The Collect of the Day

Good Friday

BCP, page 221

Almighty God, we pray you graciously to behold this your family, for whom our Lord Jesus Christ was willing to be betrayed, and given into the hands of sinners, and to suffer death upon the cross; who now lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

THE PROCLAMATION OF THE WORD OF GOD

First Lesson

Isaiah 52:13 – 53:12

See, my servant shall prosper; he shall be exalted and lifted up, and shall be very high. Just as there were many who were astonished at him—so marred was his appearance, beyond human semblance, and his form beyond that of mortals—so he shall startle many nations; kings shall shut their mouths because of him; for that which had not been told them they shall see, and that which they had not heard they shall contemplate. Who has believed what we have heard? And to whom has the arm of the LORD been revealed? For he grew up before him like a young plant, and like a root out of dry ground; he had no form or majesty that we should look at him, nothing in his appearance that we should desire him. He was despised and rejected by others; a man of suffering and acquainted with infirmity; and as one from whom others hide their faces he was despised, and we held him of no account. Surely he has borne our infirmities and carried our diseases; yet we accounted him stricken, struck down by God, and afflicted. But he was wounded for our transgressions, crushed for our iniquities; upon him was the punishment that made us whole, and by his bruises we are healed. All we like sheep have gone astray; we have all turned to our own way, and the LORD has laid on him the iniquity of us all. He was oppressed, and he was afflicted, yet he did not open his mouth; like a lamb that is led to the slaughter, and like a sheep that before its shearers is silent, so he did not open his mouth. By a perversion of justice he was taken away. Who could have imagined his future? For he was cut off from the land of the living, stricken for the transgression of my people. They made his grave with the wicked and his tomb with the rich, although he had done no violence, and there was no deceit in his mouth. Yet it was the will of the LORD to crush him with pain. When you make his life an offering for sin, he shall see his offspring, and shall prolong his days; through him the will of the LORD shall prosper. Out of his anguish he shall see light; he shall find satisfaction through his knowledge. The righteous one, my servant, shall make many righteous, and he shall bear their iniquities. Therefore I will allot him a portion with the great, and he shall divide the spoil with the strong; because he poured out himself to death, and was numbered with the transgressors; yet he bore the sin of many, and made intercession for the transgressors.

Plainsong

They _ di - vide my gar-ments a-mong them, they cast _ lots for my clo - thing.

1        My God, my God, why have you forsaken me? *
           and are so far from my cry and from the words of my distress?

2        O my God, I cry in the daytime, but you do not answer; *
           by night as well, but I find no rest.

Refrain

3        Yet you are the Holy One, * enthroned upon the praises of Israel.

4        Our forefathers put their trust in you; *
           they trusted, and you delivered them.

Refrain

5 They cried out to you and were delivered; * they trusted in you and were not put to shame.

6 But as for me, I am a worm and no man, *
scorned by all and despised by the people.

Refrain

7 All who see me laugh me to scorn; *
they curl their lips and wag their heads, saying,

8 "He trusted in the LORD; let him deliver him; *
let him rescue him, if he delights in him."

Refrain

9 Yet you are he who took me out of the womb, *
and kept me safe upon my mother's breast.

10 I have been entrusted to you ever since I was born; *
you were my God when I was still in my mother's womb.

11 Be not far from me, for trouble is near, *
and there is none to help.

Refrain

Second Lesson

Hebrews 4:14-16; 5:7-9

Since, then, we have a great high priest who has passed through the heavens, Jesus, the Son of God, let us hold fast to our confession. For we do not have a high priest who is unable to sympathize with our weaknesses, but we have one who in every respect has been tested as we are, yet without sin. Let us therefore approach the throne of grace with boldness, so that we may receive mercy and find grace to help in time of need. In the days of his flesh, Jesus offered up prayers and supplications, with loud cries and tears, to the one who was able to save him from death, and he was heard because of his reverent submission. Although he was a Son, he learned obedience through what he suffered; and having been made perfect, he became the source of eternal salvation for all who obey him.

