

"I'M GOING TO BE A REVOLUTION!"

Beki Smith, creator of the newest genre of music: electro-jazz, talks to us about travel, her favourite things and life in general.

What's your favourite thing about music?

Everything, I love all different genres of music, they all contrast to each other and portray different thoughts and feelings. That's the beautiful thing about music.

So what genre of music do you prefer?

I don't actually have a favourite genre really; I like classical music to heavy metal.

How are you finding the whole touring aspect?

It's amazing, I love it! It is really incredible going from one country to the next and being able to experience everything first hand.

What's been your favourite destination so far?

I really enjoyed Paris; I've always wanted to go there and I can also speak fluent French! It's a gorgeous city. I spent all the time there sight-seeing.

Doesn't your tour tire you out?

Sometimes, but I try to get my eight hours every night!

How did your music get discovered?

I honestly came from nowhere. I started playing small gigs in local pubs when I got scouted. I was astonished, I never thought I'd end up with a record label and be touring! I've been told i'm going to be a revolution!
