I. OVERVIEW

Ordained, Commissioned, Licensed Ministries

By virtue of our baptism, we are all Christian ministers. The Holy Spirit authorizes and empowers every baptized person to carry on various ministries for the good of and on behalf of the congregation.* For some Christians, this means being called to ordained ministries. But for most of us, this means we become actively involved in lay ministries. Title III, Canon 1:1 of the Church Canons states:

Each Diocese shall make provision for the affirmation and development of the ministry of all baptized persons, including:

(a) Assistance in understanding that all baptized persons are called to minister in Christ’s name, to identify their gifts with the help of the Church and to serve Christ’s mission at all times and in all places.
(b) Assistance in understanding that all baptized persons are called to sustain their ministries through commitment to life-long Christian formation.

The life and work of ordained ministers – deacons, priests and bishops – is described in Title III of the Church Canons.

Commissioned ministries is the term we use in the Diocese of East Tennessee for various ministries.

The Church also provides opportunities for certain licensed ministries. “A confirmed communicant in good standing . . . may be licensed by the Ecclesiastical Authority to serve as Pastoral Leader, Worship Leader, Preacher, Eucharistic Minister, Eucharistic Visitor, Evangelist, or Catechist. Requirements and guidelines for the selection, training, continuing education, and deployment of such persons, and the duration of licenses shall be established by the Bishop in consultation with the Commission on Ministry” (Title III, Canon 4, Sec.1(a). Information about these licensed ministries is in this notebook.

Training and formation for Eucharistic Visitor, Eucharistic Minister and Worship Leader typically occurs at the parish level. Occasional diocesan workshops for initial training and continuing education may be provided.

Diocesan training and formation for Pastoral Care Minister (Leader), Preacher, Evangelist, and Catechist are provided for individuals called to these ministries and recommended by their priest-in-charge and vestry or council. Specific information about these licensed ministries is located in subsequent pages of this notebook.

For additional information about licensed ministries in the Diocese of East Tennessee, contact the diocesan Lay Ministries Coordinator, Beverly Hurley Hill at (205) 213-6640 or bhurleyhill@dioet.org.
II. LICENSED MINISTRIES

A. Pastoral Care Minister

The pastoral care minister serves the congregation’s caring ministries among members and in the local community. The pastoral care minister shares in identifying needs for pastoral care, responding to grief or crisis and coordinating efforts of the faith community to respond. The pastoral care minister is a confirmed adult communicant in good standing and functions under the direction of the member of the clergy who exercises oversight of the congregation.

1. Personal qualities, history of the pastoral care minister:
   - Able to work collaboratively with other members of the parish and diocese for the good of the community
   - Has basic knowledge of Holy Scripture
   - Is a good listener
   - Understands necessity of confidentiality
   - Seeks and listens for significant thoughts, ideas, and feelings of the person or group
   - Articulates thoughts and ideas in a manner that is comforting, clear, and concise

2. Formation considerations prior to licensing:
   - Contents and background of the Holy Scriptures (knowledge of the general historical outline and content of the Old and New Testaments)
   - The ability, when presented with a case study of a human situation, to bring together the resources of scripture, tradition, and reason in fashioning a Christian, ethical, and pastoral response
   - The ability to respond to case studies in ways that show a clear understanding of the realities of the modern world
   - Understands parameters of pastoral care (as compared to counseling or therapy)
   - Understands boundaries in relation to pastoral care
3. Pastoral care minister training includes participation in certain diocesan-sponsored core courses. Additionally, completion of the following individual-track courses is required:

- Holy Scripture
- Pastoral theology
- Pastoral practice
- Pastoral challenges
- Pastoral oversight
- Spiritual care of self
- Listening skills (covered in pastoral practice course)
- The BCP (with an emphasis on uses in pastoral care settings)

4. Suggested resources:

- The Holy Bible. Any of the canonically approved versions.

Links are provided for information and purchase of resources online.
B. Worship Leader

The worship leader is authorized to lead public worship in the absence of, and/or at the direction of, a bishop or priest, subject to direction of the Book of Common Prayer. A licensed worship leader is a confirmed adult communicant in good standing called to lead worship in the congregation.

1. Personal qualities, history of the worship leader:
   - Ability to work collaboratively with other members of the parish and diocese for the good of the community
   - Deep relationship with God and a personal commitment to the ministry of the church
   - Spirituality, centered in public worship, as exemplified in long-term regular faithful participation in the worship of the church
   - A strong, clear, and articulate voice
   - A person who has a concern for order and details without being obsessed by minutiae
   - The ability to share the spotlight with others and not dominate when in charge

2. Formation considerations prior to licensing:
   - The text and rubrics of the Book of Common Prayer, with special attention to both the opportunities for and limitations on lay worship leadership
   - The underlying structure of the basic worship services of the church
   - Appropriate and inappropriate ceremonial during worship
   - “Scaling” the worship service for the particular case or occasion
   - Ability to use the lectionary accurately and easily
   - A clear picture of the church year and how it is appropriately observed
   - The ability to use the hymnal and to select appropriate hymns
   - A knowledge of copyright law as it affects modern liturgy

3. Lay worship leader training includes:
   - An extended practicum under an experienced liturgist, including liturgy, BCP, the hymnal, use of voice, and familiarization with pertinent canons
4. Suggested resources:

- The Holy Bible. Any of the canonically approved versions.
- Canons of the Episcopal Church, Title II (Worship).

C. Preacher

The preacher is authorized to preach at worship services including Eucharist, daily offices, weddings, and funerals. The ministry of the preacher focuses on the study and sharing of God’s word in scripture, tradition, and the social teachings of the church through the sermon. The licensed preacher is a confirmed adult communicant in good standing and functions under the direction of the member of the clergy exercising oversight of the congregation.

1. Personal qualities, history of the preacher:
   - Ability to work collaboratively with other members of the parish and diocese for the good of the community
   - While remaining sensitive to the diversity of attitudes, values, and conditions found within a congregation, an understanding of the centrality of the critical interpretation of Scripture to the Episcopal tradition
   - Basic knowledge of Holy Scripture and the commitment to continued study
   - Demonstrated skill in public speaking and comfort with using those skills in a public setting
   - Knowledge of the liturgy and sacramental theology of the Episcopal Church
   - Participation in the liturgical and community life of the church

2. Formation considerations prior to licensing:
   - Contents and background of Holy Scriptures (a knowledge of the general historical outline and content of the Old and New Testaments and Apocrypha)
   - Ability to use methods of exegesis in sermon preparation
   - Demonstrated use of the voice in conveying the message of a sermon
   - Knowledge of liturgy

3. Preacher training includes required completion of the following individual track courses:
   - Holy Scripture
   - Homiletics, including methods of exegesis
   - The art of “finding one’s voice” in preaching
   - The use of the prayer book and hymnal in exegesis and in the sermon
Work closely with a mentor and be involved in a practicum style of education.

4. Suggested resources:
