

This is a detailed street map of Berlin, Germany. The map shows the city's layout, including major roads, landmarks, and public transport lines. Key features include the Spree river, the city center, and various districts. The map is labeled with street names, landmarks, and public transport lines. A scale bar at the bottom left indicates distances in meters (0 to 500). A QR code is located at the bottom right.

