

THE STEEPL

The Church of the Nativity

June 7, 2017

Our Mission:

God's family at the historic Church of the Nativity is joyfully and energetically committed to sharing Christ's love and healing by proclaiming the Good News of the Gospel through worship and service to the world.

Trinity Sunday and Transitions

On Trinity Sunday we will celebrate and give thanks for our relationship in ministry and friendship with Father Rusty McCown as we send him and Laura on to St. Paul's in Franklin, Tennessee with our love and prayers. What a great Sunday to celebrate this! Trinity Sunday is the Sunday we celebrate our relationship and life in our Triune God we call Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. In God's Divine love, this also includes the life we share with one another.

Up until recent years, the Church has relegated Trinity Sunday to a homiletical mystery preached by the most recently ordained priest, or better yet, a seminarian called in for the occasion. But we are now reclaiming this central and transformative understanding about God. Our Triune God is always about a relationship of love that creates life and blessing.

Created in the image of God, the divine and holy life of God is already and always deep within us. Claiming this, we realize God's Triune life is in each other, too. And so we are encouraged to allow God's life well up within us and flow into all aspects of our living, especially in every relationship we share. Sometimes this is referred to as the "Divine Dance of Love." What a wonderful concept to dance with God. And what a wonderful thought to consider that we have had Rusty and Laura, and their children Katherine and Robert, as our Divine dance partners for the past four and a half years.

Pay attention to our scripture lessons on Sunday. We will be reminded that the dance was begun in Creation and then goes on in our life in Christ Jesus empowered by the Holy Spirit. We will transition to a new dance, to new relationships of shared life and ministry. Life is always about transitions if we are paying attention. As we are sad to make this transition of letting the McCown's go on into the future God is opening for them, we realize God's life is opening a new future for us, too. We are, after all, people of the Resurrection.

In our lessons on Sunday, we will hear Jesus and Paul reminding us that the dance goes on because of God's Triune life we share. This is comforting assurance in the midst of life's many transitions. As we consider our future, I am happy to let you know that I have called The Rev'd Dr. Virginia Hill Monroe to serve as our part-time Interim for Pastoral Care for the next couple of months while we consider our search for a new Associate Rector.

Virginia is no stranger to Nativity. She was our Associate Rector for a couple of years after she and I graduated from Sewanee in 1994. She then went on to serve as Associate in large parishes in Birmingham and in Greenville, SC (St. Luke's and Christ Church). Until she retired from active ministry last year, she served as Rector of the Church of the Good Shepherd in Cashiers, NC, and most recently, she was Interim Rector at St. Stephen's Birmingham. She has been a featured guest at Nativity over the past 10 years and last fall taught our Wednesday Evening Women's Bible Study. You will also see her at the Greene Street Market where she serves faithfully in this vibrant expression of Nativity's ministry.

Virginia will provide Pastoral Care presence and leadership, and will coordinate our Stephen Ministry, which she has done in other parishes. As time allows, she will work with hospitality and welcoming. Virginia will join the Nativity clergy team on July 1, and will be with us on Sundays, Tuesdays and Wednesdays (and on Mondays for Stephen Ministry meetings).

But before that, we have a last dance with Rusty this Sunday! See you there!

Stewardship of Creation

Summer in Huntsville means welcomes the opening of farmer's markets around town. Farmer's markets are important for our Stewardship of Creation. Shopping from vendors close to home means you're decreasing the carbon footprint of your food, and making sure your money stays in our community, and helps our neighbors.

The outdoor market is located at the corner of Greene Street and Eustis Avenue, in the church parking lot. It is open on Thursdays from May through October, from 4-8 pm May to August, 4-7 pm in September and 3-6 pm in October.

Did you also know there is a Greene Street Market Store that is open year round? It's located at 208 Eustis Avenue, right off the of the church office. There are eggs, cheeses, local vegetables and gourmet canned goods.

Can't make it to the open air markets on Thursdays? Here are some other markets in the area:

- Bailey Cove Farmers Market at St. Thomas Episcopal Church; 12200 Bailey Cove Road in Huntsville; 8 am-noon on Saturday, through September 30.
- Latham United Methodist Church Farmers Market, 109 Weatherly Road in Huntsville; 3 7 pm on Tuesday, through September.
- Madison City Farmers Market, 1088 Hughes Road in Madison; 8 am-noon Saturdays through September 30, and 9 am-noon Saturdays Oct. 7-Nov. 18.
- Madison County Farmers Market at 1022 Cook Ave in Huntsville; Tuesday, Friday and Saturday 7 am-3 pm through Nov. 11.

