The San Diego Chargers will look to put the brakes to a four-game slide this Sunday, Nov. 20 against a very talented Chicago Bears team at 1:15 p.m. PST (3:15 p.m. CST) in the Windy City's Soldier Field. It's the Chargers first trip to Chicago since 2003. CBS Sports will send their top broadcast duo of Jim Nantz and Phil Simms to Soldier Field to call the action.

Despite the skid, the Chargers are part of a three-way tie for second in the AFC West, just a game behind Oakland.

The Bears have done the exact opposite of the Chargers of late and come into Sunday's game having won four straight. Three of the NFL's top dual-threat backs will share center-stage on Sunday. The Bears' Matt Forte is second in the NFL with 1,308 scrimmage yards and has scored four touchdowns, while the Chargers' Ryan Mathews ranks 11th with 908 yards and three scores, and backfield mate Mike Tolbert has 609 yards and six scores.

Sunday's game is the first regular-season meeting between the Chargers and quarterback Jay Cutler since he left Denver following the 2008 season. The Chargers went 4-1 against Cutler during his three seasons (2006-08) in the Mile High City.

Series History

Sunday's game will be just the 11th all-time meeting between the Chargers and Bears. The series is deadlocked 5-5. The Chargers' 14-3 win in the last meeting (2007 in San Diego) snapped a four-game win streak for the Bears. The Chargers are just 1-3 all-time at Soldier Field.

Familiar Faces

Chargers General Manager A.J. Smith was a scout for the USFL's Chicago Blitz from 1982-83. Offensive line coach Hal Hunter played linebacker and was a Dean's List student at Northwestern University in Evanston, Ill. Defensive line coach Don Johnson coached the Bears' DL from 2005-06 and secondary coach Steve Wilks coached the Bears' DBs from 2006-08. Offensive line coach Mike Sullivan is a native of Chicago and attended St. Francis de Sales High. Assistant linebackers coach Greg Williams, a native of Bolingbrook, Ill., went to training camp with the Bears in 1998.

Chargers defensive tackle Antonio Garay played for the Bears from 2006-07. Defensive end Corey Luget, the Chargers' top pick in the 2011 NFL Draft, went to Illinois. Defensive end Tommy Harris was the Bears' first-round pick (No. 14) in 2004. Harris spent seven seasons with the Bears before signing with the Chargers as a free agent in 2011. Kicker Nick Novak originally signed with Chicago as an undrafted free agent in 2005. Defensive end Luis Castillo went to Northwestern. Outside linebacker Larry English is from Aurora, Ill. (Marmion Military Academy) and went to Northern Illinois. Punter Mike Scifres went to Western Illinois.

Bears offensive coordinator Mike Martz played and coached at San Diego's Mesa College. Assistant defensive backs and safeties coach Gill Byrd was a Pro Bowl corner and safety for the Chargers from 1983-92. Assistant special teams coach Kevin O'Dea was a defensive/special teams assistant with the Chargers from 1994-95. Running backs coach Tim Spencer played fullback for the Chargers from 1985-90.

Bears guard Lance Louis played at San Diego State from 2004-08.

Pro Bowl voting underway

Fans can vote for their favorite Chargers for the 2012 Pro Bowl at www.chargers.com/probowl. Balloting concludes Dec. 19. Teams will be announced on Dec. 27 at 4 p.m. PST during a special Pro Bowl Selection Show on the NFL Network. The Pro Bowl will be played Sun., Jan. 29, 2012 at 4 p.m. PST (NBC) at Aloha Stadium in Honolulu, Hawaii. The Pro Bowl squads are based on a consensus votes of fans, players and coaches, each counting one-third toward determining the 43-man rosters. Players and coaches will cast their votes on Dec. 21-22.

Noteworthy

Norv Turner is 4-0 as a head coach against Chicago.

The Chargers are one of only four teams (Dallas, Houston and Pittsburgh) to rank in the NFL's top 10 in both total offense and defense. This week, the Bolts rank seventh in total offense and 10th in total defense.

Eric Weddle is tied for the NFL lead with five picks in 2011.

