Our Mission

God's family at the historic Church of the Nativity is joyfully and energetically committed to sharing Christ's love and healing by proclaiming the Good News of the Gospel through worship and service to the world.

Advent Preparations

Advent has suddenly sprung upon us! Falling on Thanksgiving Weekend when most of our attention has been focused on family gatherings (or for some, football games), it almost feels that we have been pounced upon by this holy season of hope, preparation, and expectation. With the Feast of the Nativity looming barely three weeks ahead, can we take some time to pause before rushing to put up the Christmas decorations and think about our place in Advent? What are we hoping for? For what and how are we preparing? What are you expecting to happen?

Before we embrace the beautiful story of the babe lying in a manger; the tales of those high and low, shepherds and kings seeking this child whose birth is heralded with great joy, may we consider "the why" of it all. The hope, preparations and expectations for our lives and especially for this world we undergo especially in this season, find their meaning in Advent's main message: God's reign, God's kingdom is coming into this world. The One who created the sun and the moon and the other stars and in whom we live and move and have our being has always wanted the creation to reflect the holy purposes of what we call the Kingdom of God.

God's messengers, prophets and angels have been reminding us, however, that we have not always been aligned with the Divine purposes of God's reign. And so in Advent we hear their clarion call of repentance and to renew our commitment to God's Kingdom that is always coming and will one day be all in all. God's incarnation (joining God's being and existence to created matter) in the birth of Jesus of Nazareth loses its impact if we fail to recognize that Jesus gives us that clarion call to live as he lived: fully aligned to God's purposes in God's kingdom.

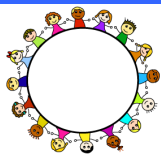

Our world seems never more in need of our renewed commitment to God's reign that is ever embracing the entire creation and every family, language and tribe of nations. The world seems dark, but God's light as it has been revealed over and over again, and especially in the Word Made Flesh, Jesus, pierces the darkness and the darkness cannot overcome it. The world seems so divided, but we are all one from the foundations of God's good creation.

Although prudence and wisdom are important virtues, God's reign means we will not allow fear to rule our lives. Many of the conversations going on in the world today are more governed by fear than the love we know in Christ Jesus. The cold-heartedness found in many of the voices around the Syrian Refugee Crisis and how we can respond does not reflect our values of God's reign. The question for all of us is "how does our hoping for, preparing for, and expectations for God's reign change our voice in these conversations going on in the world around us? How does our care for others, through our time, talent and financial resources, reflect God's reign in our lives? Are we more concerned about the right Christmas presents than the Christmas presence of God coming into the world?

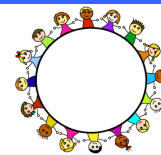

God's presence in Christ builds a human community of love and blessing across differences of tribe, race, religion, gender, economic status, sexual identity and all the issues we face in our complex and beautiful world. We proclaim a God who is God of all, who has been at work in this world from the beginning of creation and who has been specifically revealed in the Word made Flesh, Jesus. Our God continues to bring people together in love and peace through the power of the Holy Spirit.

In our Advent preparations may we engage others with this way of living together in this world, setting our fears aside, revealing our hope in God's call. Welcoming God's reign, we offer a view of the world that locates all humanity in the embrace of a loving and caring God...a God who is revealed in Jesus, the babe of Bethlehem whose birth we celebrate at Christmas, and whose presence wants to be born again in our own lives and world.

Children's Corner Children's Sunday Formation Advent Events!

St Nicholas Sunday, pajama party and Oscar Mason gifts, this Sunday!

Children are invited to wear their pj's to church and enjoy a visit from St. Nicholas during children's chapel. The celebration will continue in Sunday school with a special snack and creating artwork for the Christmas Eve Bulletin.

Following our tradition for St Nicholas day, we'll be collecting gifts for our friends at the Oscar Mason Library afterschool program. This year we are bringing hats, gloves, and scarves. Sign up for a boy or girl here <http://www.signupgenius.com/go/10c094ca8a62ca2fc1-pajama>. Children will bring their gifts forward when they follow St Nicholas out for children's chapel.

Art Contest for Christmas Eve bulletin cover:

During Sunday school this week, the classes will work on pencil drawings of a Nativity scene. The church staff will vote on the winner and the selected work will be featured on the cover of the 4:00pm Christmas Eve bulletin. If your child can't be at Sunday school but would like to enter a drawing, email mcoe@nativity-hsv.org for more information.

Caroling on December 13th, 12:45pm

Please join us at Harborage Assisted Living (4801 Whitesport Circle, 35801) for carol singing with the residents. NO singing expertise is required! Every singer is welcome. This is a great way for children to experience the Advent message in action. The carolers enjoy it as much as the residents. Contact: Barbara Bonner bcbonner65@gmail.com

ERD Hope chest coin collectors

Kids, continue collecting your coins for Episcopal Relief and Development. Bring your hope chest coin collectors back on December 20th or to Ridley Hall before the 4:00pm service on Christmas Eve.

Nativity's Festival of Nine Lessons and Carols

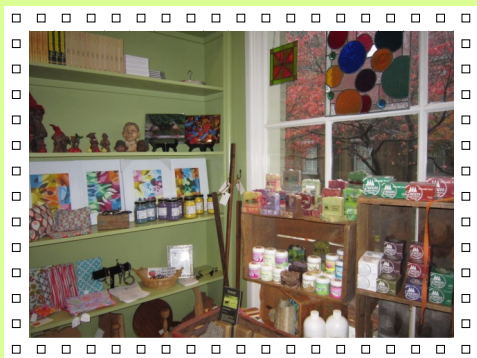

Saturday, December 19, 5:00pm

The Annual Festival of Nine Lessons and Carols, an integral part of the Church of the Nativity's worship schedule and a Friends of Music event, is fast approaching on Saturday, December 19 at 5:00pm. This beautiful panoply of readings and anthems from the Advent and Christmas season lays out the central theme of the Incarnation event in scripture and song. The Nativity Choir is preparing a rich blend of musical styles in the anthem/carol settings which will be interspersed between the lessons which begin with the Genesis reading describing the Fall to the ninth lesson in which John unfolds the great mystery of the Incarnation. From the boundless energy of Frank Boles' setting of the familiar medieval text "Adam Lay YBounden" to the lush harmonies of Paul Manz's "E'en So, Lord Jesus, Quickly Come," the musical portions illuminate the themes of this service, which is modeled on that heard yearly from King's College.

Nicholas Bergin, organist from Nashville where he serves First Presbyterian Church, will assist Dr. Stephen G. Schaeffer, Interim Organist/Choirmaster who is conducting and playing the final hymn and voluntary. Nativity's clergy will be joined by readers representing parish and community organizations and leaders. Mark your calendars for December 19th at 5pm, spread the word to your friends and colleagues, and certainly plan to attend this very meaningful festival.

Holiday Market & Open House

Saturday, December 5th, 11:00am - 3:00pm

Join us for a holiday market and open house in and around the Greene Street Store that will include locally produced goods, special tastings, book signings and more!

Interim Organist/Choirmaster Stephen G. Schaeffer recorded a CD on the Cathedral Church of the Advent's 100-rank Möller organ. The CD is for sale in the Market Store for $15.

Familiar organ favorites will make a great Christmas gift.

The Greene Street Market and Store are part of Nativity's Outreach Ministry.

“Advent Memory Walk...A Time for those Grieving During the Holiday Season”

Hope Presbyterian Church invites you to join us in a Memory Walk at our prayer labyrinth on Dec. 5 at 10am. This time of worship and prayer is open to the community.

