

THE STEEPLE

The Church of the Nativity

December 20, 2017

Our Mission:

God's family at the historic Church of the Nativity is joyfully and energetically committed to sharing Christ's love and healing by proclaiming the Good News of the Gospel through worship and service to the world.

CHURCH OF THE NATIVITY, EPISCOPAL

Est. 1843

Dear Fellow Parishioners,

Below are the members of Nativity's Rector Search Committee; a wonderful collection of the many expressions of faith in this parish. I imagine their thoughts when asked by the Vestry to serve mirrored my own when asked to chair the committee. It is a great honor and blessing to be given the opportunity to participate in this endeavor; to discern the needs of this incredible parish and then to prayerfully identify the individual who best fits those needs. It is, at the same time, a daunting challenge to share that responsibility.

Bill Starnes

Search Committee
Chairperson

I observed the Vestry as it wrestled with a long list of very capable candidates to compose the committee. They began with the direction of our calling coach, Sarah Sartain (Diocesan Staff Officer for Ministry Development & Clergy Transitions), that the committee reflect as broad a range of experiences within the parish as possible. Guided by that principle, they evaluated an amazing group of applications to put together a committee that brings many voices into the room. We are blessed to have a Vestry that works so remarkably together. I pray, and expect, your committee will demonstrate the same.

This past Sunday, a long time parishioner asked if we have everything we need for this search. In our committee, I believe we have a good start. To her question of what she or others could do, I would ask for this; your participation, your patience, and - most importantly - your prayer. Opportunities for your participation will be shared with you soon as we move forward; and will mean more to our success than anything beyond God's steadying hand. While I am less sure of when your patience will be called upon, I'm certain it will. Likewise prayer; let us begin with a prayer that God might so guide the minds of this committee to discern the needs of this parish that we may receive a faithful pastor, who will care for and inspire both our people and this community and equip us for our many ministries.

May God bless this parish with peace and unity; that we may, through sharing of our hopes and concerns, find ourselves of one heart, of one mind, of one soul, of one accord.

Respectfully yours,

Bill Starnes

Alice W. Greenway Memorial Fund 100th anniversary

From Sesquicentennial History of Church of the Nativity, Episcopal by Frances C. Roberts, page 76, "On October 29, 1917, John C. Greenway create the Alice W. Greenway Memorial Fund in memory of his mother, a devoted member of the Church of the Nativity. Its purpose was to provide presents for all the children of the parish at the Christmas Festival, as well as other children that the rector might see fit to invite. The trustees of the fund were also given the authority to provide funds for the other expenses connected with the Children's Christmas Festival."

"At Christmas time the children in the Sunday school voted to share part of the money from the Greenway Memorial Fund to buy clothes and toys for the poor children of the community. The Christmas Tree report of 1936 reflected this spirit of sharing." In the book, the report in full is printed. The report is a striking snapshot of life in 1936. The full report can be read on the Nativity website www.nativity-hsv.org.

2017 is the one hundredth year of this great church tradition. During the years of the Christmas Eve festival, special gifts were purchased for each child. Children sat with their Sunday school classes in church and were called to the front to receive their presents. For the past 30 years, the trust's funds have purchased personalized Nativity ornaments which are given to each child after communion. Many long time Nativity parishioners have a cherished collection of ornaments thanks to the Greenway fund.

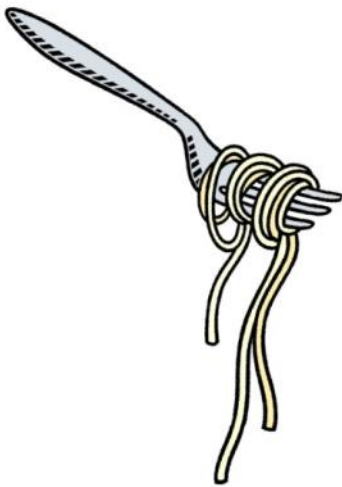

Dear Nativity family

This is the holy season of Advent.
A time to wait in joyful anticipation for the coming of Christ anew in our lives. A time to watch with awe-filled wonder how Christ will be revealed now and in the days ahead.