What Are You Reading? - One Thousand Gifts. A Dare to Live Fully Right Where You Are

By: Ann Voskamp

Contributed by: Sherman Dailey

One Thousand Gifts. A Dare to Live Fully Right Where You Are. wasn't the book I intended to order but was exactly the book I needed to read. From page one, the author spares us not. She plunges head-on into the depths of human pain describing a tragic loss of life, a child. She cries from the heart, "Where is God, really"? "How do I wake up to the joy and grace and beauty that is the fullest life when I stay numb to losses and crushed dreams and all that empties me out?"

The reader travels with her as she struggles to find ways to be present to God's presence. She finds guidance when she asks, what does Jesus count as all important? In his final hours, what does he do? She hears, "Eucharisto", thanksgiving, a Greek word that just might make meaning of everything". It is a hard language to learn to be thankful whether empty or full, easy enough to find gratitude on good days but gratitude in the midst of suffering, loss, confusion and the tedium of daily living.

Voskamp finds possibility in this messy, piercing ache of the now, believing that the transfiguration of a suffering world has already begun and the fullest life can birth out of the darkest emptiness through the miracle of Eucharisto. "Surely, the Lord is in this place" she says.

Haiti Medical Mission Update

The team from Nativity spent the week of Apr 29-May 6 in Croix de Bouquet, a suburb of Port au Prince. The team members included Lisa Caprio, Debbie Collette, Rebecca Epps, Lisa Hardy, Liz Hardy, Libby Potter and Bob Serio. We assisted the regular medical teams supported by the Lewpwa Timoun Nutrition Clinic. With Dr. Claude, our Haitian doctor, and a team of Haitian nurses and pharmacy workers we saw over 600 patients in 4 clinics including remote villages with names like Boucan Boyer, Nan Gallette and Crochu. Most of these communities are over an hour away from medical facilities by car and an all day trip by walking. In Crochu we saw about 100 women in various stages of pregnancy and for many we were the only medical care they have received during their pregnancy.

While we were there I read the gospel of Mark (part of a book I am reading on the New Testament) and I was intrigued by the similarities between the people of Galilee and the people in the villages of Haiti. Life is hard for both populations and most struggle for daily survival. Most are poor and uneducated and a visit by a travelling preacher or foreign medical team is an exciting adventure.

Hope for a better life is limited by local politics and greed in both locales.

I am encouraged that the message of Jesus, a message of love and caring, is being shared to our brothers and sisters in Haiti through the work of the Lewpwa Timoun clinic with the help of our church family. Thank you for your support of this vital mission.

Nativity's Cursillo community will have an informational event Sunday, June 25 after the 10:00 am service.

Lunch will be provided and members of the Cursillo Community will be available to tell you more about Cursillo.

If you are interested in attending a Cursillo weekend, please contact: David Collette drc3898@knology.net (256-527-2560), or Debbie Collette dtc3898@knology.net (256-527-5050)

Cursillo is an incredible experience that transformed the lives of over 8,000 Episcopalians in the Diocese of Alabama and several hundred parishioners at Nativity. If you are looking for a means to energize your relationship with God and to become more active in the life of the church, Cursillo may be the answer.

The Cursillo Community is made up of Episcopalians who have attended a three-day spiritual retreat, then continue to meet together in small groups within their parish. All Alabama Cursillo weekends are held at Camp McDowell

The Changing Face of Christianity:
What Happened to that Old Time Religion?

Join Reverend Susan Sloan as we explore how Christianity is emerging in the 21st century. Using a book by Phyllis Tickle, revered Episcopal laywoman and highly regarded religion writer, we will learn about the Church's historic rummage sales and what we can expect in the future.

If you would like to read along, the book, The Great Emergence, is available to order online. Visit Amazon for details.

The class will meet on Monday nights from July 31 to August 28. Time and place to be determined.

and are guided by volunteer staff members (including clergy) who have already attended a weekend retreat. Once back at Nativity, the Cursillo Community will help you find a reunion group with which to meet on a regular basis.

These small reunion groups generally meet weekly and members discuss their piety (prayer and worship activities), study (how they have studied God's word or come in contact with information that enhances their understanding of His word), and action (those things we have done to bring others closer to Christ). The purpose of these group meetings is to encourage and hold each of us accountable in these aspects of our Christian life.

Throughout the year, we also hold larger group meetings. These meetings may consist of several reunion groups at Nativity, groups from other parishes in North Alabama, or diocesan-wide meetings with Cursillo Community members from all over our diocese. These meetings often consist of the sharing of a meal, an enlightening talk, and fellowship with one another.

There are five Cursillo weekends held in Alabama each year (you only attend one!) – March, April, June, September, and October.