Psalm 69: 1-10, 14-16, 19-22

Refrain

Plainsong

They gave me gall to eat; and — when I was thirst - y, they gave me vin - e - gar to drink.

- 1 Save me, O God,
for the waters have risen up to my neck.
- 2 I am sinking in deep mire,
and there is no firm ground for my feet.
- 3 I have come into deep waters,
And the torrent washes over me. Refrain
- 4 I have grown weary with my crying;
my throat is inflamed;
my eyes have failed from looking for my God.
- 5 Those who hate me without a cause are more than the hairs of my head;
my lying foes who would destroy me are mighty.
Must I then give back what I never stole? Refrain
- 6 O God, you know my foolishness, and my faults are not hidden from you.
- 7 Let not those who hope in you be put to shame through me,
Lord God of hosts;
let not those who seek you be disgraced because of me,
O God of Israel. Refrain
- 8 Surely for your sake have I suffered reproach, and shame has covered my face.
- 9 I have become a stranger to my own kindred,
an alien to my mother's children.
- 10 Zeal for your house has eaten me up;
the scorn of those who scorn you has fallen upon me. Refrain
- 14 But as for me, this is my prayer to you,
at the time you have set, O Lord:
- 15 "In your great mercy, O God, answer me with your unfailing help.
- 16 Save me from the mire; do not let me sink;
let me be rescued from those who hate me and out of the deep waters." Refrain
- 19 "Hide not your face from your servant;
be swift and answer me, for I am in distress.

- 20 Draw near to me and redeem me;
because of my enemies deliver me.
- 21 You know my reproach, my shame and my dishonor;
my adversaries are all in your sight."
- 22 Reproach has broken my heart, and it cannot be healed;
I looked for sympathy, but there was none,
for comforters, but I could find no one.

✠ The Passion of Our Lord Jesus Christ according to Saint John ✠

The customary responses before and after the Gospel reading are omitted.

The People remain seated for the first section, rising where indicated in the text.

At the words, "Then he bowed his head and gave up his spirit," all kneel in silent prayer, rising for the conclusion of the reading. The Narrator of this Gospel is St. John.

*In the following dialogue format, the People take the part of the Crowd.

John Hear the passion of our Lord Jesus Christ, according to John. Jesus went out with his disciples across the Kidron valley to a place where there was a garden, which he and his disciples entered. Now Judas, who betrayed him, also knew the place, because Jesus often met there with his disciples. So Judas brought a detachment of soldiers together with police from the chief priests and the Pharisees, and they came there with lanterns and torches and weapons. Then Jesus, knowing all that was to happen to him, came forward and asked them,

Jesus "For whom are you looking?"

John They answered,

Soldiers "Jesus of Nazareth."

John Jesus replied,

Jesus "I am he."

John Judas, who betrayed him, was standing with them. When Jesus said to them, "I am he," they stepped back and fell to the ground. Again he asked them,

Jesus "For whom are you looking?"

John And they said,

Soldiers "Jesus of Nazareth."

John Jesus answered,

Jesus "I told you that I am he. So if you are looking for me, let these men go."

John This was to fulfill the word that he had spoken, "I did not lose a single one of those whom you gave me." Then Simon Peter, who had a sword, drew it, struck the high priest's slave, and cut off his right ear. The slave's name was Malchus. Jesus said to Peter,

Jesus "Put your sword back into its sheath. Am I not to drink the cup that the Father has given me?"

John So the soldiers, their officer, and the Jewish police arrested Jesus and bound him. First they took him to Annas, who was the father-in-law of Caiaphas, the high priest that year. Caiaphas was the one who had advised the Jews that it was better to have one person die for the people. Simon Peter and another disciple followed Jesus. Since that disciple was known to the high priest, he went with Jesus into the courtyard of the high priest, but Peter was standing outside at the gate. So the other disciple, who was known to the high priest, went out, spoke to the woman who guarded the gate, and brought Peter in. The woman said to Peter,

Woman "You are not also one of this man's disciples, are you?"

Peter "I am not."