In the meantime let us pray—
Where there is darkness, let there be light.
Where there is doubt, let there be hope.
Where there is coldness, let there be warmth.
Where there is guilt, let there be forgiveness

Come, Lord Jesus

Peace, +

Prayers of the People Each time we gather for worship we recite The Prayers of the People. These prayers are a most important aspect of our life together. Margaret Gunter notes in The Practice of Prayer, "They draw us together and remind us that we are knit together in a community much larger than our families or our parish." Intercessory prayer moves us beyond ourselves and assures us that we are connected, that we are not isolated or alone. Gunter says, "Pushed back to its Latin roots, intercedere, the word simply means to 'to stand between' or 'to stand in the midst'. When we "stand between" God and a child, spouse, friend, or the friend of a friend, we connect at the same time to God and the person we name before God.

In order to be more aware of those who are still recovering and those who have been restored to health, we will leave a name on the spoken prayers for a month. At the end of that time, if you wish to have the name remain on the list for an additional month, please call the office.

Keep us in the know!

Please help us keep our files up to date! If you have moved, changed your email address or have a new phone number please let us know. Contact Emily Rodgers at erodgers@nativity-hsv.org or by calling the Church office 256-533-2455 ext.204. Thank you!

Men's Wednesday Night Bible Study

Dear Friends,

This is an invitation to attend a Men's Bible Study that will begin on Wednesday, January 10th in the first floor library of Joffrion Hall at 6:00 pm. We'll have three additional sessions on the following Wednesdays. The first class will consider "Adam and Atoms" and will reveal – among other things - where Vince Gilligan (creator of Breaking Bad) came up with Walter White's alias "Heisenberg".

Before you decide, re-read Jesus's thoughts below.

"Take this most seriously: a 'yes' on earth is 'yes' in heaven; a 'no' on earth is 'no' in heaven. What you say to one another is eternal. I mean this.

When two of you get together on anything at all on earth and make a prayer of it, my Father in heaven goes into action. And when two or three of you are together because of me, you can be sure that I'll be there." Matthew 18: 18-20 (The Message)

So apparently, then, Jesus will be there. Will you? Hope so.

Good ways to green your Christmas

Many of us are yearning for ways to be “greener” during the Advent and Christmas seasons. Here are some simple changes that can help you make very meaningful and greener choices for your holiday celebrations:

Transition to using LED lights this year. LED lights are up to 90 % more efficient than the old incandescent bulbs. LED lights are also safer because they greatly reduce the amount of heat produced, compared to incandescent lights.

Use non-disposable: Think less trash! By using plates, cups and glasses and real flatware for your gatherings, you can greatly reduce the amount of trash your household produces.

Meals: Buy local and buy organic. Support local farmers and businesses, and support the organic farming movement.

This year try a “Surprise Envelope” gift. Here’s how this can be done:

1. Select an organization or address a situation where you see a need. In honor of a family member, give a meaningful gift which will help make a difference in the lives of families or children in our community. You can address some specific need of a family or group. Examples of local places that offer life-changing help are: Second Mile, Boys and Girls Club, New Beginnings School, 1st Stop, The Community Free Clinic, Camp McDowell Scholarship fund. Your neighborhood school principal or teachers may also know of specific needs that could be addressed.
2. Place an envelope on your Christmas tree with a message explaining the gift and that this is the person’s gift from you. This can become a tradition that is looked forward to each year! This suggestion is inspired by “The White Envelope” story, which has led to “The White Envelope Project” an organization dedicated to educating youth about the importance of giving. The story can be found at WhiteEnvelopeProject.org.

May you have a blessed, peaceful Advent and Christmas.

John Allen Chambers, 93, of Birmingham, died on November 28, 2017. He was a long time member of the Episcopal Church and served as lay reader and teacher of the Old Testament at Church of the Nativity while he lived in Huntsville. John was an integral part of the Christian Education formation at Nativity. A brief graveside service followed by burial with military honors will be held at the Alabama National Cemetery in Montevallo, AL on December 28, 2017 at 10:15am.
