The Senior Warden's Corner

Dear Friends,

The dog days of summer have run their course until next year and fall is here! I hope you are enjoying the balmy days and cooler temperatures of the season. Fall at St. Augustine's—October to be specific—means the beginning our Stewardship campaign as well as our third annual Autumn Faire.

Soon, you will be receiving your stewardship packet in the mail, and we ask that you prayerfully consider your commitment of money, time and talent to Saint Augustine's. The theme for this year's Stewardship campaign is "Rejoicing in God's Grace." Based on 1 Peter 4:10-11, we are encouraged to "serve one another with whatever gift each of you has received."

Autumn Faire is just days away, and I am looking forward to Saturday, October 11. I hope you are as well. As you know all profits from the Faire will go to Securus House, a safe haven in Clayton for battered women, and Holy Comforter Church, a mission of the Diocese of Atlanta. This is just another way for us to "serve one another with whatever gift each of you has received." I'm sure there will be something at the Faire for everyone! We will have arts and crafts vendors, and community service and health providers—the American Red Cross Blood Mobile will be here again this year. If you have not yet committed to donate blood, there is still time. There will be free dental check-ups for children, The GA CHIP Program will offer free fingerprinting for children, and many more. The cooks from the ever-popular "Hamburger Heaven" are getting their grill ready to serve up some of the best burgers this side of Heaven. If you have not yet signed up to volunteer at the Faire, you can still do so. Sign-up sheets are in the Parish Hall and in the Gathering Room

It has been said that St. Augustine's is "The little church with a big heart." Yes, we might be small, but mighty indeed! At a recent retreat, the vestry discussed plans that we hope will continue to attest to how mighty we can be when we all put our heads together to work in the vineyard. Once these plans are unveiled, we will need the help of everyone to see them to fruition. We've also set new goals for 2009, which we are confident will be successful, again, with everyone on board. More details to follow.

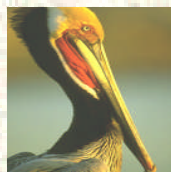

See you in church and at the Faire!

Grace and peace,

Veronica Ridenhour
Senior Warden

From the Rector's Desk

What a great day we had on our 50th Anniversary Homecoming Sunday! The weather was great, the turnout was great, the food was great. It was great to have back with us as guest preacher The Rev. Terri Tilley Stanford. As the eleven o'clock service ended, she was truly surprised when we presented her with a birthday cake! Thanks to LaUna Rozier-Moore, Parish Life Chair, and her team, the potluck luncheon was one of our best.

Have you seen the new Portrait Gallery in the hallway of the Founders' Hall? Framed photographs of present and former bishops and clergy are displayed, along with a photo of Ida Baumgartner, the lady who had the vision of an Episcopal parish in Clayton County back in 1958. The Portrait Gallery was a project of the 50th Anniversary Committee. I wish to thank Robert Harrell for his excellent work on this project.

The vestry had a very productive retreat last weekend. On Friday evening Veronica and Lorenzo Ridenhour served us a delicious dinner in their home. Saturday morning we gathered in the parlor of St. John's, College Park, for our working and planning session. We left excited and energized. Details of our meeting will be shared later. We have a fine vestry. We work hard, and we have a lot of fun!

Our annual Stewardship Campaign begins this Sunday, October 5. You should receive a stewardship mailing this week. At St. Augustine's we think of stewardship as a celebration, not a chore. I look forward to celebrating stewardship with you in the weeks ahead!

One aspect of our stewardship focus will be an outreach project for Bethlehem Ministries in Haiti. As you know, Haiti has been hit especially hard by hurricanes this year. The people of Haiti live in dire circumstances to begin with, and these natural disasters have only added to their hardships. Several years ago I invited The Rev. Pere Bruno to preach and share with us his ministry at the school he established in Cap Haitian. Our October stewardship/outreach project will focus on Christmas boxes for Bethlehem Ministries school children. Details will be shared this Sunday.

Finally, October 11 is Autumn Faire! Proceeds will go to Holy Comforter Church, a ministry of our diocese, and Securus House, a safe haven for battered women of Clayton County. Volunteer sign-up sheets are in the Parish Hall and the Gathering Room. We need lots of volunteers to make lots of money and have lots of fun! This is our third Autumn Faire for outreach, and each year the celebrations gets better.

May the Wisdom of God, the Love of God, and the Grace of God strengthen us to be Christ's hands and heart in this world, in the name of the Holy Trinity.

Thoughts on Stewardship

Victoria Buntin

Member since 2006

Faithful stewardship reminds me of the story of the loaves and the fishes. When I give more to the church, God takes what I have left over and multiplies it. It defies all logic! Trusting and "Rejoicing in God's Grace," I give in faith and get back more in return.

Yvonne Chevannes

Member since 2000

For me, Stewardship means giving of your time, talents, gifts and resources as God commanded us to do. Once circumstances determine how these obligations are met and sometimes it may not be in the traditional way. Nevertheless, gladly "Rejoicing in God's Grace," whatever we give should be given from the heart...freely and without reservation.