John Now the slaves and the police had made a charcoal fire because it was cold, and they were standing around it and warming themselves. Peter also was standing with them and warming himself. Then the high priest questioned Jesus about his disciples and about his teaching. Jesus answered,

Jesus "I have spoken openly to the world; I have always taught in synagogues and in the temple, where all the Jews come together. I have said nothing in secret. Why do you ask me? Ask those who heard what I said to them; they know what I said."

John When he had said this, one of the police standing nearby struck Jesus on the face, saying,

A soldier "Is that how you answer the high priest?"

John Jesus answered,

Jesus "If I have spoken wrongly, testify to the wrong. But if I have spoken rightly, why do you strike me?"

John Then Annas sent him bound to Caiaphas the high priest. Now Simon Peter was standing and warming himself. They asked him,

Crowd "You are not also one of his disciples, are you?"

John Peter denied it and said,

Peter "I am not."

John One of the slaves of the high priest, a relative of the man whose ear Peter had cut off, asked,

A Slave "Did I not see you in the garden with him?"

John Again Peter denied it, and at that moment the cock crowed. Then they took Jesus from Caiaphas to Pilate's headquarters. It was early in the morning. They themselves did not enter the headquarters, so as to avoid ritual defilement and to be able to eat the Passover. So Pilate went out to them and said,

Pilate "What accusation do you bring against this man?"

John They answered,

All men "If this man were not a criminal, we would not have handed him over to you."

John Pilate said to them,

Pilate "Take him yourselves and judge him according to your law."

John The Jews replied,

All men "We are not permitted to put anyone to death."

John (This was to fulfill what Jesus had said when he indicated the kind of death he was to die.) Then Pilate entered the headquarters again, summoned Jesus, and asked him,

Pilate "Are you the King of the Jews?"

John Jesus answered,

Jesus "Do you ask this on your own, or did others tell you about me?"

John Pilate replied,

Pilate "I am not a Jew, am I? Your own nation and the chief priests have handed you over to me. What have you done?"

John Jesus answered,

Jesus "My kingdom is not from this world. If my kingdom were from this world, my followers would be fighting to keep me from being handed over to the Jews. But as it is, my kingdom is not from here."

John Pilate asked him,

Pilate "So you are a king?"

John Jesus answered,

Jesus "You say that I am a king. For this I was born, and for this I came into the world, to testify to the truth. Everyone who belongs to the truth listens to my voice."

John Pilate asked him,

Pilate "What is truth?"

John After he had said this, he went out to the Jews again and told them,

Pilate "I find no case against him. But you have a custom that I release someone for you at the Passover. Do you want me to release for you the King of the Jews?"

John They shouted in reply,

Crowd "Not this man, but Barabbas!"

John Now Barabbas was a bandit. Then Pilate took Jesus and had him flogged. And the soldiers wove a crown of thorns and put it on his head, and they dressed him in a purple robe. They kept coming up to him, saying,

Soldiers "Hail, King of the Jews!"

John and striking him on the face. Pilate went out again and said to them,

Pilate "Look, I am bringing him out to you to let you know that I find no case against him."

John So Jesus came out, wearing the crown of thorns and the purple robe. Pilate said to them,

Pilate "Here is the man!"

John When the chief priests and the police saw him, they shouted,

All men "Crucify him! Crucify him!"

John Pilate said to them,

Pilate "Take him yourselves and crucify him; I find no case against him."

John The Jews answered him,

All men "We have a law, and according to that law he ought to die because he has claimed to be the Son of God."

John Now when Pilate heard this, he was more afraid than ever. He entered his headquarters again and asked Jesus,

Pilate "Where are you from?"

John But Jesus gave him no answer. Pilate therefore said to him,

Pilate "Do you refuse to speak to me? Do you not know that I have power to release you, and power to crucify you?"

John Jesus answered him,

Jesus "You would have no power over me unless it had been given you from above; therefore the one who handed me over to you is guilty of a greater sin."

John From then on Pilate tried to release him, but the Jews cried out,

Crowd "If you release this man, you are no friend of the emperor. Everyone who claims to be a king sets himself against the emperor."

