One Resolution
The Rev. Cal Calhoun

Wow! So it is January! Or almost! It is a New Year, primed for resolutions and other such things. Might I suggest you consider just one resolution this year: Get closer to God. Now, there aren’t many particulars in that. Getting closer to God will mean different things for different people. For some, it might mean making a weekly appearance at church. For others, it might mean getting more regular with the discipline of daily prayer. For someone else, the commitment to a spiritual retreat this year. Or if you are really ambitious, all of the above!! Whatever the case, your clergy are available (remembering that Caroline is very part time!) to help and guide you with spiritual direction. There are also trained lay spiritual directors to whom we can direct you. Spiritual directors share your spiritual journey, listen to what you are experiencing, provide accountability for your spiritual discipline, and on occasion make a suggestion of something (a book, a type or technique of prayer, an insight) that hopefully will help you on the spiritual journey.

My experience and that of many others with whom I have journeyed, is that if I am putting first things first, (getting closer to God) the other important things in life that are worthy of resolutions (deeper relationships, more time with family, time for exercise) seem to fall into place! So my suggestion for resolutions: just one, Get closer to God. If you need some help defining what that looks like for you, come see one of us!

This will be an exciting spring! The 50th Anniversary celebration continues! In January, former Assistant Rector Christine Brannock will be here. In February, former Associate and Interim Rector Jay Mills will visit. In March, Brett Backus, who grew up at Good Sam and is now an Associate Rector at Church of the Ascension in Knoxville, will give a perspective not of having been a clergy person serving at Good Sam, but as someone who grew up here! On Sunday, April 26 we will have our central celebration with one service at 11:00 AM. Ellis Mayfield (the longest tenured priest at Good Sam, 13 years as Rector, 16 years in total) will be here to preach and share memories. Stay tuned for other pieces of the celebration that weekend.

This month we will start several new Christian Education offerings. We will have adult and youth confirmation classes starting this month. These classes will continue until the Bishop’s visit (Confirmation) on May 17. These classes are for those old and new to the Episcopal Church, who would like to know more about who and what we are and why. You need not be considering confirmation to attend. Caroline will start a class for parents and grandparents exploring the book Connecting with Our Children: Guiding Principles for Parents in a Troubled World. The Lectionary Class will continue its weekly exploration and discussion of the Scriptural readings, and we will continue the Uppity Women of the Bible series, exploring the more interesting women characters in Scripture.

I am feeling especially blessed. Not only because I get to serve as your Rector in this 50th Anniversary year, but because I have been blessed to serve in God’s Kingdom with you, this wonderful community of fabulous people for nearly 10 years. Serving in the more “ordinary” years between a 40th and 50th anniversary has been every bit as wonderful and special as this year. May we continue our commitment to ourselves, to one another, and to a world in need, to Grow in Faith, Live in Hope, and Share God’s Love. God Bless each and every one of you, this year and always.

Feast of Lights & Burning of the Greens Party
Mark Your Calendars!
Sunday, January 4, 2014 @ 5:00 pm
Join fellow Good Samaritans on Sunday, January 4 at 5:00 pm for the annual Feast of Lights Service. This is a beautiful service of worship and celebration expressed in music and word.

After the service, stay for the Burning of the Greens party! We’ll have a hot dog supper and then go down to the ball field where Jason Bales and his team of pyromaniacs will have a bonfire blazing and ready to go. There will also be a small separate fire to roast marshmallows for s’mores. So, make sure you bring all your greens from home…trees, garland or wreaths, sans decorations. This is always a fun and meaningful way to say goodbye to the Christmas season!

Feast of Lights Tradition: Books for the Library
Mark You Calendars!
Sunday, January 4, 2014
One of the long-standing traditions at Good Sam for Feast of Lights is to provide books for the library. This is in honor of “The Light that has come into the world.” Please bring new or slightly used books to the Feast of Lights service at 5 pm on Sun., Jan 4.

Family Sunday School:
Connecting with Our Children: Guiding Principles for Parents in a Troubled World
Beginning Sunday, January 11
Starting in January the family class will pick back up again focusing on Family Systems. The first two weeks of Sunday School (Jan. 11 & 18) The Rev. Steve Sexton, Director of Pastoral Care at UT Medical Center will be with us to talk about birth order. Then the class will dive into the book Connecting with Our Children: Guiding Principles for Parents in a Troubled World by Roberta M. Gilbert, which is also grounded in family systems theory. Again, you can read along with the book or simply show up & join in. Either way it will prove to be a fun time together!