As we approach the holidays our thoughts often turn to those who are no longer with us. Sometimes these memories enrich us, sometimes they cause pain. Each person will carry a light signifying those they are remembering into the labyrinth. We will then carry out fragrant Rosemary, the herb for remembrance. By remembering we are participating in the “communion of saints” and allowing the Holy Spirit to give us peace. If you don’t wish to walk, you may stand on the outside circle and bear witness.

Hope Presbyterian Church is located in SE Huntsville at the corner of Bailey Cove Road and Weatherly Road. The prayer labyrinth is on the west lawn of the church (the side that faces Bailey Cove Road)—the entrance to the labyrinth is off the rear parking lot and is marked by a wrought iron arch. If you have questions or would like to let us know you will be attending, please contact the church office

Outreach in Action

Be The Change Alabama Project Update:

Members of the Be the Change Alabama (BTCA) Team presented 6 laptop and 4 tablet computers to the staff at the Huntsville Inner City Learning Center this week. Funding was made possible through Nativity's Outreach Committee by using vestry approved funding from the Nativity Trust (a part of the Alabama Episcopal Foundation).

The laptops will be used at the Learning Center in support of the newly opened Women's Center in their GED preparation program and the tablets will be used in the new K-2nd grade program.

Our BCTA team, in partnership with the Inner City Learning Center, is beginning to address the concern of food justice in the Butler Terrace community. Residents there have limited or no access to fresh produce, which is critical for healthy bodies and minds. The Learning Center began to address food this need by creating raised vegetable gardens, which the children of the center plant, weed, water, harvest, and eat what they produce. These first steps are the beginning of food sovereignty and justice. Be The Change Alabama hopes this effort will soon enable the entire community to be empowered to provide much of their own food, especially produce. The Learning Center's future goals are: to purchase and remodel a building into a community grocery store that is supplied with produce grown by the children, to work with Greene Street Market and other local farmers to sell their produce in this store; to have cold storage in which the center store produce; and to conduct regular cooking classes to teach their community how to cook seasonal produce. These donated computers will also be used to design garden space, plan menus, produce cookbooks and for other projects that support this food justice issue.

BTCA is a partner with the Learning Center in helping them realize and actualize their goals of food sovereignty and justice. How can you help? Be part of the team as we develop and foster vital relationships in the Butler Terrace community; help the team and the Learning Center create resources; find volunteers to partner with the Learning Center, to include individuals who like to cook and share their expertise on how to cook seasonal food; and finally to pray along with us that we can show the love of God, through Christ, in the world that is hungry for compassion.

ARE YOU INTERESTED IN BEING A PART OF OUTREACH?

Please contact Mother Bonnie McCrickard at bmccrickard@nativity-hsv.org or Marilyn Lands at marilynlands@gmail.com

NATIVITY TRUST GIFT MAKES A DIFFERENCE FOR THE HUNTSVILLE INNER CITY LEARNING CENTER

With the Vestry's approval, the BTCA Team presented a gift of 4 tablets and 6 laptop computers to the Huntsville Inner City Learning Center's staff. Team members requested these funds in a joint effort with our Outreach Ministry from the Nativity Trust (a part of the Alabama Episcopal Foundation) to make this $6,000 gift possible. The Nativity Trust may use trust fund income (not corpus) to support new ministry initiatives reaching out to the community that are not funded by the operating budget. Some of the many projects funded by the Nativity Trust include: The Icons in Transformation exhibit; helping build a new chapel at Limestone State Prison, and providing support for a family who lost everything in the April 2011 tornado.

Nativity has two planned giving vehicles to support critical non-funded ministry expenses. The Nativity Trust, through the Alabama Episcopal Foundation, directs 75% of allocated income proceeds to new efforts reaching out to the community that enrich lives through justice ministry efforts and other ways to connect people to God's love and grace.

The Nativity Trust may also direct 25% of allocated income proceeds for any capital project or debt service. The Nativity Historic Preservation Foundation directs all its support to care for our historic buildings. Gifts for historic preservation must be specified while any non-designated bequests to Nativity must be directed to the Nativity Trust.
