angbowen #Q6 I really don't loath it, I'm kind of indifferent to it and have seen it used in a few places where it's cute ducks tomatoes :D #dcth -8:07 PM Nov 12th, 2009 curiouslt #Q6 Not so much that it's ugly, it's just used wrong. Fine for a few words, but not for paragraphs of text. Now completely overused #dcth -8:07 PM Nov 12th, 2009 kg_creative @dcth ok all. I'm heading home. I may catch the end of tonights chat in a bit, i may not. It will depend on traffic! #dcth -8:00 PM Nov 12th, 2009 geekitygirl #O5 I don't use lists on this acct. On my other one, I have 3 lists - Locals, IA/UI/UX and geek-love-of-my-life Saved the best 4 last. #dcth -7:59 PM Nov 12th, 2009 madysondesigns @kg_creative That's the only easy way I've been able to add people to lists. #dcth -7:58 PM Nov 12th, 2009 ddavidn @MadysonDesigns Definitely clunky. #O5 #dcth -7:58 PM Nov 12th, 2009 angbowen @ajdigitalfocus I figure if people I enjoy like someone enough to put them on a list, I should probably check them out as well. #dcth -7:57 PM Nov 12th, 2009 curiouslt I so agree, tedious! RT @madysondesigns: #O5 I like the idea, but its so clunky to make and edit lists. #dcth -7:57 PM Nov 12th, 2009

TonyRetrobot @NancySeeger see ya later! for cms, I dunno how this works for you but I like cushycms for its simplicity and minimalism #dcth -7:56 PM Nov 12th, 2009 kg_creative @divinefusion I started with a few big lists, but i've been reducing them as sub-lists emerge organically #dcth -7:56 PM Nov 12th, 2009 divinefusion @kg_creative agreed, for that lists are fab #dcth -7:56 PM Nov 12th, 2009 kg_creative @madysondesigns you can add to lists from other lists and from your followers, not just from indiv. user accts. #q5 #dcth -7:55 PM Nov 12th, 2009 fray K, i'm off on my 1.5+ hr drive home. G'ite y'all. #dcth -7:55 PM Nov 12th, 2009 ajdigitalfocus @angbowen #Q5 true, I agree with that. Random people have started following me after the lists feature. I'm not even on that many... #dcth -7:54 PM Nov 12th, 2009 fray Q5 I still have not populated my lists fully. I am adding them when I see the tweets. #dcth It takes a bunch of time. -7:54 PM Nov 12th, 2009 kg_creative @DCTH #q5 lists are a good way of curating specialty sources. #dcth -7:54 PM Nov 12th, 2009 angbowen #Q5 I've found quite a few new followers though lists. It's nice to be able to go through specialty lists to find new peeps to follow. #dcth -7:53 PM Nov 12th, 2009 ajdigitalfocus @NancySeeger See ya! #dcth -7:53 PM Nov 12th, 2009 robbmajor @divinefusion No worries! #Q4 and #Q5 are both about how we're going to change Twitter through design. Jump back in! #DCTH -7:52 PM Nov 12th, 2009 divinefusion @NancySeeger ciao ;) #dcth -7:52 PM Nov 12th, 2009 fray #Q5 I use them to check out what that list is up. Makes it easier than scrolling through the stream of everyone. #dcth -7:52 PM Nov 12th, 2009 ajdigitalfocus #Q5 A follow/unfollow feature for all people on a list I really like would make it work for me. #dcth -7:52 PM Nov 12th, 2009

NancySeeger bummer, gotta go - really nice chatting with you all, if anyone has fav CMS would love opinions :) #DCTH -7:52 PM Nov 12th, 2009 geekitygirl Q5 - Filtering, multi-user add #dctch -7:51 PM Nov 12th, 2009 ajdigitalfocus #Q5 I'm not really - I've subscribed to a few but they haven't made any difference to me. My Twitter experience is in Seesmic. #dctch -7:51 PM Nov 12th, 2009 divinefusion sorry I was MIA for #Q4, I was checking out 33 places to get design inspiration.... : P #dctch -7:51 PM Nov 12th, 2009 ddavidn @DCTH Can't wait to use lists. I just haven't had time to go through everyone and add them to lists yet... #Q5 #design #dctch -7:51 PM Nov 12th, 2009

NancySeeger Q5 I followed back the lists that I'm on, wow my feed has exploded #DCTH -7:51 PM Nov 12th, 2009 curiouslt @kg_creative true, but for me, seeing their avatar might prompt me to check them out sooner. I don't have it yet tho #dctch -7:50 PM Nov 12th, 2009 geekitygirl #Q4 Not a huge RTer. If I'm amused, engaged, enthralled, yes. Otherwise, meh. Make adding ppl to lists easier, add filtering. RT? meh. #dctch -7:50 PM Nov 12th, 2009

NancySeeger @nicdev during webinars, folks always oo and ahh over Socialite - PC envy ;) #DCTH -7:50 PM Nov 12th, 2009

