April 20, 2009

DynCorp International Inc.
3190 Fairview Park Drive
Suite 700
Falls Church, VA  22042

Dear Sir or Madam:

The Project On Government Oversight (POGO) has updated its Federal Contractor Misconduct Database (http://www.contractormisconduct.org/), a compilation of information from public resources regarding government contractors, including DynCorp. I have enclosed the findings relevant to your company, and I am seeking verification of this data.

Any response would be greatly appreciated, as the accuracy of this information is in the best interest of all parties. Out of fairness to DynCorp, please be assured that any response received by POGO will be posted on the website along with the data. Please note that the database includes pending instances, but these are kept separate from resolved instances and are not included in the totals.

If you have any questions, I can be reached at (202) 347-1122. Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,

Neil Gordon
Investigator

Enclosure
Instances

Use and Possession of Military Passes with the Intent to Defraud
Date: 05/11/2006 (Date Case Terminated)
Misconduct Type: Ethics
Enforcement Agency: Defense – Army
Contracting Party: Defense - Army
Court Type: Administrative
Amount: $25
Disposition: Suspend/Debar - Employee
Synopsis: On November 20, 2005, Thomas Nelson Barnes III, who worked for DynCorp, was arrested as he returned from Iraq. DynCorp [acquired by Veritas in December 2004] was responsible for implementing an identification badge program for U.S. military personnel and civilians. Barnes was charged with conspiring to defraud the U.S. of the ability to secure the military and operational areas of the International Zone in Baghdad. In May 2006, he pled guilty to one misdemeanor count of theft/embezzlement of U.S. property and was sentenced to 30 days jail at the direction of probation followed by 1 year supervised release and 30 days home confinement. He also had to pay a $25 special assessment and was debarred for 4 years, ending on December 4, 2010.

Overcharges in Providing Fuel to a Police Academy in Amman, Jordan
Date: 01/30/2005 (Date of Report)
Misconduct Type: Cost/Labor Mischarge
Enforcement Agency: Multiple Agencies
Contracting Party: State Dept.
Court Type: N/A
Amount: $600,824
Disposition: Restitution
Synopsis: The January 30, 2005 Special Inspector General for Iraq Reconstruction (SIGIR) report to Congress notes that an audit requested by the Bureau of International Narcotics and Law Enforcement Affairs (INL) estimated that DynCorp may have overcharged the government as much as $600,000 in providing fuel to the INL-administered police academy in Amman, Jordan. The State Department Inspector General’s audit of the contract confirmed INL’s estimate of overcharges and found a basis for an additional claim of $85,000. DynCorp reimbursed the government $600,824.

Human Trafficking in Bosnia-Herzegovina (Ben Johnston)
Date: 11/26/2002 (Date of Settlement)
Misconduct Type: Labor
Enforcement Agency: Non-Governmental
Contracting Party: None
Court Type: Civil
Amount: Undisclosed
Disposition: Settlement
Synopsis: According to media reports, Ben Johnston worked as an aircraft mechanic for DynCorp in Bosnia-Herzegovina. Johnston filed a RICO (Racketeer Influenced and Corrupt Organizations Act) suit in Texas court alleging DynCorp employees and supervisors had been engaging in various illegal activities, including sex trafficking, and that he had been fired for reporting these activities. Just hours after another former DynCorp employee, Kathryn Bolkovac, prevailed in an employment suit, the company settled Johnston’s case out of court.

Human Trafficking in Bosnia-Herzegovina (Kathryn Bolkovac)
Date: 11/26/2002 (Date of Judgment)
Misconduct Type: Labor
Enforcement Agency: Non-Governmental
Contracting Party: None
Court Type: Civil
Amount: $173,000
Disposition: Judgment Against Defendant
Synopsis: According to media reports, DynCorp International hired Kathryn Bolkovac as part of a UN-administered police task force to train local police officers in Bosnia-Herzegovina. Bolkovac, who was investigating human trafficking and forced prostitution, sent an e-mail to supervisors and UN officials alleging UN staff and DynCorp co-workers were participating in sex trafficking. She sued DynCorp in a British employment tribunal, claiming she had been unfairly dismissed. The tribunal ruled in her favor and awarded her $173,000. Within hours, DynCorp settled a case with another former employee, Ben Johnston, who alleged DynCorp employees were involved in sex trafficking and other illegal acts. DynCorp eventually dismissed several employees in Bosnia for “unacceptable behavior.”

Pending Instances

Damages Arising From U.S. Government Counternarcotics Activities in South America
Date: 05/21/2007 (Date of Opinion)
Misconduct Type: Human Rights
Enforcement Agency: Non-Governmental
Contracting Party: State Dept.
Court Type: Civil
Amount: $0
Disposition: Pending
Synopsis: Venancio Aguasanta Arias, a citizen of Ecuador, brought an action under the Alien Tort Claims Act, the Torture Victim Protection Act, the common law of the United States, statutes and common law of the District of Columbia, and various international agreements and conventions, alleging physical harm and property damage stemming from DynCorp’s contract with the U.S. government to spray pesticides in order to eradicate cocaine and heroine production in Colombia. The suit alleges that during the course of implementing this contract (part of the U.S. State Department’s “Plan Colombia”), DynCorp also sprayed large sections of Ecuador that border Colombia and thereby caused severe physical and mental damage to the plaintiffs and other residents of Ecuador. In May 2007, the court dismissed plaintiffs’ claims under the TVPA, but otherwise allowed the action to proceed.

Longest v. DynCorp (Submitting False Claims to the Government)
Date: 05/29/2003 (Date of Filing)
Misconduct Type: Government Contract Fraud
Enforcement Agency: Non-Governmental
Contracting Party: State Dept.
Court Type: Civil
Amount: $0
Disposition: Pending
Synopsis: On May 29, 2003, Gloria Longest, a former accounting manager for DynCorp International [acquired by Veritas in December 2004] filed a lawsuit under the False Claims Act alleging that DynCorp submitted false claims to the government under International Narcotics & Law Enforcement Affairs contracts with the State Department to assist with South American counter-narcotics operations. Longest alleges DynCorp overcharged the State Department for employee expenses under the contracts between 1997 and 2003. The action was filed in the U.S. District Court for the Middle District of Florida under seal. The case was unsealed in 2005. After conducting an investigation of the plaintiff's allegations, the U.S. government did not join the action.