Antonio Gates had nine catches for 107 yards and a touchdown in the Chargers' last meeting with Chicago in 2007.

Vincent Brown caught his first-career NFL touchdown pass in the Chargers' last game vs. Oakland and he has nine catches for 176 yards in the Chargers' last two games. a 19.6 yards per catch average in those two contests.

Vincent Jackson has eight catches for 163 yards (20.4 avg.) and three scores in the Bolts' last two contests. For the season, he's tied for 13th in the league with 635 yards on 35 catches. Jackson's scored six touchdowns and his 18.1 ypc average is third-best among the league's top 25 receiving yardage leaders. Thirty-three of Jackson's 35 catches this season have gone for first downs.

Jackson has six touchdowns in 35 catches, a score for every 5.8 times he catches a pass this season. Among active NFL receivers with at least 200 career catches, Jackson owns the highest touchdown-to-catch ratio (1 TD for every 7.26 receptions), ahead of Detroit's Calvin Johnson (1 TD for every 7.36 receptions) and teammate Antonio Gates (1-to-7.87).

All 19 of Malcom Floyd's receptions this season have resulted in first downs. Floyd has two 100-yard games in his last three games played, though he's missed the last two games with a hip injury.

Ryan Mathews and Mike Tolbert have combined for 70 catches, second-most by any running back tandem in the NFL this season. Only New Orleans' Darren Sproles and Pierre Thomas (92) have combined for more.

Tolbert and Jackson are tied for the team lead with six touchdowns. Tolbert has 17 total touchdowns in the Chargers' last 23 games.

Nick Novak has made 17 of his 19 field goal attempts in his first season kicking for the Chargers, including a career-long 52-yarder in the rain Nov. 6 at Qualcomm Stadium. It's an 89.5% clip. The team's single-season record for field goal percentage (min. 14 attempts) is 91.4% set by Nate Kaeding (32 of 35) in 2009. Novak has hit five field goals in a game once this season and four twice. His only misses this season are from 46 and 52 yards.

Weddle

Mike Scifres, who ranks third in the NFL in gross punting average (49.8) and fourth in net average (41.9), did not allow any return yards to the Bears when the teams last met in 2007. Of his six punts that day, three were fair caught by Devin Hester, one was returned for no yards, while one was downed and another went out of bounds.

Milestones to watch for

With 107 career wins, Norv Turner is tied with Ray "Buddy" Parker for 34th in NFL history, playoffs included. John Madden is 33rd on the list with 112 career victories.

Philip Rivers has 149 career touchdown passes. He needs one more to become the third player in Chargers history (Dan Fouts 254 and John Hadl 201) and the 75th player in NFL history to reach 150.

Rivers is on pace for a 4,875-yard season. If he reaches 4,000 yards, Rivers would join Peyton Manning (1999-04 and 2006-10) and Drew Brees (2006-10) as the only QBs in NFL history with at least four-straight 4,000-yard seasons. Rivers threw for 4,009 in 2008 — 4,254 in 2009 — and 4,710 in 2010.

Antonio Gates has 559 career catches, second in team history, and he needs 28 to overtake Charlie Joiner (586) for first.

Gates also has 7,356 yards, fourth in team history, and he needs 178 to overtake Gary Garrison (7,533) for third.

Vincent Jackson has 34 touchdown catches, ninth-most in team history. He needs three more to overtake John Jefferson (36) for eighth.

With 247 career catches, Jackson needs three more to reach the 250 needed to qualify for the team's all-time list for average yards per catch. At his current 17.3 ypc average, Jackson would have third-highest yards per catch average in team history behind Lance Alworth (19.4) and Gary Garrison (18.6). Third on the current list is Wes Chandler's 16.4.

Mike Tolbert (16) needs one rushing touchdown to crack the Chargers' all-time Top 10 list. Currently Hank Bauer, Rod Bernstine, Dick Post and Clarence Williams (17) are tied in that position with the seventh most touchdowns in team history.

Shaun Phillips has 59.5 career sacks. With his next one, Phillips will become the 92nd player since sacks became an official NFL stat (1982) to reach 60 sacks for a career. Phillips ranks fourth in team history and needs six more to tie Lee Williams (65.5) for third.