DCTH #Q5 Last Twitter-related question tonight, I promise: How are you using lists? How could better #design make lists better? #dctch -7:50 PM Nov 12th, 2009 kristofcreative 3rd party apps only really need to integrate how to display them (e.g. TweetDeck), Users could then RT as usual. #dctch -7:50 PM Nov 12th, 2009 kg_creative @curiouslt I discover them through RT's already. Especially when they come recommended by a trusted source. #dctch -7:49 PM Nov 12th, 2009 robbmajor @fray #Q4 I haven't gotten the magical retweet feature yet either. #DCTH -7:49 PM Nov 12th, 2009 kristofcreative #Q4 Larger % of users use 3rd party apps. So even when fully released, only those on Twitter would have to use it... #dctch -7:49 PM Nov 12th, 2009 nicdev @NancySeeger I had missed it till now, definitely trying it out. Thanks! #dcth - 7:48 PM Nov 12th, 2009 fray #Q4 I haven't seen it on my account, so I have no input about it. #dcth - 7:48 PM Nov 12th, 2009 curiouslt @kg_creative that doesn't bother me, could be a good way to discover interesting people #dcth - 7:47 PM Nov 12th, 2009

NancySeeger Q4 I'm using Socialite (mac only used to be EventBox) and RTs treatment is nice #DCTH - 7:45 PM Nov 12th, 2009 ajdigitalfocus RT @kg_creative: I don't want strangers in my feed. If YOU RT, then I'm more likely to pay attention. Not with some stranger I don't know #dcth - 7:45 PM Nov 12th, 2009 gardenofthought Thanks for a great week #dcth. Looking forward to next week. Goodnight Twitterverse. - 7:45 PM Nov 12th, 2009 angbowen @ajdigitalfocus Seismic has list support but they don't automatically update which makes them kind of a pain to deal with #dcth - 7:44 PM Nov 12th, 2009 ajdigitalfocus @kg_creative Yeah when I see RTs within seconds of a post, it's really suspect - the person didn't even read it. That's annoying... #dcth - 7:44 PM Nov 12th, 2009 kg_creative @dcth #q4 I don't want strangers in my feed. If YOU RT, then I'm more likely to pay attention. Not with some stranger I don't know #dcth - 7:44 PM Nov 12th, 2009 curiouslt #Q4 Is there any real way to tell how good/bad it is when not everyone has it? We are all retweeting in different ways now #dcth - 7:44 PM Nov 12th, 2009

TonyRetrobot will we still be able to simply add 'RT' to the tweet? or will this feature be replacing that? I'm still confused #dcth - 7:44 PM Nov 12th, 2009 ddavidn @DCTH I think they could have done a lot better by keeping it simple. Automating what many of us do manually/with clients; C&P. #Q4 #dcth - 7:43 PM Nov 12th, 2009 ajdigitalfocus @angbowen I'm waiting for Twitter lists to show up in 3rd party apps too :((seismic desktop) #dcth - 7:43 PM Nov 12th, 2009

kg_creative @ajdigitalfocus Not always, no. But when I see a stream of RT's with no other interaction from an acct, it does make me suspect. #dcth -7:42 PM Nov 12th, 2009

angbowen #Q4 The two major downsides are that you can't edit the tweet and that they don't show up in third party apps. #dcth -7:42 PM Nov 12th, 2009

ajdigitalfocus #Q4 I think this was covered in the past couple of days too but not being able to edit the RT to clean it up or comment sucks #dcth -7:41 PM Nov 12th, 2009

madysondesigns #Q4 So far, it seems they have failed spectacularly. I haven't heard many people who enjoy it so far. #dcth -7:41 PM Nov 12th, 2009 kg_creative @kristofcreative rofl #dcth -7:35 PM Nov 12th, 2009 madysondesigns @NancySeeger Agreed, I can't process the information in lists of more than 20 or 30. #dcth -7:35 PM Nov 12th, 2009 angbowen @NancySeeger I agree, anything over 25 I'll usually pass up. Who has time to check out that many links. #dcth -7:35 PM Nov 12th, 2009 azzcatdesign @kristofcreative LOL! #dcth -7:35 PM Nov 12th, 2009 kg_creative @geekitygirl I've been taking a closer look at my stream and trying to identify the blind RTers vs those that add value #dcth -7:34 PM Nov 12th, 2009 azzcatdesign I've mad a vow never to blog lists. Would rather just write something interesting or funny..#dcth -7:34 PM Nov 12th, 2009

NancySeeger Q3 I avoid now the top 50 or 100 types, I prefer 10 best :) #DCTH -7:34 PM Nov 12th, 2009 geekitygirl #Q3 Stopped following all the automated tweet retweet accts. If someone I respect RTs something, I will look. #dcth -7:33 PM Nov 12th, 2009 kristofcreative Thanks for the post idea: Top 10 Great (and not so great) Things About List Posts. :) #dcth -7:33 PM Nov 12th, 2009 angbowen @DCTH Definitely, before creating any post I think people need to ask themselves if and how it will benefit the community. #dcth -7:32 PM Nov 12th, 2009 kg_creative @madysondesigns I love lists! They are good visuals of what direction NOT to take a project on when it's overdone #Q3 #dcth -7:32 PM Nov 12th, 2009

