Statement in the Case of World Wide Network Services vs. DynCorp International

FALLS CHURCH, Va.—May 15, 2008—We are extremely disappointed and strongly disagree with the verdict in this contractual dispute. We have numerous grounds for appeal and will pursue this matter vigorously until we are fully vindicated.

DynCorp International does not engage in or tolerate discrimination in any form and rigorously follows the highest standards of business ethics. We are proud of our ongoing, successful work with hundreds of small, minority and disadvantaged businesses and in many different cultures around the world.

About DynCorp International
DynCorp International (NYSE:DCP) is a provider of specialized mission-critical services to civilian and military government agencies worldwide, and operates major programs in law enforcement training and support, security services, base operations, aviation services, contingency operations, and logistics support. Headquartered in Falls Church, Va., DynCorp International has approximately 15,000 employees worldwide. For more information, visit www.dyn-intl.com.