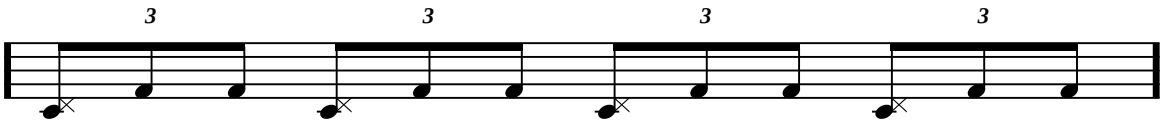
Crazy African "Abakwa" Tom Beat

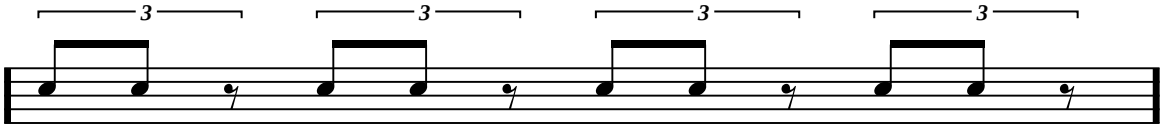
Inspired By: Mike Michalkow (who was inspired by Terry Bozzio)

Start off by playing your feet only. You left foot is spread out between the left bass drum pedal and hi-hat pedal.



This is the right hand part (left hand part if you're left handed). Learn this independently of the foot part first.

This is the left hand part played with snares off. You could also consider playing a cross stick, or play with snare on to change it up.



Now put it all together and you have an awesome sounding tribal groove that's very fun to play.
