North Alabama Diocesan Convocation Meeting THURSDAY JUNE 21

All are invited to attend a gathering of Episcopalians in North Alabama at St. Stephen's Church (8020 Whitesburg Drive) at 7:00 p.m. Our representatives to the Episcopal Church's 77th General Convention meeting this summer, July 5-12, in Indianapolis will facilitate a discussion about the work facing our triennial church gathering this summer. Barbara Meyer and the Rev'd Susan Sloan are Deputies to the House of Deputies elected from the Northern Convocation. The Rev'd Andy Anderson and Rusty Stephenson are First Alternates to the House of Deputies.

Ushering at Nativity

If you are looking for a ministry to become involved with at Nativity in which you play an active, hands-on role in the worshiping life of the church, you may wish to consider becoming an usher. Ushers help to set the friendly tone our church is known for by greeting and assisting people as they arrive for services; they help maintain the order and dignity which is part of our Anglican worship heritage.

The duties of ushers include distribution of service leaflets; taking of the collection; assisting parishioners who have trouble with the chancel steps at Communion; picking up used leaflets at the completion of services; counting the cash intake from the collection and depositing it in a designated place; and (rarely) assisting in an emergency.

If you are interested in becoming an usher for either service, you may contact one of our usher chairs:

- for the 8:45 AM (8:00 summer) service contact Neal Machek—(256) 603-4260; nealmay@earthlink.net
- for the 11:00 AM (10:00summer) service contact Jeffrey Dortch—(256) 536-7612; jdortch@knology.net

Daughters of the King Held Services of Admission

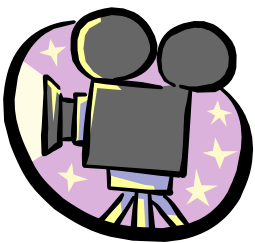

The Daughters of the King held admission services for four new members on the 12th and 18 of June. The distinctive Daughter's crosses were presented to: Marty Askins, Wanda Cobb, Lisa Post, and Suzanne Purtee.

New members are admitted into the group once a year after a discernment period during which they study the objectives of the organization with leaders of the group over several meetings.

The Daughters of the King is a religious order within the Episcopal Church. Through its emphasis on spirituality and prayer it hopes to encourage others to have a deeper relationship with our Lord Jesus Christ.

A Prayer Request Box is located on the literature rack in Ridley Hall. All those who desire prayers to be offered for themselves or loved one may place their requests in the box. All requests are confidential.

SUMMER PRAYER, MOVIES, AND SUPPER begins June 26

Again this summer, the Centering Prayer Groups will offer Tuesday evening prayer and movies with a light pot-luck supper. Because of the restoration work under way in Bibb Chapel, we will meet in the Library, Joffrion Hall 1E. Centering Prayer begins at 5:30 PM, followed by supper and movie at six. Our first summer movie is "Like Dandelion Dust," to be shown on June 26. Reservations are not required, just bring a dish to share for supper. Interesting and stimulating discussion always follow the viewing of the movie.

*Note - To make it easier to serve supper, bring dishes that are ready to serve and do not require heating or being kept cold. While we do have access to the kitchen, Joffrion Hall is not conveniently located to the kitchen. Sandwiches, pasta salads, green salads, cookies, etc. would be great. Call Betty Giardini with questions.

Please note that the Church Offices will be closed Wednesday, July 4 in observation of Independence Day. Small groups will not meet.

Stewardship of Creation tip:

shop
eat seasonal

We are very fortunate to have a wonderful Farmers' Market sponsored by our parish right on our own church campus...The Greene Street Market at Nativity every Thursday from 4:00 p.m. – 8:00 p.m.

An important part of buying local is making an effort to purchase fresh fruits and vegetables when they are in season in your area. Although today's global marketplace allows us to buy foods grown virtually anywhere in the world all year round, these options are not the most sustainable.

By purchasing local foods in-season, you eliminate the environmental damage caused by shipping foods thousands of miles, your food dollar goes directly to the farmer, and your family will be able to enjoy the health benefits of eating fresh, unprocessed fruits and vegetables. Buying seasonal produce also provides an exciting opportunity to try new foods and to experiment with seasonal recipes. And it simply tastes better!

Even if you don't want to change any of your eating habits, you can at least make sure to buy local produce when it's available, rather than purchase the same type of food from 3000 miles away!

For an added challenge, try to eat most foods only when they are in season, or can seasonal food in order to eat and enjoy it all year round.

To know about the food you are purchasing from any grower, here are some general questions you might want to ask a farmer:

BEEF

- Are your cows raised on pasture?
- Do you feed your cows anything besides grass and hay?
- How are your cows finished?— If cows are finished on grain you should ask: How old are your cows when they're started on grain and how long are they fed grain? Are your cows finished in a feedlot? If so, how old are they when they enter the feedlot? Approximately how long are they there? How many other animals are in the feedlot at any given time?
- Are your cows ever given antibiotics?
- Are your cows ever given hormones, steroids or other growth promoters?

POULTRY

- How are your chickens/turkeys raised? On pasture, indoors, confined?
- How much time do your chickens/turkeys spend outdoors each day?
- What do you feed your chickens/turkeys? Are your chickens/turkeys ever given antibiotics?
- Are they given hormones, steroids or other growth promoters?

DAIRY

- Are your cows raised on pasture?
- Are your cows fed anything besides grass and hay?
- Are your cows ever given rBGH or any other hormone?
- Are your cows ever given antibiotics?

