Is it safe to travel to the Holy Land?

Yes, Yes, Yes

"Traveling with Iyad Qumri Pilgrimages was so much more meaningful than I could ever have expected. He attended to our every need, made sure we were safely transported to each site, and gave me a deeper understanding of the history, culture, art, architecture, and current events that shape the region today and through the ages."

Your Jerusalem home will be St. George's Pilgrim Guest House, located within the secure grounds that include St. George's Cathedral, St. George's School, and St. George's College. Your air-conditioned accommodations have free WiFi, flat-screen satellite television, and private bath with showers. In addition, the Guest House includes a beautiful enclosed garden and patio, excellent food, and is steps away from shops, cafes, ATMs, and the historic Old City.

Evenings in Jerusalem will include discussions led by local experts from the Jewish, Muslim and Palestinian Christian faiths.

Other visits include Bethlehem, Shepherds' Fields, Herodion where Herod's tomb was recently discovered, and ancient and modern Jericho where you will visit the cliffside monastery of the Mount of Temptation.

A special treat is a three-night stay in Galilee at the Sisters of Nazareth Guest House which is close to markets, churches, and cafes. Enjoy a rooftop terrace overlooking the beautiful city of Nazareth. Explore the sites recalling the ministry of Jesus at the Sea of Galilee, including Capernaum, Mount of the Beatitudes and Church of the Multiplication of Loaves and Fishes.