You can learn more about the book and/or purchase the book by going to www.amazon.com and searching on Amazon using the book’s title and author. – Caroline+

Confirmation Classes 2015
Beginning Sunday, January 11
Adult @ 9:45 am; Youth @ 12:40 pm
Adult Confirmation or Inquirer’s Class starts January 11. The history of the sacrament of Confirmation is that it is the adult confirmation, or acceptance, of our baptismal vows that were made on our behalf if we were baptized as an infant. It is also the class or method by which adults, baptized or confirmed in another denomination or tradition, join the Episcopal Church. We also highly recommend those life-long Episcopalians who were confirmed when they were 12 or 13 to attend and learn all the stuff they didn’t learn the first time! We will touch on things, as unfortunately we don’t have time for in-depth exploration of all the areas we need to cover. We will discuss why we are here (at church) and the importance of the Spiritual Journey. We will explore the history of the Celtic/Anglican/Episcopal Church, and our polity (how we govern ourselves). We will make a review of Scripture and the approach that Anglicans take to Scripture. How we differ from other denominations will be discussed, so we better understand our unique place in the Christian faith. We will explore the Book of Common Prayer, our Baptismal Covenant, and the Liturgical Calendar. We will also have an Instructed Eucharist after church one Sunday. The class will be held during the Sunday School hour from January 11 to the Bishop’s visit May 17 (with Palm Sunday and Easter Sunday off). Please join us! You will be glad you did!

Youth Confirmation will also begin on January 11, after the 11:00 service. We will meet from 12:30 (12:40) to 2:30 most Sundays. We need parents to sign up to bring lunch once or twice during the class. We expect those who have not previously attended Happening, to attend the weekend retreat March 13-15. – Fr. Cal+

The Lectionary Class
Resumes Sunday, January 11 @ 9:45 am
The Lectionary Class is a lay team lead conversation that explores the Scripture readings each week. Join this group to enhance your worship experience by getting more familiar with the readings and bringing more depth to your understanding of the Scriptures and the sermon.

Uppity Women of the Bible
Resumes Sunday, January 11 @ 9:45 am
This will be a continuation of the class that began in the fall. Amma Taylor will facilitate this class that will begin each week with a DVD presentation of Hebrew Bible professor Dr. Lisa Wolfe, followed by class discussion. Topics include Ruth, The Song of Songs, Esther, and Judith.
Good Sam Ice Skating Party

Sunday, January 11
3:00 – 5:00 pm

Everyone is invited for a fun afternoon of ice-skating on Sunday, January 11 from 3:00 – 5:00 pm at the Ice Chalet on Kingston Pike. This is a great opportunity for young and old to gather and have some fun. If you know how to skate, come and help those that are going for the first time. They even have little walkers to take around the rink. If you would be willing to donate cookies for treats, please let me know. We usually have good participation for this event and a lot of fun. If you have a school coupon you will not be using, please drop it by the church for others to use. - Ann Backus

Pilgrimage to Kondoa

Sunday, January 11

The deadline for the money to be turned in for the trip to Kondoa is January 11. If you are considering going and haven’t talked to Cal, please do so immediately. - Cal+

January Book Group

Tuesday, January 13 – 6:30 pm

The Book Group will meet on Tuesday, January 13 at the home of Sabra Parish, 10043 Dayflower Way, Knoxville, 37932 at 6:30 PM. Please bring a finger food to share.

The book selection for the month is The Husband’s Secret by Liane Moriarty. In a review written by Sarah Nelson for Amazon, the “The Husband’s Secret, is better described as a comedy of manners and one with a serious undertone. As in her previous books, Moriarty here wittily and observantly chronicles the life of middle aged, middle class Australian women, suburbanites who grapple with prosaic issues like marital fidelity and torturous ones like moral guilt and responsibility. You can’t help but laugh along with the small observations—‘And there was poor little Rob, a teenage boy clumsily trying to make everything right, all false smiles and cheery lies. No wonder he became a real estate agent.’ But it’s the big ones - can good people do very, very bad things, and what, exactly, are we responsible for, and for how long? - that will make you think. This is a deceptively rich novel that transcends its era and place at the same time that it celebrates same.” Please join us to enjoy Sabra’s hospitality, great munchies, and a wonderful discussion.

Upcoming Selection: February: The Invention of Wings by Sue Monk Kidd; March: Life in a Jar: The Irene Sendler Project by Jack Meyer; April: Unbroken by Lauren Hillenbrand. - Mary Embler

Chili Cook-off Time!

Sunday, January 25
Judging @ 5:30 pm - Supper @ 6:00 pm

It’s back! The famous Annual Chili Cook-off is set for Sunday, January 25. The Christmas and New Year’s Eve festivities are over, the long cold winter has set in…it’s time to warm up with a hot bowl of chili and a bit of fellowship and friendly competition with your fellow Good Samaritans!

There will be a few signup sheets in Henslee Hall beginning January 4 - one for those making chili to enter into competition, one if you would like to be a judge, and one to bring an appetizer to share as we wait on the judges to make their culinary decisions. Prizes will be awarded in a few different categories to be determined by the judges.

