About the Pin Design

The caring, supportive hands represent women who seek to build an inclusive community of Presbyterian Women. The leaf represents growth of our personal and corporate response to Jesus Christ as we nurture our faith. The dove indicates our work for peace in our own lives and throughout the world, shown in the globe. At the center of the design is the cross, by which our sins are forgiven and we are freed to live in Christ, who is the center of our lives. The overall design is of a butterfly, the symbol of newness in Christ.

Presbyterian Women's Honorary Life Membership Program

Showing Honor

Presbyterian Women's Honorary Life Membership (HLM) program was established early last century to honor faithful service to the women's organization and to the church. Recipients join a large group of women (and men) who have been recognized in this way. Funds received from Honorary Life Memberships support Presbyterian Women's Leadership Development Grant Program. Grants from this program allow individuals to engage in a wide range of leadership development opportunities. Individuals and church groups may confer this honor at any time during the year; the awarding individual or group receives a silver or gold pin with a certificate.

Inspired by the life and ministry of our foremothers, today's Presbyterian Women are steadfast in faith, mission and resolve to be Christ's witness in the world. As we bring our many and varied gifts to our life and work together, we are called to "love one another with mutual affection [and] outdo one another in showing honor" (Rom. 12:10).
