose our fruitfulness. That includes the summer!

God does not take a vacation from us. But God can be found in new ways. So, while you are taking a look at summer's possibilities, consider the following ways to abide in Christ's presence and love this summer so you remain vitally faithful:

- Sunday on Thursdays Eucharist at 6:00 p.m. in the Bibb Chapel: Come as you are, from work, from the gym, from the pool for this casual and brief service that looks ahead to the upcoming Sunday—especially if you are going to be away that weekend.
- The Thursday afternoon Greene Street Market at Nativity: Come out and see your friends, volunteer to help this important expression of our life and ministry.
- Financial Peace Universe Class by renown steward Dave Ramsey: Tuesday evenings is the place to focus on positive, practical and faithful ways to be a steward of the financial blessings God is making available to you. SIGN UP WITH LANE TUTT TODAY!
- Outreach's ministry with the Children at the Oscar Mason summer program. Be a part of this ministry that will see that the children in this program have access to healthy foods and vegetables throughout the summer. Guess what folks, kids who need school provided lunches don't get those in the summer. This ministry could use your help in shopping and delivering.
- Find a book from The Source that nourishes your Spirit. Take up a prayer practice or read daily Morning or Evening Prayer from the Book of Common Prayer.
- Permission is granted to come casually to Nativity on Sundays! Sign up to help Blue Apron Ministry host "Lemonade in the Shade."
- Rest, enjoy life, be grateful, accept God's blessings and peace.

May we all have a blessed summer. Much love, grace and peace in Christ to all as we abide in God's love in new ways through Summer's shift in pace.

the Greene Street Market introduces The Children's Corner

"the Greene Street Market strives to enhance the quality of life in the area by providing an activity which fosters social gathering and interaction!"

In an effort create a sense community for all who attend, the Greene Street Market at Nativity will kick off a new addition to the 2012 market season, "The Children's Corner."

The third Thursday of May, June July and August The Greene Street Market at Nativity will have a new interactive area just for children. The Downtown Forty Seven and the Toy Shop Downtown present , "The Children's Corner," a FREE area for children 12 and under! It starts this Thursday, May 17th 4pm – 6pm.

Choose a towel that would make YOU smile!

Integrity Alabama, Nativity, and Bishop Sloan host GLBT Conversation on Saturday, June 9

The Church of the Nativity and Integrity/Alabama invite you to attend a Conversation with Alabama Gay and Lesbian Episcopalians. While many commissions and task forces have "studied" LGBT folks in our society and in our churches for over thirty years, rarely have people in our parishes had an opportunity to gather to hear "stories" from gay and lesbians Christians.

We will do just that on Saturday, June 9, 2012, at the Church of the Nativity, from 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. We will gather first for a celebration of the Eucharist with Bishop Kee Sloan participating. We will then share a light lunch in the parish hall. In the second hour, we will gather in a large circle to hear five Alabama gay and lesbian Episcopalians each share a five-minute "slice of life" of their own personal stories. Following each speaker we will have five-minutes to reflect, prayerfully, in conversation with the speaker. The five speakers will come from the Birmingham and Huntsville areas, and they will represent a wide variety of life experiences and journeys.

You are invited to join us for this occasion to gather with our brothers and sisters, opening our hearts and minds to each other in friendship and love in Christ. Please call the church office at 256-533-2455 to make a reservation for lunch ($7.00 per person) or you may e-mail cgadomski@nativity-hsv.org

What are the timelines to submit news/event articles?

Youth Confirmation Class Does Service

Our youth confirmation class did a morning of service at HAP on May 5. The Huntsville Assistant Program needed a line to help direct traffic to their door so that they won't disturb the classes happening at the same time. Our youth were more than willing to make that happen! We spent the morning clearing the path, snapping the chalk lines, and painting quite the yellow line.

Many thanks to Karen at HAP for letting us come hang out and learn more about this great ministry.

EfM Graduation will be Monday, May 21, 5:30 PM in Bibb Chapel.

Graduation service and Holy Eucharist open to all. This year's graduates are:
Peter Wilson, Bobbie Graham, and Charlie Kettle

If you want to learn more about the EfM program please contact Nativity mentors: George Thacker or Lea Ellison.

Pentecost Sunday May 27th Everyone Wear RED

The Church has traditionally used the color red for Pentecost to symbolize the flames of the Holy Spirit. At first, only members of the clergy wore red vestments, but now it is common to see members of the congregation wearing something red on Pentecost Sunday.

Alabama Historical Association acknowledges appreciation to Nativity

I am writing on behalf of the members of the Alabama Historical Association to express appreciation for our recent annual meeting held in Huntsville, Alabama.

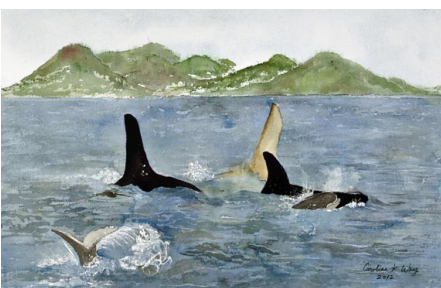

We could not have chosen a more suitable location for the sixty-fifth meeting of our organization. From the pre-meeting gathering in Mooresville to the annual luncheon at the remarkable Holiday Inn Downtown, our members enjoyed warm hospitality and learned much about the history of Huntsville and her people.

Thank you for allowing our members to tour the Church of Nativity. The Associations' purpose includes the study and promotion of all aspects of Alabama history, including its ecclesiastical life. Our visit to the church was a special part of exploration of north Alabama this year. The hospitality of the Church of Nativity staff, combined with that of many other friends in the city, make our 2012 meeting a truly memorable one.

Best regards,
Mark Wilson, Ph.D
Secretary

Sincerely,
Steve Murray
President

"OUTREACH CORNER"

"Hands of St. Francis" – our newest project!

Beginning in February of this year, Nativity Outreach has provided the Oscar Mason Library After-School program with large bags of groceries for 14 students -which encompasses feeding 60 family members! This is being done on the fourth Friday of each month of the school year. Our intention is to help needy families stretch their groceries to last until the end of the month. (Our bag of substantial food supplements the small "snack packs" given to each child at the schools on Fridays.) We purchase our groceries from Sam's in bulk and then we divide the food for distribution at the Library. Our appreciation is extended to Lawren and Joe Cooper, Deborah Baker and Ernie Meinecke, Gail Brown, and Lee Hicklen for their faithful attention to all the details. They have made it happen on our behalf! We will continue the gift food bags when school resumes in the fall. This summer we hope to provide fruit and snacks to the Library for their weekly children's program. A grant proposal has been written and submitted to the Diocese by Lee Hicklen and Ginny McDonald (Vestry Liaison) for the possible funding of our summer idea.

Adult Learning Center

The Spring Appreciation Dinner for Students and Volunteer Mentors was held Tuesday May 8 in Ridley Hall. It was hosted by Nativity Outreach with members present for welcome, visiting, and cleanup. The event was chaired by Deborah Baker. Nancy Saliba, Director of ALC, thanked volunteers for their commitment to Lifelong Learning. Rev. Mary Anne Akin was the speaker after dinner. A spirit of celebration and accomplishment is always present at this annual gathering.

Nativity Outreach gave $6000.00 to Habitat for Humanity, Madison County in February 2012

Below is a letter of thanks for Nativity's continued support and the sponsoring of a table for the more recent fund-raiser celebration.

May 10, 2012

Dear Church of Nativity,

Thank you again for participating in our recent 25th Anniversary Celebration by sponsoring a table. This was quite a milestone for our Habitat affiliate and we were so glad that you were able to join us to mark this event.

That evening, we heard Cory and Brittani Green express how Habitat has changed the course of their life and the life of their family, was a wonderful moment. We were humbled by their witness. Theirs is just one story; we have served 200 families over the course of the past 25 years. It is through our many partnerships of volunteers and donors that we have been able to serve families in our community.

We look forward with hope and great anticipation to see how our mission can continue to improve lives in Madison County in the coming years. As we continue to grow and serve more families, the effects of poverty housing will diminish. Just as Cory and Brittani spoke of hope and fulfillment, we look forward to multiplying their story throughout our community.

Thank you for sharing our evening and the success of the Habitat mission. We look forward to sharing our future plans of changing lives in Madison County with you as we all grow into what God intends us to be.

Youth News – The Steeple

Happy finals week! Well, the beginning of finals, at least. :) And in honor of finals and studying, I'll be at the Starbucks on Governor's Wednesday and Thursday afternoon from 3:00 – 5:00 pm if you want a break and just come and relax before jumping back on the exam train.

Children & Youth Sunday was a success! Thank you to everyone who volunteered, especially Sabol Rogers!! She did an awesome job on the homily, and if you missed it, you missed a great message. Many congrats to all of you graduating seniors! I have your gifts in my office, so if you still want it, swing by the office and pick it up.

This Sunday will be our LAST EYC of the school year!! We will have our End of Year Gathering at the home of the Whitehead's. They'll be grilling out and you just have to bring a snack to share with the group. All the fun starts at 5:30. Bring on the yummy food!!

If you are serving on staff for Sawyerville (either week), let me know. I'm trying to coordinate transportation so everyone doesn't have to bring their own vehicle.

See y'all soon!

Peace, Liz
