Come to the Center

St. Benedict's Monastery lies in a verdant green valley high in the Rockies outside of Snowmass, Colorado. I am at here on retreat, disconnecting from life's many obligations and busyness, simply resting in and absorbing God's abiding presence of love for me and for you. Surrounded by snow-capped mountain peaks, the words from Psalm 121 reverberate, evoking my own questions of where my help comes. Where do I find life? What is my destiny?

With minimal distractions, I clearly see God's hand in this incredible and beautiful world. I know that God is not high up beyond me as these distant strong ridges, but deep within, at the center of my being, and at the center of all life. At the center of life is the Holy One who in Jesus invites us to know deep friendship. God, the fount of life, invites you and me into divine union so that our lives, becoming one with God's, will reflect the Creator's deep love in all of our relationships, in all people, in all of creation.

There are many ways to cultivate this friendship God initiates in Christ that leads to the divine union God desires with us. The way of this friendship and union is nothing we have to earn, it is pure grace. It is more about "being" than about "doing," yet it takes deliberate effort and even practice. It is so hard for us to remember the amazing fact that God is always present, and so we must consent to God's abiding presence daily. This involves taking time for prayer. The needed prayer is not intercessory prayers when we ask God for things and do all the talking. What is needed is to be quiet, allowing God to speak in God's first language, the language of silence. In God's silence there is unlimited potential.

I have discovered that Centering Prayer offers a proven way to cultivate the deep friendship Jesus invites us to share by intentionally consenting to God's abiding presence daily. Centering Prayer is an exciting journey of self-discovery, deliberately focusing our attention on God's wonder and love alone; letting go of everything else, even the "experience of God," so that we can be with God. The Kingdom of God is within you, Jesus tells us.

The retreat I'm making is a Centering Prayer retreat that includes powerful amounts of silence dispersed with prayer times throughout the day. We begin and end each day in corporate worship with the monks. I am blessed that the church expects the clergy to be deliberate about making time for God daily and in regular focused retreats. I wish that all of God's people could get away from the busyness and noise of the world and focus on God alone from time to time, too. If a week is not possible, a weekend will do!

Allow me to connect some dots...this spring following our Bishop's lead, we've focused on inviting people to Nativity so that their lives can be inspired by God's love and transformed. The first invitation we each need to make is to invite God's presence into our lives daily. Centering Prayer is an easy and accessible way to enable the process of interior transformation that restructures our consciousness so that we may perceive, relate and respond with increasing love, manifesting the fruits of the Spirit (love, joy, peace, kindness, patience, etc.), in our every action and interaction with others.

The spiritual journey to transformation involves entering a process of letting go of the false needs for security, esteem, and power in order to trust God alone. Trusting God, we are free to be who God has created us to be: agents of transforming love. And it is no longer I, but Christ who lives in me. God invites you to be so inspired and transformed!

YOUR VESTRY NOMINATIONS COMMITTEE SOLICITS YOUR INPUT

The Vestry Nominations Committee has begun the process of developing a slate of nominees for the upcoming year. Following changes to the Nativity By-laws approved by the congregation in 2011, the Vestry Nomination Committee submits a slate of proposed new Vestry members to the congregation for approval at the Annual Parish Meeting in early November.

The Committee is composed of the sitting and three most recent Senior Wardens willing and able to serve, along with three members-at-large chosen by the six outgoing Vestry members; the Rector serves ex officio in a non-voting role:

- Pat Goodson, Chair, Senior Warden 2012 (patgood@knology.net)
- Mac Phillips, Senior Warden 2010 (macphillips@gmail.com)
- Bland Warren, Senior Warden 2011 (blandwarren@me.com)
- Rusty Stephenson, Senior Warden 2013 (firstmom21@aol.com)
- Alyce Smith, member-at-large, (256-536-4198)
- Shelley Whitney, member-at-large (smwhitney51@gmail.com)
- Jennifer Hulse, member-at-large (jat.hulse@yahoo.com)
- Andy Anderson, Rector, ex officio, non-voting (aanderson@nativity-hsv.org)

You may recommend someone in the parish or submit your own name for consideration. Please make sure that anyone who you suggest is willing to have his/her name considered and meets the requirements as set forth in the Nativity By-laws for Vestry membership (confirmed member of Nativity, regular in attendance, has made and kept a pledge for at least the current year, etc).

