Stewardship of Creation June 2023

By Freya Neely

The earth is the Lord's and the fullness thereof, the world and those who dwell therein... Psalm 24:1

A goal of our Nativity Stewardship of Creation Ministry is to help all of us learn how we can be better stewards of the earth and our environment.

One important part of this goal is to be a Christian who lives out efforts to make the world safer for the next generations. This includes actually taking steps to reduce plastic pollution now.

Plastic pollution is poisoning our oceans and land, injuring marine life, and affecting our health!

Let's join in efforts dedicated to providing the information and inspiration needed to fundamentally change human attitude and behavior about plastics.

Take Personal Responsibility to Reduce Plastic Pollution

Currently we are producing over 380 million tons of plastic every year to make bags, bottles, packages, and other commodities, and some reports indicate that up to 50% of that is for single-use purposes – utilized for just a few moments, but on the planet for at least several hundred years - or longer. Unfortunately, only about ten percent of this plastic is properly recycled and reused. The rest ends up as waste in landfills or as litter in our natural environment, where it leaches dangerous chemicals into the nearby soil and water, endangering humans and wildlife alike.

Plastic pollution is not only impacting our waters and marine life, but also the food chain and our overall health.

The world must perceive plastics not only as the environmental challenge of global proportions but a symbol of the values that need to change to build a more sustainable and just world.

Take a pledge: Think about the impact of your use of plastic, and cut back at every

One easy thing to eliminate is PLASTIC WATER BOTTLES, which have many negative impacts, a few of which are: a) depleting vital aquifers, b) causing pollution in the manufacturing of the bottles, c) leaching dangerous chemicals and d) creating unsightly litter.

Much of the water is wasted and many of the bottles go in the garbage or on the side of our roads.

Another polluting product is Styrofoam. Just refuse to buy products packaged or served in it. There are good alternatives!! And you can know that you are doing the good thing by refusing it!!

Take personal responsibility for the plastic pollution that each one of us generates by choosing to reduce, refuse, reuse, recycle and remove plastics.

*As each has received a gift, use it to serve one another, as good stewards of God's varied grace. 1 Peter 4:10
Moreover, it is required of stewards that they be found trustworthy. I Corinthians*

Update from Seminarian Kris Paul

You can follow Kris's summer journey on her YouTube channel...

<https://www.youtube.com/@kristenpaul5040>

Greetings from the other side of the world! I hope you are well. New Zealand is amazing but I'll send more on that later.

I gave the vestments and table linens you (Father Michael) gave me to Bishop Tengtenga to distribute in Malawi. Despite being poor, as you may know they were also hit by severe floods this year and I thought they might need or want them. He was thrilled and sent this to me after giving them to the bishop there. I thought you might want to see how far Nativity's love and spirit of Christ has stretched!

Peace,

Kris

Wall hangings and vestments that are no longer used at Nativity will now be enjoyed in Malawi.

EFM Graduation

By Ted Briggs

On May 22, five people celebrated completion of the Education for Ministry (EFM) program. This was one of the largest graduating classes in recent years.

EFM is a four-year course, sponsored by Sewanee School of Theology, to deepen understanding of the church and the roots of Christianity as well as learning to think theologically. Each year focuses on a different aspect: Year 1 the Old Testament, Year 2 the New Testament, Year 3 Church History and Year 4 Theology. We meet weekly on Monday nights from September to May. Although, if there is enough interest, we could start a daytime class. An overview of EFM is available at <https://theology.sewanee.edu/education-for-ministry/program/>. And a list of books used in EFM is available at <https://theology.sewanee.edu/files/resources/efm-books-handout-2021-2025-2.pdf>

New members welcomed as are returning students, wanted to retake a specific year. Join us weekly for an evening of learning, discussion, and fellowship. Contact Ted Briggs (tedlbriggs@gmail.com) if you are interested.

Outreach

By Rose Veal Eby

On June 3rd the welcome center will be open for hospitality for the Pride Parade. I reached out a few weeks ago to several people asking them to bake something for the event. I received a call from one of the bakers wanting to share with me an experience she had while shopping for cake supplies.

Ms. Carole Albyn has been researching pound cake recipes for months now as she works on her book of recipes. She told me she had run to Walgreens to pick up some ingredients when she saw a rainbow tutu. She took her ingredients and tutu up to the cashier.

The cashier was rather curious about her purchase. Ms. Carole told him that she was baking a rainbow pound cake for hospitality at her church, during the Pride parade. The cashier was stunned. He did not know there was a church where he would be welcomed, where someone cared enough about him to bake a cake.

Her story reminded me of one of my favorite classic songs sung by Eileen Barton.

Come in!
Well, well, well. Look who's here.
I haven't seen you in many
A year.

If I knew you were comin' I'd've baked a cake, baked a cake, baked a cake
If I knew you were comin' I'd've baked a cake
Howdya do, howdya do, howdya do?

Had you dropped me a letter, I'd a-hired a band, grandest band in the land
Had you dropped me a letter, I'd a-hired a band
And spread the welcome mat for you

Oh, I don't know where you came from
'Cause I don't know where you've been
But it really doesn't matter
Grab a chair and fill your platter
And dig, dig, dig right in

I am so thankful for all the hospitality it shows and shares with the community around us. May faith continue to hold the door wide open!

NO KID SLEEPS ON THE FLOOR IN OUR TOWN!

“At SHP, we fully believe that a bed is a basic need for the proper physical, emotional, and mental support that a child needs. When it was brought to our attention that the need for beds went far beyond our own neighborhoods, we stepped up and took initiative. We’re a national organization answering the call to a national problem.”

The Mother's Minute Group enjoyed flower arranging on one of the Monday night gatherings. Join them on the playground this summer!

Stewardship

By Eleanor Loring

“For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.” Matthew 6:13

Prior to every worship service at the Church of the Nativity, unseen hands have reverently prepared the vessels and linens to be used at that service, especially those related to Communion. Following very specific and time honored traditions, members of the altar guild both prepare and take down the linens and vessels used during the service. Each item has a specific name and purpose and is handled with utmost reverence. At least one altar guild member is in attendance at every service to insure that everything is correct.

Among the 30 or so women who serve on the altar guild is Debbie Joyner. Debbie has attended Nativity most of her life. She attended Nativity as a child, and then went to college at the University of Alabama where she met her husband, Bill. In the 1990s, Bill’s job gave them the opportunity to move back to Huntsville where, along with their two children, they made Nativity their home.

The beauty of the building drew her back to her childhood church. As she said, “Nativity looks and feel like a sacred and holy place.” After serving on the Vestry for three years she made the choice to serve on the altar guild. When asked about her duties, she laughingly says “Basically we wash dishes, polish silver, and do laundry!”. Her favorite things about altar guild have been the joys and satisfaction of serving and getting to know other women she ordinarily would not have known, both older and younger. It has been a way to be engaged and participate in the life of the church.

Debbie’s love for Nativity is poured out by serving on altar guild and she has found out that serving has been a blessing to her in so many ways. She encourages anyone interested to consider it. As she says, “there is always room for more!”. If you would like more information on altar guild, contact Peggy Serio at mbserio49@gmail.com.