John When Pilate heard these words, he brought Jesus outside and sat on the judge's bench at a place called The Stone Pavement, or in Hebrew Gabbatha. Now it was the day of Preparation for the Passover; and it was about noon. He said to the Jews,

Pilate "Here is your King!"

John They cried out,

Crowd     “Away with him! Away with him! Crucify him!”

John       Pilate asked them,

Pilate      “Shall I crucify your King?”

John       The chief priests answered,

All men     “We have no king but the emperor.”

John       Then he handed him over to them to be crucified.

All stand.

John       So they took Jesus; and carrying the cross by himself, he went out to what is called The Place of the Skull, which in Hebrew is called Golgotha. There they crucified him, and with him two others, one on either side, with Jesus between them. Pilate also had an inscription written and put on the cross. It read, “Jesus of Nazareth, the King of the Jews.” Many of the Jews read this inscription, because the place where Jesus was crucified was near the city; and it was written in Hebrew, in Latin, and in Greek. Then the chief priests of the Jews said to Pilate,

All men     “Do not write, ‘The King of the Jews,’ but, ‘This man said, I am King of the Jews.’”

John       Pilate answered,

Pilate      “What I have written I have written.”

John       When the soldiers had crucified Jesus, they took his clothes and divided them into four parts, one for each soldier. They also took his tunic; now the tunic was seamless, woven in one piece from the top. So they said to one another,

Soldiers    “Let us not tear it, but cast lots for it to see who will get it.”

John       This was to fulfill what the scripture says, “They divided my clothes among themselves, and for my clothing they cast lots.” And that is what the soldiers did. Meanwhile, standing near the cross of Jesus were his mother, and his mother’s sister, Mary the wife of Clopas, and Mary Magdalene. When Jesus saw his mother and the disciple whom he loved standing beside her, he said to his mother,

Jesus       “Woman, here is your son.”

John       Then he said to the disciple,

Jesus "Here is your mother."

John And from that hour the disciple took her into his own home. After this, when Jesus knew that all was now finished, he said (in order to fulfill the scripture),

Jesus "I am thirsty."

John A jar full of sour wine was standing there. So they put a sponge full of the wine on a branch of hyssop and held it to his mouth. When Jesus had received the wine, he said,

Jesus "It is finished."

John Then he bowed his head and gave up his spirit.

All kneel for a period of silent prayer, rising for the conclusion of the Passion narrative.

John Since it was the day of Preparation, the Jews did not want the bodies left on the cross during the Sabbath, especially because that Sabbath was a day of great solemnity. So they asked Pilate to have the legs of the crucified men broken and the bodies removed. Then the soldiers came and broke the legs of the first and of the other who had been crucified with him. But when they came to Jesus and saw that he was already dead, they did not break his legs. Instead, one of the soldiers pierced his side with a spear, and at once blood and water came out. (He who saw this has testified so that you also may believe. His testimony is true, and he knows that he tells the truth.) These things occurred so that the scripture might be fulfilled, "None of his bones shall be broken." And again another passage of scripture says, "They will look on the one whom they have pierced."

THE SOLEMN COLLECTS

The People remain standing for the prayers.

Deacon Dear People of God: Our heavenly Father sent his Son into the world, not to condemn the world, but that the world through him might be saved; that all who believe in him might be delivered from the power of sin and death, and become heirs with him of everlasting life. We pray, therefore, for people everywhere according to their needs.

Let us pray for the holy Catholic Church of Christ throughout the world; for its unity in witness and service; for all bishops and other ministers and the people whom they serve; for Gladstone, our Bishop, and all the people of this diocese; for all Christians in this community; for those about to be baptized that God will confirm his Church in faith, increase it in love, and preserve it in peace.

Silence

Celebrant Almighty and everlasting God, by whose Spirit the whole body of your faithful people is governed and sanctified: Receive our supplications and prayers which we offer before you for all members of your holy Church, that in their vocation and ministry they may truly and devoutly serve you; through our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Amen.

