2018 VINTAGE

The Columbia Valley cycled through cool and warm months at the start of the growing season, delaying bud break but then advancing bloom. A fast, even bloom along with cooler June temperatures led to a larger crop size that, in cases, required extensive thinning. A warm summer was followed by near perfect conditions in September and October, with winemakers expecting high quality.

TASTING NOTES

Aromas of cherry, spice, and raspberry mingle on the nose with vanilla and slight cedar box. A full-bodied mouthfeel provides dark fruit flavors and dark berries, with refined acidity and firm tannins. The finish is lengthy and balanced.
