ESCAMBIA SOIL AND WATER CONSERVATION DISTRICT, GROUP 2 OFFICE TO APPEAR ON THE BALLOT THIS YEAR

PENSACOLA – Escambia County Soil and Water Conservation District, Group 2 member Greg Fink on Friday submitted his resignation, effective November 4, 2008, citing his intent to run for another unspecified elected position. Therefore, under Florida’s “resign-to-run” law, Escambia County voters will elect a candidate later this year to fill the unexpired portion of Mr. Fink’s four-year term. Candidates who wish to qualify as a candidate for the unexpired portion of the term may do so during the upcoming qualifying period, which begins at noon, June 16, 2008, and ends at noon, June 20, 2008. Candidates may “pre-file” for the seat immediately.

All qualified candidates for Escambia Soil and Water Conservation District, Group 2, will appear on the General Election ballot on November 4, 2008. The winning candidate will serve the final two years of Mr. Fink’s four-year term. The office will be on the ballot for a full four-year term in 2010.