Deacon Let us pray for all nations and peoples of the earth, and for those in authority among them; For Barack, the President of the United States, for the Congress and the Supreme Court, for the Members and Representatives of the United Nations, and for all who serve the common good that by God's help they may seek justice and truth, and live in peace and concord.

Silence

Celebrant Almighty God, kindle, we pray, in every heart the true love of peace, and guide with your wisdom those who take counsel for the nations of the earth; that in tranquility your dominion may increase, until the earth is filled with the knowledge of your love; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Deacon Let us pray for all who suffer and are afflicted in body or in mind; For the hungry and the homeless, the destitute and the oppressed. For the sick, the wounded, and the crippled. For those in loneliness, fear, and anguish. For those who face temptation, doubt, and despair. For the sorrowful and bereaved and for prisoners and captives, and those in mortal danger that God in his mercy will comfort and relieve them, and grant them the knowledge of his love, and stir up in us the will and patience to minister to their needs.

Silence

Celebrant Gracious God, the comfort of all who sorrow, the strength of all who suffer: Let the cry of those in misery and need come to you, that they may find your mercy present with them in all their afflictions; and give us, we pray, the strength to serve them for the sake of him who suffered for us, your Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Deacon Let us pray for all who have not received the Gospel of Christ; For those who have never heard the word of salvation. For those who have lost their faith. For those hardened by sin or indifference. For the contemptuous and the scornful. For those who are enemies of the cross of Christ and persecutors of his disciples and for those who in the name of Christ have persecuted others that God will open their hearts to the truth, and lead them to faith and obedience.

Silence

Celebrant Merciful God, creator of all the peoples of the earth and lover of souls: Have compassion on all who do not know you as you are revealed in your Son Jesus Christ; let your Gospel be preached with grace and power to those who have not heard it; turn the hearts of those who resist it; and bring home to your fold those who have gone astray; that there may be one flock under one shepherd, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Deacon Let us commit ourselves to our God, and pray for the grace of a holy life, that, with all who have departed this world and have died in the peace of Christ, and those whose faith is known to God alone, we may be accounted worthy to enter into the fullness of the joy of our Lord, and receive the crown of life in the day of resurrection.

Silence

Celebrant O God of unchangeable power and eternal light: Look favorably on your whole Church, that wonderful and sacred mystery; by the effectual working of your providence, carry out in tranquility the plan of salvation; let the whole world see and know that things which were cast down are being raised up, and things which had grown old are being made new, and that all things are being brought to their perfection by him through whom all things were made, your Son Jesus Christ our Lord; who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Hymn 160

“Cross of Jesus, Cross of Sorrow”

Cross of Jesus

VENERATION OF THE CROSS

The People kneel. A wooden crucifix is carried in procession to the altar.

Three times the procession stops, as the Priest sings

Deacon or Priest This is the wood of the cross on which hung the Savior of the world.

The People are invited to come forward and venerate the cross.

Hymn 166

“Sing my Tongue, the Glorious Battle”

Pange lingua

During this hymn the altar is prepared and the Blessed Sacrament is brought from the place of repose.

THE LITURGY OF THE PRE – SANCTIFIED

Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Priest and People, kneeling

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your name. Amen.

The Celebrant pronounces an absolution.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Fraction

Celebrant Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us.

People Therefore let us keep the feast.

Celebrant Behold the Lamb of God. Behold him who takes away the sins of the world.

People Lord, I am not worthy to receive you, but only say the word, and I shall be healed.

✠ The Communion of the Faithful ✠

Communion Anthem

“Crucifixus”

J. S. Bach (1685-1750)

He was crucified also for us under Pontius Pilate. He suffered and was buried.

The Celebrant prays

Celebrant Lord Jesus Christ, Son of the living God, we pray you to set your passion, cross, and death between your judgment and our souls, now and in the hour of our death. Give mercy and grace to the living; pardon and rest to the dead; to your holy Church peace and concord; and to us sinners everlasting life and glory; for with the Father and Holy Spirit you live and reign, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

*The Celebrant and Assistants depart, and the liturgy is ended.
PLEASE MAINTAIN SILENCE as you leave the church this evening.*
