2014 Isobel Chardonnay

Charles Heintz Vineyard

“This year’s Isobel is a deep, yet somewhat unevolved and relatively nervy Chardonnay whose youth is obvious. It is solidly fruited and conveys a fine sense of richness albeit a little tight-fisted at this point, and it is not just a wine that will age extremely well, it is one that is best left in the cellar...and absolutely mandates another few years of waiting. 91 points.”