NancySeeger @angbowen I like Smashing - once in a while I'm not sure a article was helpful, they have many contributors #DCTH -7:32 PM Nov 12th, 2009 cnc137 @DCTH #Q3 I like some of them and have used some of them, but I have to agree that others are not very good and there are too many. #dcth -7:32 PM Nov 12th, 2009 gardenofthought #Q3 My feed reader is overloaded w/ repititive posts my many of the design/tech blogs. Lists are getting to be all the same. #dcth -7:31 PM Nov 12th, 2009 robbmajor @azzcatdesign #Q3 Agreed! The duplication of lists kills me! Kinda like multiples of the same RT. Fortunately, Twitter's fixing that. #DCTH -7:31 PM Nov 12th, 2009 divinefusion @DCTH #Q3 totally, AND who comes up with the top 25 X? Its their opinion? granted some are good/exposure, but many are dups not orig #dcth -7:31 PM fray It does bug me when I see the same list retweeted multiple times in a few days...

Nov 12th, 2009

#dcth -7:31 PM Nov 12th, 2009

DCTH @angbowen #Q3 I like them one done right. I know they are done for traffic and ad $$$ but still. We are better than that as a comm #dcth -7:31 PM Nov 12th, 2009 azzcatdesign RT @angbowen: Yeah, Smashing always worth a look. #dcth -7:30 PM Nov 12th, 2009 madysondesigns @angbowen Exactly. When you're trying to do something specific, it's nice to have a collection of resources in one place. #dcth -7:30 PM Nov 12th, 2009 divinefusion @fray to me it doesn't, i'm saying it becomes the who is who of list makers #dcth -7:30 PM Nov 12th, 2009

DCTH #Q3 I think lists of lists have to be the worst.... 63,000 color palettes. Then inside its 50 Green color palettes, 20 red ones... #dcth -7:30 PM Nov 12th, 2009 divinefusion @fray true, but for some like dcth would be good to have 1 localized...

angbowen @DCTH Smashing does do some great ones. I appreciate the good ones because they help you weed through and find the best resources. #dcth -7:29 PM Nov 12th, 2009 fray .@divinefusion Why does it matter WHO creates it? #dcth -7:29 PM Nov 12th, 2009 ddavidn @DCTH However, it has to be well-thought out and written. Not just 20 links to random blog articles. #Q3 #dcth -7:28 PM Nov 12th, 2009 geekitygirl #Q3 So much of it is subjective and all about who you know. Not overly impressed. #dcth -7:28 PM Nov 12th, 2009 fray .@divinefusion re: Q3 Can't have just one... each list is so subjective already. They're really 'My Fave 25 Blah"... #dcth -7:28 PM Nov 12th, 2009 gardenofthought <http://twitter.com/gardenofthought/dcth> #dcth ;) -7:28 PM Nov 12th, 2009 ddavidn @DCTH I like list posts when I'm in a hurry to find something. It can help separate the good stuff from the junk. #Q3 #dcth -7:28 PM Nov 12th, 2009 divinefusion @DCTH oh, then forget my comment lol #dcth -7:28 PM Nov 12th, 2009 azzcatdesign @DCTH Q3 I'm seeing duplicates of most lists w/2days between. Too many!! #DCTH -7:27 PM Nov 12th, 2009 fray .@angbowen Agreed re: Q3. #dcth Just listing stuff doesn't seem productive. -7:27 PM Nov 12th, 2009

DCTH @angbowen Smashing Mag does great ones. I don't like just some images. It doesn't "add" anything. #dcth -7:27 PM Nov 12th, 2009 divinefusion #Q3 plus its all about WHO created the list..... #dcth -7:26 PM Nov 12th, 2009

DCTH #Q3 Lists on blog posts not lists on twitter. #dcth -7:26 PM Nov 12th, 2009 fray .@DCTH I don't understand the list posts? You mean the 25 blah tutorials or some such? #dcth -7:26 PM Nov 12th, 2009 divinefusion #Q3 agreed, besides everyone creating their own list is quite repetitive. like /dcth, would be best to have one, no? #dcth -7:25 PM Nov 12th, 2009

NancySeeger @DCTH Q3 ahem yes, yes and yes! Although surprisingly some great info from unexpected arenas - sometimes smash disappoints #DCTH -7:25 PM Nov 12th, 2009 angbowen #Q3 I'm a fan of list posts that do it right and actually say something about each item on the list. #dcth -7:25 PM Nov 12th, 2009 adamccombs #Q3 (@chadengle) I think @robertbanh said it best. If the list has more than 40 people on it your not important lol #dcth -7:25 PM Nov 12th, 2009

NancySeeger Q2 um never mind, those stripes are very neat for a grunge effect and white just doesn't do great outside art galleries LOL #DCTH -7:24 PM Nov 12th, 2009

DCTH #Q3 (@chadengle) What are your thoughts on list posts in the design/tech blog scene now? I don't like quantity > quality approach... #dcth -7:24 PM Nov 12th, 2009
