Our new Archbishop of Canterbury, Justin Welby, will be enthroned at Canterbury on March 21. The new Archbishop had a successful career in the oil industry before training as an Anglican priest. The father of five, 57, he was educated at Eton and Trinity College, Cambridge. A devastating tragedy involving the death of his seven-month-old daughter in a car crash in 1983 led to his life-changing decision to leave his job and prepare for the priesthood. He was made Bishop of Durham in 2011. He will be the 105th Archbishop of Canterbury.

Sunday Coffee Hour

More volunteers are needed to host coffee hour following each Sunday service. Coffee hour is simply intended to be an opportunity to greet newcomers and to get to know each other better. All that is needed is to take a turn every 8 to 10 weeks to prepare and serve the coffee, hot water for tea, and perhaps some juice. For more information, contact Chuck Carpenter at 877-2261 or email charles.carpenter11@gmail.com

This is the final week to sign-up for Easter lilies!
