

Deferral Extensions Granted

The Brightwood Colleges and Brightwood Career Institutes submitted a written request for a one-cycle extension to their initial accreditation process. The institutions cited compelling reasons in their request which was reviewed by the Commission Executive Committee. Accordingly, these institutions were deferred further consideration of their initial accreditation application until the December 2018 Commission Meeting.