

Painting Landscapes and Gardens of Tuscany with Rea Stavropoulos

Paint every day Sunday 26 June - Saturday 2 July 2011

in different locations, staying 6 nights half-board at residences Villa Palmerino, includes entrances to gardens and full day excursion with lunch in Tuscany (Chianti/ Senese) by minibus, and a small reception with group exhibition of the works at Villa Il Palmerino on the last afternoon of the course.

Rea Stavropoulos, artist and writer from London, lives in Florence for 15 years and exhibits internationally. She works in many media but has a particular love for watercolor and a special interest in Italian gardens. She loves to communicate this enthusiasm to others and to encourage both inexperienced and more experienced artists to develop their skills and creativity.

www.reastavropoulos.com

Cost 970 Euros, including membership of Il Palmerino Cultural Association, accommodation is in shared rooms - 2 to a room, Tuscan home cooking, maximum 8 people. www.palmerino.it

RSVP by 30 APRIL 2011 (new deadline) RSVP and/or email for more information.

EMAIL: info@palmerino.it (Federica & Stefano Paretto, proprietors of historic Villa Palmerino)

Photo and flyer by Leslie Clark, Denver, Colorado ljc@mac.com

Reference: I had a wonderful time exploring Florence through watercolor painting lessons with Rea and enjoyed city and country perspectives staying a month at Federica's Villa Palmerino thru January 2011.