This really is a fun, laid-back time for fellowship…and for one lucky chef, bragging rights for a year. Come and help us crown the Chili Cook-off Champ for 2014!

Women’s Mentoring Ministry at the VMC

Tuesday, January 27 @ 6:00 pm

Our first VMC Mentoring Ministry of the New Year will be Tuesday, January 27 starting at 6:00 pm at the VMC. We will be playing Bingo for Game Night and the ladies will win prizes supplied by us. We will be having pizza and lots of fun. Participants are welcome to bring small prizes, small personal items that can be carried easily for personal care or entertainment. We will offer carpooling from the church at 5:15pm. Let us know if you want to carpool from the church.

Our February 23 program will be lead by Bonnie Honaker. We will be making fun scarves with yarn and ribbon. Put this on your calendar!

If you are interested in participating in Women’s Mentoring Ministry, please contact either Maryanne Hoemann at mhoemann5@gmail.com or (272-3880) or Barbara Ashdown at barbashdown@yahoo.com or 539-2791.

Women’s Bunko Night

Friday, January 30 – 6:00 pm

Calling all women of the church… join us on Friday, January 30 at 6 p.m. for a few games of Bunko and quite a lot of fellowship. We’ll provide the Bunko supplies and you’ll bring an appetizer to share, along with your own beverage. Look for more information in the weekly e-newsletter. If you have questions about the evening, contact Megan Brown or the church office at goodsam@knology.net. - Megan Brown

Vestry Updates

At the annual Parish Meeting in November, Good Samaritans elected Ben Alford, Hope Mitchell, Lauren Passarello and Jan Travins to the vestry for a three-year term. Congratulations to them! Good Sam would like to thank outgoing Vestry members – Sr. Warden Jason Bales, Jr. Warden Liz Rea, Allan Philp and Fran Potter for their contribution to the vestry and our church community these past three years. Job very well done!

On December 21, the vestry was commissioned during both services and after a brief vestry meeting between the services, it was announced that Joyce Grubb had been elected to the position of Senior Warden and Terry Scarlett had been elected as Junior Warden. Congratulations to them. We are confident that this team of committed Good Samaritans will lead us well!

The vestry, Fr. Cal and Amma Taylor will be on retreat beginning Friday, January 16. They will return on Sunday afternoon, January 18. – Jennifer Dunn

Thank you!

Alice and I would like to thank all the ladies and gentlemen that came to Good Sam on the afternoon of December 21 to help with “the greening of the church.” There was a lot to do and everyone jumped in and helped in so many ways... making rings for the torches, adding evergreen to the wreaths, hanging garland, helping with the poinsettias, and all the other little jobs that went along with the greening. Thank you so much for helping get Good Sam ready for Christmas Eve and Christmas Day. We appreciate all your help. – Alice Beets and Tanya Hawk

Thank you from the Beahms

Walt and I were absolutely thrilled to have you come to our home and sing to us!! Everyone looked so good in their Christmas hats. Having the little children was wonderful. The adults were great too, but little ones make Christmas so special!

Also, I was happy to see everyone. I forgot to open presents you brought. Thanks so much for the scented ornaments and the pretty glass one and puzzles. The candy is great too.

As you know, we have been Good Sam members almost since the beginning. Our four children grew up at Good Sam. Our daughter, Lisa Mandrell, is still very active in church. Her and Keith’s three sons also grew up at Good Sam. We have always loved the people and priests that have served us well. We have loved every minute of being at Good Sam.

Thank you so much for coming to sing Christmas Carols to us. We absolutely loved it!

God Bless you all! – Jo & Walt Beahm

Greetings from the Rafters

Dear Parish Family – It was an honor to return to Good Sam and “kick off” the 50th Year Celebration. What an exciting weekend! It was a joy to worship once again in that exceptionally beautiful building, to meet new people, renew old friendships, and experience the vitality of the people there. It was humbling to see the parish children of our years there with their own families.

Best wishes as you continue to celebrate 50 years of past ministry and look to the future to meet the needs yet unveiled. Christmas Blessings to one and all.

Faithfully, John & Michelle Rafter

Thank you from the Humane Society

Dear Friends – You make a living by what you get, but you make a life by what you give. We know you have a choice when you decide to donate. Thank you for choosing the animals at Humane Society of the Tennessee Valley.

Thank you for your donation of paper towels, towels, bleach, kitty litter, laundry detergent, biscuits, blankets and dog food on October 8, 2014. With your support we are one step closer to becoming a No-Kill Tennessee.

Thank you for your gift and for being part of the solution.