EGGS

- How are your hens raised? On pasture, indoors, caged?
- How much time do the hens spend outdoors each day?
- Are your hens ever force molted?
- What do you feed your hens?
- Are the hens ever given antibiotics?

HOGS

- How are your hogs raised? On pasture, indoors, with proper bedding?
- Are the hogs born on your farm? If yes: Are your sows ever held in a farrowing pen? If no: Do you know if your hogs' mothers were held in a farrowing pen?
- How much time do your hogs spend outdoors each day?
- What do you feed your hogs?
- Are your hogs ever given antibiotics? Are your hogs ever given hormones or feed additives?

VEGETABLES/FRUIT

- Who grows the fruits and vegetables and where is the farm located?
- How big is the farm?
- Does the farmer use chemical pesticides, herbicides or fertilizers on the crops?
- Is the farm a diversified operation, with many varieties of vegetables and fruits?
- Does the farm grow any heirloom varieties of fruits or vegetables?
- Are any of the fruits or vegetables genetically engineered varieties?

The 2012 Vestry Nominations Committee Solicits Your Input

The Vestry Nominations Committee held its first meeting of 2012 recently, beginning the process of developing a slate of nominees for the upcoming year. Following changes to the Nativity by-laws approved by the congregation last year, the Vestry Nominations Committee submits a slate of proposed new Vestry members to the congregation for approval at the Annual Parish Meeting. At this time we would like to introduce you to the members of the committee and provide you with their contact information.

- Andy Anderson, Rector, ex officio (aanderson@nativity-hsv.org)
- David Collette, Senior Warden 2009 (david.collette@hhsys.org)
- Pat Goodson, Senior Warden 2012 (patgood@knology.net),
- Sally Naumann, Chair, member at-large (sal.naumann@mac.com)
- Mac Phillips, Senior Warden 2010 (macphillips@gmail.com)
- Alyce Smith, member at-large (256-536-4198)
- Bland Warren, Senior Warden 2011 (blandwarren@me.com)
- Shelley Whitney, member at-large (smwhitney51@gmail.com)

[The Committee is composed of the sitting and three most recent Senior Wardens willing and able to serve along with three members at-large chosen by the six outgoing Vestry members; the Rector serves ex officio in a non-voting role.]

Now that we've introduced ourselves, we would like to solicit your input. A form has developed for parishioners to use in suggesting names of potential Vestry nominees to the Committee. This form is available on the Nativity website and will be published in an upcoming Steeple issue. You may recommend someone in the parish or submit your own name for consideration. Please make sure that anyone who you suggest is willing to have his/her name considered and meets requirements as set forth by the Nativity by-laws for Vestry membership (confirmed member of Nativity, regular in attendance, has made and kept a pledge for at least the current year, etc.). Names submitted but not included on the slate of nominees will remain on the list for succeeding Vestry Nominations Committees to consider.

Please prayerfully consider submitting your name and/or the name(s) of parishioners whom you would like considered for the Nativity Vestry in 2013. You are welcome to contact any of the members on the committee at the phone number/e-mail addresses listed above if you have questions about the process. And, watch for more information from the Vestry Nominations Committee.

St. Mary's Sewanee to Hold 3rd Annual Sunset Serenade

The Ayres Center for Spiritual Development will hold its 3rd Annual Sunset Serenade on Sunday, Sept. 2. The event will be held at St. Mary's Sewanee from 5 to 8 p.m. The Sunset Serenade is a fundraiser and a "friendraiser" organized by a dedicated group of volunteers. Guests will be entertained with music provided by Noel Workman and Friends. A catered dinner, silent auction, and magnificent sunset over the bluff are also a part of the festivities. While tables and chairs are provided, many guests like to bring their own blanket to sit outside, as well as their favorite libation. Reservations are required by calling St. Mary's Sewanee at 931-598-5342. Tickets are $50.00 per person, a portion of which is tax-deductible.

Ministry Fair!

When most people think of 'stewardship,' they think of an annual campaign to raise funds for the church. While the financial aspect is a PART of stewardship, God calls us to be in relationship with him through gifts of our time and talents as well. To focus on these aspects of giving, The Nativity Stewardship Ministry is excited about the upcoming Ministry Fairs this fall. Here are a few details:

- The theme of this year's Stewardship program is "NATIVITY: Outwardly Focused, Inwardly Strong"
- There will be separate Ministry Fairs for INreach and OUTreach
 - The INREACH Ministry Fair will be held Sunday, September 16 in Ridley Hall
 - The OUTREACH Ministry Fair will be held Sunday, October 21 in Ridley Hall
 - There will also be an Education and Music Fair on August 19
 - We will celebrate all these exciting programs on August 26 with a Parish Picnic!
- Ministry leaders and members will be available to tell you about their ministry and to sign you up
- The fairs will continue throughout the morning, allowing you to attend the service of your choice and still make it to the Ministry Fair
- Refreshments will be provided
- Children's activities will be provided in a separate area

All members of the parish are encouraged to attend these Ministry Fairs and to get involved where God is calling you to serve.

If you are a ministry or committee leader and wish to participate in one or both of the Ministry Fairs, please forward the following information to David Collette, Stewardship Ministry chair (drc3898@knology.net) no later than June 30:

- Name of your ministry/committee/group
- Whether you are participating in the INreach or OUTreach Ministry Fair (or both)
- Contact person
- Contact person's phone AND e-mail address

Whether you will need a whole (8') or ½ table (or, if you wish to share with one or more other groups)
We hope that the 2012 Nativity Ministry Fairs will be the best ever and serve as a means to move our parish to greater involvement in our life together and within the community. Together, we will be Outwardly Focused, Inwardly Strong.