The Committee welcomes your comments. Please contact any one of them if you have concerns or would like to make suggestions regarding the process.

For your convenience a drop-box is located in the foyer of Ridley Hall or you may mail the form to:

Youth

Notes!

More than a new look for our youth

Last September, Nativity embarked on a journey to make our youth ministry stronger, more vibrant and more effective. At the encouragement of Father Landry, we hired the group Youth Ministry Architects (YMA) to study our current youth program and help us come up with a solid plan for making it better. As one of the nation's leading providers of youth ministry consulting, YMA provided an assessment of our current youth program and gave us a 36-month plan for renovating it. Part of the plan included finding five parishioners who would focus on building the youth program infrastructure and helping clarify the vision and curriculum of the youth ministry. The Youth Ministry Renovation Team along with Father Landry and our new youth director, William Blackerby, meets every other week to work on this plan.

Here are some of the exciting highlights that have already taken place:

- An enthusiastic (and organized!) youth director has been hired
- A 12-month calendar including weekly youth ministry group times and major ministry events and programs has been created
- An upgraded and greatly improved youth area for Club 56 and the 7 & 8th graders has been built in Ridley Hall
- Curriculum resources for the 2013-2014 school year have been selected
- Key volunteers including weekly volunteers and major event coordinators for the 2013-2014 year are in the process of being recruited
- A Fall kick-off planning team has been recruited a date has been set
- Summer activities including a youth rafting trip have been scheduled

As we move closer to the full implementation of our renovation plan, we will continue to update you on our progress. In the meantime, please feel free to contact any of us if you have questions or ideas to share. We are thrilled to be a part of this process.

Stewardship of Creation Tip

Continuing our Birding theme, here is some additional information about feeding birds, this week specifically,

Hummingbirds:

Hummingbirds specialize in eating nectar, evident by elongated bills ideal for probing tubular flowers. Though bills may vary slightly in size and shape, each protects a long and sensitive forked tongue, which a hummer uses to lick its nectar source – whether a flower or feeder – anywhere from 3 to 13 times a second. The fork forms a trough that draws the nectar up by capillary action.

Hummingbirds depend on the sugar-rich nectar for up to 90% of their diet; the rest is made up of insects and pollen that provide essential protein.

Feeder Facts

Maintaining a backyard hummingbird feeder can help provide the birds with nectar critical to their survival, especially during the fall when they need help to double their body mass before migration. (Contrary to a common fear, the extra food won't stop a hummer from migrating south when it's time to go.) Follow these steps to ensure your yard is a safe and nutritious place for hummingbirds:

- ✦ Instead of one large feeder, hang several smaller ones in different locations. Keep the feeders far enough apart that the hummers cannot see one another; this will prevent one bird from dominating the rest.
- ✦ Fill the feeders with sugar water, made by combining four parts boiled water to one part white sugar, boiled for 1 to 2 minutes. NEVER use honey, which promotes the growth of harmful bacterial, or artificial sweeteners. And Do Not use red food coloring.
- ✦ Hang your feeders in the shade to discourage fermentation and spoilage of the sugar solution.
- ✦ Be sure to change the sugar water regularly – before it gets cloudy, or about twice a week in warm weather.
- ✦ Clean the feeders with a solution of one part white vinegar to four parts water about once a week. If your feeder has become dirty, try adding some grains of dry rice when you clean with the vinegar solution, and shake vigorously. The grains act as a good abrasive. Rinse your feeder well with warm water three times before refilling with sugar solution.
- ✦ Browse your local birding web site to find out when the first hummingbird sightings occur each spring and try to have your feeders up a couple of weeks before that. In the fall, keep your feeders up for two weeks after you see the last bird using it. A straggler or two might wander by on their way south.

SUMMER PRAYER, Dinner and a Movie

begins June 25

Again this summer, the Centering Prayer Groups will offer Tuesday evening prayer and a movie with a light pot-luck supper in Ridley Hall. Centering Prayer begins at 5:30 PM, followed by supper and movie at six. Our first summer movie is "With One Voice," to be shown on June 25. Reservations are not required, just bring a dish to share for supper. Interesting and stimulating discussion always follow the viewing of the movie.

*Note - To make it easier to serve supper, bring dishes that are ready to serve and do not require heating or being kept cold. Sandwiches, pasta salads, green salads, cookies, etc. would be great. Call Brenda Chynoweth if you have a question.