Eric Weddle needs five interceptions over the final seven games to tie the team record for single-season interceptions (10), set by Antonio Cromartie in 2007.

Norv Turner

The Head Coaches

Norv Turner, whose teams have won three of the last four AFC Western Division Championships, has led one of the most successful eras in Chargers history.

Named NFL Coach of the Year by USA Today in 2009, Turner's accomplishments from 2007-10 are among the best in franchise history. His 41 wins over the four-year stretch are second only to the team's 42 from 1978-81, and he and Don Coryell are tied for the most AFC West titles in a four-year period (three).

Turner's .616 winning percentage in the regular season (45-28) is the franchise's best, as is his combined .608 mark, including playoffs (48-31). He's tied with Coryell and Bobby Ross for the most playoff wins in team history (three). Turner has saved some of his best coaching for late in the season as evidenced by his 28-9 regular-season record after Nov. 1, including 17-2 in December and January.

In 2010, Turner's Chargers led the NFL in total offense and total defense. San Diego finished the season strong, winning seven of its last nine. The Chargers led the NFL in 2010 in total offense (395.6 ypg), average yards per play (6.1) and yards per pass play (8.7). They scored the second-most points in the NFL (44.1) and averaged 27.6 points per game, becoming the NFL's first team ever to average more than 25.0 points a game for seven consecutive seasons, including four-straight under Turner.

Turner faced one of the more challenging seasons of his NFL coaching career in 2010 as the Chargers' roster endured constant change throughout the season. Seventy-four different players appeared in at least one game for the Bolts, equaling Arizona's NFL record (2005) for the most players in a nonstrike season. In total, the Chargers made 109 roster moves between final cuts (Sept. 4) and the end of the regular season.

Despite the constant roster shuffling, the Chargers offense rarely wavered. At the end of the year, the Chargers were one of only two NFL teams to feature a quarterback with at least 30 touchdown passes, a running back with at least 10 rushing touchdowns and a receiver or tight end with at least 10 touchdown catches. It's a feat that had been achieved only one other time in franchise history (1981).

The Chargers' running game also showed significant progress in 2010. After falling to 31st among the league's 32 teams in 2009, the Chargers ranked 15th in 2010 and showing balance, they were the NFL's only team to register more than 4,500 yards through the air and 1,800 on the ground.

Smith

Lovie Smith is in his eighth season as the head coach of the Chicago Bears.

Tied for the fifth-longest tenure among active NFL head coaches with their current team, Smith has a regular season coaching record of 69-52 (.570) and is 72-55 overall, including the playoffs. He led the Bears to an 11-5 regular season record, the NFC North crown and an NFC Championship Game appearance in 2010. The Bears have won three division titles under Smith's tutelage, most in the NFC North since 2004.

One of just nine current head coaches to reach the 60-win plateau, Smith's 72 wins are third most in franchise history, trailing only Hall of Famers George Halas and Mike Ditka. Included in those 66 wins is an NFC Championship giving the Bears their first Super Bowl appearance in 21 years (2006).

Smith was hired as the 13th head coach in Chicago Bears history on January 15, 2004. In 2005, he was named NFL Coach of the Year after becoming the fastest head coach in Bears history to lead the team to a division title, doing so in his second campaign after leading the Bears to an 11-5 record.

In 2006, Smith led the Bears to a career-high 13 wins, which helped Chicago earn home-field advantage in the NFC Playoffs en route to winning the team's first NFC Championship since its Super Bowl season of 1985. That gave Chicago 24 regular season wins since 2005, the fourth-highest two-season win total in the 87-season history of the franchise.

Overall, Smith has spent 28 years in coaching at the collegiate and professional levels. He began his coaching career at his hometown high school, Big Sandy High School, in 1980 before moving to Cascia Hall Prep in Tulsa the following year. Two years later, Smith made the jump to the college ranks at his alma mater of Tulsa as linebackers coach, where he stayed through 1986. Smith moved on to coach linebackers at Wisconsin (1987), Arizona State (1988-91), and Kentucky (1992). Smith was the defensive backs coach at Tennessee (1993-94) and Ohio State (1995). A native of Big Sandy, Texas, Smith led the Big Sandy Wildcats to three consecutive state championships in high school and was all-state three years as an end and linebacker. Smith was a two-time all-America and three-time all-Missouri Conference defensive back at Tulsa.

