- D Payment in equal _____ (e.g., weekly, monthly, quarterly) installments of $ _____ over a period of _____ (e.g., months or years), to commence _____ (e.g., 30 or 60 days) after release from imprisonment to a term of supervision; or
- E Payment during the term of supervised release will commence within _____ (e.g., 30 or 60 days) after release from imprisonment. The court will set the payment plan based on an assessment of the defendant’s ability to pay at that time; or
- F Special instructions regarding the payment of criminal monetary penalties:

The payment of the fine shall begin immediately. If the defendant is unable to pay the full amount of the fine immediately, any unpaid balance shall be paid at a rate of $400 per month with the first payment due in 30 days. In the event that the fine is not paid in full prior to the termination of probation, the defendant is ordered to enter into a written agreement with the Financial Litigation Unit of the U.S. Attorney’s Office for payment of the remaining balance. Additionally, the value of any future discovered assets may be applied to offset the balance of criminal monetary penalties. The defendant may be included in the Treasury Offset Program allowing qualified federal benefits to be applied to offset the balance of criminal monetary penalties.

Unless the court has expressly ordered otherwise, if this judgment imposes imprisonment, payment of criminal monetary penalties is due during imprisonment. All criminal monetary penalties, except those payments made through the Federal Bureau of Prisons’ Inmate Financial Responsibility Program, are made to the U.S. District Clerk of Court.

The defendant shall receive credit for all payments previously made toward any criminal monetary penalties imposed.
