

THE STEEPLE

The Church of the Nativity

March 16, 2016

Our Mission

God's family at the historic Church of the Nativity is joyfully and energetically committed to sharing Christ's love and healing by proclaiming the Good News of the Gospel through worship and service to the world.

HOLY WEEK 2016

Almighty God, whose most dear Son went not up to joy but first he suffered pain, and entered not into glory before he was crucified: Mercifully grant that we, walking in the way of the cross, may find it none other than the way of life and peace; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Beginning this Sunday with Palm Sunday, Holy Week draws us into the great mystery of God's love in Christ as we enter the paschal mystery. I encourage you to be immersed in the church's observance of God's saving acts which show the way Love delivers our salvation.

Many of our families with children are now in the season of spring break. No matter where you are, I hope you will find an Episcopal Church and show up on Palm Sunday, Maundy Thursday and Good Friday (and I do hope you will all be home by Easter!). I remember my parents taking me to church as a child when we were on vacation...it obviously made a lasting impression and shaped my life! I hope you will give your children and yourself this gift.

Our observance of Holy Week is not, however, only about events that happened 2000 years ago. The Way of the Cross has significance for our life today. Our Bishops meeting together this week have important things to say to us about what happened that first Holy Week that must continue to shape our lives in Christ today in this divided world. It is unusual they come to a unanimous mind on matters of public policy, but the Spirit has led them to offer the Church these words. I share them in the prayerful hope that you will take them to heart, allowing God's love in Christ revealed in Holy Week and Easter shape your life and your decisions today.

Amby +

A Word to the Church from the House of Bishops this Holy Week

We reject the idolatrous notion that we can ensure the safety of some by sacrificing the hopes of others.

On Good Friday the ruling political forces of the day tortured and executed an innocent man. They sacrificed the weak and the blameless to protect their own status and power. On the third day Jesus was raised from the dead, revealing not only their injustice but also unmasking the lie that might makes right.

In a country still living under the shadow of the lynching tree, we are troubled by the violent forces being released by this season's political rhetoric. Americans are turning against their neighbors, particularly those on the margins of society. They seek to secure their own safety and security at the expense of others. There is legitimate reason to fear where this rhetoric and the actions arising from it might take us.

In this moment, we resemble God's children wandering in the wilderness. We, like they, are struggling to find our way. They turned from following God and worshiped a golden calf constructed from their own wealth. The current rhetoric is leading us to construct a modern false idol out of power and privilege. We reject the idolatrous notion that we can ensure the safety of some by sacrificing the hopes of others. No matter where we fall on the political spectrum, we must respect the dignity of every human being and we must seek the common good above all else.

We call for prayer for our country that a spirit of reconciliation will prevail and we will not betray our true selves.