Lovie and MaryAnne have three sons, Mikal, Miles and Matthew as well as daughter-in-law, Kathleen, and grandsons, Noah and Malachi.

They said it

Philip Rivers speaking of Ryan Mathews and the Chargers' depleted running back corps during the Oct. 9 game at Denver — "It's a good group. Ryan [Mathews] battled. I told him, 'If you can give us 30 more minutes, we'll give you a week off.' He fought all he could. Obviously [Mike] Tolbert couldn't return, but we found a way to win. That's something we've been saying around here. Just find a way to win."

Takeo Spikes on Raiders coach Hue Jackson's prediction that the Raiders would win the AFC West in 2011 — "I would hope he would think like that. That's the reason we're in this profession. We think like that over here too, but ... we understand that we're not going to direct our attention toward that. We don't play Oakland this week. We play Denver, and the only number in our mind is four, trying to get that fourth win before the bye week."

Norv Turner

Kris Dielman about Norv Turner's preminion to the team of a game-clinching 15-play drive Oct. 2 vs. Miami — "I mean, that was pretty crazy. That's what happened. It seems to happen a lot. (Stuff) that he says (will happen), happens a lot more than it doesn't."

Mike Tolbert speaking of AFC West games after a Sept. 25 win vs. Kansas City — "Division games are always physical and tough. Nose-bleeders, so to speak. Whenever you get out there and just grind it out and go at it, it's a good feeling to come out on top."

Norv Turner assessing the Chargers' Sept. 25 win over Kansas City — "There's some guys that really aren't household names around here that have really stepped up and played for us in some situations where we needed them. A guy like Vaughn Martin, it's his second start ever...I thought he did a great job at defensive end replacing Luis (Castillo). I think Donald Butler probably had his best game. Marcus Gilchrist going in the game had really never played corner. He went in the game for (Quentin) Jammer and was outstanding. I mean, looked like a starting NFL corner. That was impressive to me...Randy McMichael stepped in for (Antonio) Gates and I can't say enough about him and what he brings to us because he does so much in our pass protection and then he catches four or five balls and big plays on third down. To see those guys step up, that means a lot to us because we need every guy."

Antonio Gates on Norv Turner — "There's a lot of coaches in this league that think it's about them. It's about their records, it's about what they need to accomplish, how many wins they need to get to increase their resume, etc., etc. One thing I feel I've figured out about Norv is (to him) it's just about enjoying what he does, going out and winning and having you be the best that you can be."

Patrick Crayton

Philip Rivers on Norv Turner — "Guys that have been around long enough to know, they know he cares about them. He knows football, he loves football and he's going to do everything he can to help you play your best football. They know what his passion is for. They know he's not a guy who's going to go, 'I told them.' He truly wants it -- not so he can get the credit, obviously. He doesn't care about getting any of the credit. But the guys who have been around him appreciate the way he goes about it -- the way he pops in the training room, the way he pops in the weight room, the way he's around the meeting room. You see him. He's not a head coach that just hits the walk-thru, that you just see on the field, just going to call the plays. He truly knows guys."

Scott Mrczkowski on Philip Rivers "He's an offensive lineman playing quarterback. He's as competitive as we are. Every play he's super energetic, super ready to go. He has the most passion I've seen anybody have about the game. It's incredible."

Patrick Crayton on Philip Rivers — "It's the first away game, everyone dresses up. I see Philip, he's in Dockers, cowboy boots, baseball hat. I'm like, 'OK, he's ready to play ball.' There's no flash there. His being down to earth is critical. It trickles down. He doesn't separate himself from the rest of the locker room. You feel it."