~Pat Hackett, DVM, Board President

Silent Auction Fundraiser for Youth Mission Trip

The Pancake Supper and Silent Auction are right around the corner. Please be thinking about what you might be able to donate to help us raise money for the mission trip to the Charleston area. If you receive a gift you can’t use, save it for the auction. Once things settle down after the holidays, you can begin working on your craft items...quilting, knitting, painting, stained glass, etc... glass, pottery, any crafts or handmade items are well received. We were a little below our goal last year, so please think about how you might be able to contribute to the auction. Try to be creative…do you have a service you could offer? What about making a gift basket or asking someone to donate a service? Thanks for your support. – Ann Backus

Parents’ Night Out
Friday, January 23 from 6-9pm
Please let Ann or Emily know if your child(ren) will attend. Pizza will be served.

EY News for January
Senior High Sabbath is January 23-25 at Grace Point. This is a relaxed, restful and spiritual weekend retreat for youth 9-12th grade. Scheduling is minimal, with a variety of optional activities offered. Plan to attend this weekend and get re-charged after the holidays! Scholarships are available.

Registration can be found on the ETNYouth website! www.etnynouth.org/registration.htm

The youth will be beginning new studies this semester, beginning with discussions of responsible mission work in the world and our own community. We will be visiting the Outreach center at UT, the on-campus association for LGBT and Allied students. Several active students at the Tyson House campus ministry are involved there, and will be facilitating the event. The youth will learn about terminology, advocacy and will be able to have an open Q&A session. The hope is to equip our youth with practical ways they can impact their peers regarding LGBT rights, while helping them learn how to decrease bullying and to stand up for LGBT peers in an often hostile atmosphere.

We are also planning an overnight trip to Chattanooga to worship with Southside Abbey, and to explore various ministries in the city, while also having some fun! Details to come in the new year.

In January KEY will be hosted at Tyson House, on the 25th. Last year over 90 students and youth joined for worship at this event, and we anticipate this one to be just as inspiring! Knoxville Episcopal Youth (KEY) has recently added Facebook, Instagram and Twitter accounts in order to facilitate sharing of photos and experiences while bringing youth together outside of the events.

January 4: No Sunday School; Feast of Lights & Burning of the Greens Party @ 5:00 pm
January 11: Sunday School resumes. EY @ 6:00 pm
January 18: Sunday School @ 9:45; Chili Cook-off @ 6 pm
January 23 – 25: Senior High Sabbath
January 25: Sunday School @ 9:45; KEY @ Tyson House @ 6:00 pm

Children & Youth News

Outreach and Service

The children and youth have had a busy month of service. We began with 25 Christmas Carolers who spread cheer and laughter to six Good Samaritan members, plus a visit to Arbor Terrace. Thanks to all the youth and families who participated. It was a really “feel good” day.

Last week I delivered a record number of shoeboxes to the Volunteer Ministry Center. They were so delighted to receive them. We filled and wrapped over 60 boxes!

Thanks to everyone who donated items. The children had the opportunity to put aside their needs for a short time and think about others. The participation and donations of many also helps them to see that many hands make light work. I am so thankful for each person who shared their time with others, and for giving our children such a positive experience. – Ann Backus

Sunday School Begins on January 11

We had a wonderful December of Generational Activities. On January 11th, we will return to our normal Sunday School activities. Rotation Sunday School will begin a 3 week study of Samuel. That promises to be a favorite! – Ann Backus

Faithful Families Frozen Party!
Families with children under 6th grade Saturday, January 31, 5:00-7:00 pm

Mark your calendars now and join us for the Faithful Families Frozen party!! Supper will be served. More details to follow, but there will be lots of fun and games involved. Assure your boys it will NOT be a princess party!! I promise the return of the snowman contest and snowball fight, along with several new activities. – Ann Backus

4th Annual Diocesan Photography Contest

In Conjunction with the 31st Annual Convention of the Episcopal Diocese of East Tennessee – Feb. 6-7, 2015

The Diocese of East Tennessee is pleased to announce the fourth annual juried convention photography competition and exhibition. We are inviting entries in two categories: 1: Photographs related to mission and 2: Humorous photos. The competition is open to all parishioners in the Diocese of East Tennessee. To read more about the two different categories and learn more go to www.bit.ly/2015PhotoProspectus.

All entries must be received at the Diocesan House, matted and ready for display, no later than January 23. Limit 3 photos per person. Entries may be black and white or color, and previous entries may not be resubmitted for this year's competition. This year, there will be prizes for 1st, 2nd, and 3rd place winners.

Start the Year off Right

Sunday School resumes on January 11. If you and your children have not been attending Sunday School regularly, make the commitment this new year to start. There are so many benefits to attending Sunday School: children learn about and feel the love of God, they have many adult teachers to show they care for them, and they develop great friendships with other Christian children. It is never too late to start attending Sunday School. – Ann Backus
