This is a detailed topographic map of the Basilicata region in Italy, specifically focusing on the Mottola Massif and surrounding areas. The map shows a dense network of roads, towns, and geographical features. Key locations include Potenza, Mottola, and various smaller towns like Avigliano, Baragiano, and San Rocco. The map also shows the coastline and the Gulf of Taranto. A scale bar at the bottom left indicates distances up to 30 kilometers. A QR code is located in the bottom right corner.
