

Noonway

Summer is just around the corner and before you know it we will all be back on the peninsula enjoying the crystal clear waters of Lake George. So many of you have signed up for summer 2012 that we are starting to run out of spaces. We want to see all your smiling faces this summer. So if you haven't reenrolled yet you can go to our new website to sign up: www.adirondackcamp.com

Here is a list of the cabins with limited spaces left:

1st session: Owl has 2; Gull has 4; Bear has 3; Caribou has 2
2nd session: Crazy Horse has 4; Cougar has 4; Wolf Den has 2

If you have any questions please contact Rikki at rikki@adirondackcamp.com or give camp a call at 518-547-8261

- Adirondack is known for making new staff and campers feel welcome. How many new staff can you find?

A New Years Adventure in New Zealand

Gabby Rossi, Luis Nassar, and Cecchi MacNaughton recently returned from an adventure to New Zealand, where they visited our favorite kiwis from 2011. The trio packed as many activities as possible into 2 weeks all around New Zealand's North Island, including an extensive road trip with Sophie Moore and Emma Jackson. The north island adventure concluded with a reunion in Auckland with all of the kiwis, after which Luis stayed on to travel around the South Island. The three all returned home safely and can't wait for the next chance to go back!

Upcoming Events!

Come and join your Adirondack Camp friends and family for a annual winter reunion!

Immediately before the reunion we will be having a meet & greet for new & interested families. We'd love to meet you! Come meet Matthew Basinet our Camp Director, our Assistant Camp Director Merritt Duffy, and some of our summer staff.

Hope to see you there on Saturday, March 10, 2012 from 11:00am until 12:00pm (meet & greet) and 12:00pm until 3:00pm (reunion)

NYU (University Hall Commons),
110 East 14th St,
East New York, NY

Come down and help get camp ready and spend some time with your Adirondack Camp friends and family during our Memorial Day Work Weekend from May 25th at 12:00pm until May 28th at 2:00pm
