

Home > Supreme Group's statement in response to the hearing held in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania on December 08, 2014

Print Page Share

SUPREME GROUP'S STATEMENT IN RESPONSE TO THE HEARING HELD IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF PENNSYLVANIA ON DECEMBER 08, 2014

"We accept full responsibility for and deeply regret our past actions. We have implemented new compliance mechanisms and strengthened our internal processes. We now have some of the most rigorous controls in the industry. We recognize that to re-earn trust, we must always act with integrity. That's where our focus is and that's where our focus will continue to be." – Emma Sharma, General Counsel, Supreme Group USA.

For any media enquiries, please contact our Press Office at: media.enquiry@supreme-group.net. We aim to respond as quickly as possible to all requests received.

PROVEN EXPERIENCE

"Our customers come first, always. This means going beyond what is expected to deliver results that ensure mission success for our clients."

Integrated supply chain solutions. Worldwide.

Connect With Supreme