Franklin Douglas

Member since 2002

I believe that being a good steward is not just giving money. Giving service or helping those in need, in whatever way we can, wherever we can, and as much as we can is perhaps the greatest way to demonstrate stewardship. In doing this, we share our gifts of time and talent "like good stewards" of God's unending grace. We therefore, are doing as commanded: "serve one another with whatever gift each of you has received."

God gives us more than He receives, so let us as Christians do what our conscience allows us to do and God will reward us in many different ways.

Youth and Stewardship

Look what our children are up to...

In September, we have been thinking about Stewardship. We learned that money is important to pay the bills for the church and to help the needy and to give to missions and outreach. Our time and talents are also a way to show God's love. The children at St. Augustine's obviously come from very loving homes because the following is how they express their sharing:

Their time is spent:

"I helped my mom wash the plates"

"Help daddy"

"Helped clean-up"

"Help daddy wash"

"Helping my mom fix my bed"

"I love to help people"

"Helping [Ms. Jordan] with papers"

"I helped my dad peel potatoes"

"Went to McDonald's"

"Watched TV with Dad"

"I help mommy make my sippy"

"Take out the trash"

Their talent is shared by:

Art

Singing

Violin, draw, paint

Drawing

I am good at loving and drawing

Dancing, cooking, singing

I play the guitar

I played my DC

Dancing

Playing video games

Great "Vision"!

And their Treasure.....

My mom, dad, grandparents and everyone

The offering totals for the first three weeks of September from St. Augustine's children totaled $14.45!!! Each child will begin receiving a statement of their contributions. St. Augustine's is fortunate to have so many amazing children. Please let them know how much we value them.

Thank you,

Mary Job

Christian Formation Chair

In the September issue we misprinted the name of the young man that gave us his "Vision" for St. Augustine's. His name is Alonzo. His family calls him Mikey.

Alonzo is will be 18 on November 19th. He is an inspiration to our parish!

Financial Report

August 2008

MONTH-TO-DATE

	ACTUAL	BUDGET		ACTUAL	BUDGET
Regular Contributions	$16,169	$14,968	Regular Expenditures Paid	$14,500	$13,760

YEAR- TO- DATE

	ACTUAL	BUDGET		ACTUAL	BUDGET
Regular Contributions	$118,609	$119,741	Regular Expenditures Paid	$116,530	$120,445

RAINY DAY FUND BALANCE IS $32,055.45 THE RAINY DAY SAVINGS GOAL IS $40,960

LILLY GRANT FUNDS: $15,000 received, minus $13,886.74 spent YTD leaves 1,113.26 balance.

Deborah's Dollars and Sense

What the numbers are saying: Regular contributions for the month of August exceeded budget expectations by $1,201. We are now behind in our year-to-date projected contributions by only 1,132. August expenses, however, exceeded the budget by $740. Still, year-to-date we are behind in our spending by $3,915.

Combined with the contributions shortfall, we are currently 'in the black' by $3,175, and that's not bad at all.

What the numbers do not tell us: Our financial picture at the close of August continues the optimistic trend that started in July.

Spending is still well within budget and contributions are picking up. If we stay on this track, our Reserve/Rainy Day Fund can continue to grow untapped in the coming months. Thanks be to God!

Chuck's Checks and Balances

Hallelujah! Our contributions year to date are right on target. Through the end of August we are less than one percent behind our projection. Collectively we are all doing well in honoring our pledges.

Thanks to everyone that has stepped forward to financially support the ministry of St. Augustine's. We know the overall economic climate is not so good. We are bucking the trend here in Clayton County. Thank you.

Thank You from “Episcopal Relief & Development”

Thank you for your generous contribution of $50.00 to the Episcopal Relief & Development (ERD). Your gift was received on Friday, July 11, 2008, designated for the Midwest Floods Response Fund.

Your contribution to this emergency fund enables Episcopal Relief & Development, in partnership with impacted Dioceses, to provide immediate critical assistance such as shelter, food, water, medicine and other necessities to people facing hardship due to the rising waters.

The compassion and generosity of donors like you make it possible for us to provide communities with critical tools that restore lives today and build hope for tomorrow.

Faithfully,
Robert W. Radtke
President

Earth Savvy Gifts!

Deacon Ann Hackett is showing off a wonderful gift from her son-in-law to our church. Mr. Joe Ballantyne donated 100 insulated and 100 non-insulated Green Bags to St. Augustine's for fundraising purposes. His company is called Earth Savvy Productions. We are very appreciative of these gifts! See Deacon Ann to get your bags: ($5 Insulated) ($2.50 Non-insulated). The proceeds will go to our Outreach Ministries and our Reserve Fund!

Thank You from “Reach for Excellence”

Please accept this small token of appreciation from Reach for Excellence. Your help in allowing the Marist van to stay on your property allowed Reach to transport students to our location at Marist during the summer! We appreciate your help.