Jacques Cesaire on Philip Rivers — "Philip is a bona fide NFL superstar and I don't think he's ever acted like an NFL superstar. Philip is Philip, who he is, his Piggly Wiggly shirts, and he comes to work with his lunch pail every day, and he works hard. ... Sometimes you look at yourself in the mirror, you think you work hard, but then you see Phillip and you're like, 'He works harder.' He is a cliché, like a walking cliché. Just to see how much of a leader he really is and how important he is to this team, you can ask anybody in this locker room who they think is the most fun person in the locker room and they'll tell you. He also ... is a competitor. He's a warrior and hates losing. And that's the mentality that we're building around here."

Mike Tolbert — "I'm more happy with the protection things than I am with the touchdowns. The touchdowns are great. I have fun doing that, obviously, because I dance. The protection, being able to pick up protections and see different things, being able to keep Philip (healthy), that's what I take pride in."

Steve Gregory on being an every-down player — "It's football. I've been playing it my whole life. I've always been the smallest guy. I've always hit the bigger guy."

Defensive line coach Don Johnson on defensive lineman Vaughn Martin — "Something that big moving that fast? Vaughn's like a Ford truck with Porsche quickness."

Special teams coach Rich Bisaccia — "I'd like to believe [special teams can make a difference]. We're kind of the glue that combines it all together. We don't have three downs. We have one down to make a play, and if we don't handle our job on that one play, it could be a deterrent to the entire game, or it can be a momentum-changer to the entire game."

Vincent Jackson on Quentin Jammer being one of the NFL's top cover cornerbacks — "He's always in great position and the fact that his interception numbers are not high, it means nothing to me. I don't think it means anything to any receiver in this league. If a guy is in your hip pocket and you're not catching the ball, it's tough whether it's intercepted or not."

Behind the scenes with the Charger Girls

San Diego's KFMB-TV took its viewers behind the scenes of the Charger Girls' 2011-12 calendar shoot and now the video is now available on www.Chargers.com. It is also available to AT&T Dish Network subscribers on the Chargers' Video-on-Demand (VOD) channel.

Frequent Flyers

The Chargers will travel the third-most air miles of any team in the NFL this season (26,740). The Chargers' 2011 schedule features East Coast trips to face the New England Patriots (Providence, R.I.), New York Jets (Newark, N.J.) and Jacksonville Jaguars.

In 2011, the Chargers are chartering with United Airlines. The team flies on a 767 jumbo jet for all games, except trips to Oakland and Denver when the team will ferry on a 757.

Only San Francisco (29,196) and Seattle (26,918) are slated to fly more air miles than the Bolts in 2011.

Bolts go for 1 million on Facebook

With over 925,000 followers on Facebook, the Chargers are making a mad dash toward a million. The Chargers and ESET have partnered on a sweepstakes promotion, offering a grand prize to one lucky Facebook follower when the Chargers hit 1,000,000 followers. The sweepstakes winner will be awarded a $1,000 free shopping spree to the Chargers Team Store or online Pro Shop and a one year free license of ESET Software. Fans can follow the Chargers on Facebook at www.facebook.com/chargers.

ESET is on the forefront of security innovation, delivering trusted protection to make the Internet safer for businesses and consumers. Week 1 vs. Minnesota

The Chargers opened the season with a 24-17 win over the Vikings, overcoming a fourth-quarter deficit and scoring 17 unanswered points in the win. Philip Rivers passed for two touchdowns, including the game-winner to Mike Tolbert at 5:01 of the fourth quarter. San Diego's defense dominated the Vikings, holding them to just 187 yards of total offense and just 26 in the second half. After the Vikings' second touchdown of the game at 9:44 of the second quarter, they didn't manage to cross the 50-yard line into Chargers territory for the rest of the game. The Chargers finished the game with 31 first downs to the Vikings' 10, and possessed the ball for 37:17 to Minnesota's 22:43.

Norv Turner earned his 100th career regular-season win against the Vikings and received a game ball from the team in the locker room afterward.

Mike Scifres earned a game ball after taking over for an injured Nate Kaeding and scored his first-career NFL points, including a game-tying 40-yard field goal with 10:05 remaining in the fourth quarter...it tied the game at 17-17...Scifres' last made field goal in a live game (college or pro) was a 56-yard game-winner as time expired to give Western Illinois a 44-41 win over Northern Iowa in 2000 for a conference title...Scifres was also good on all three point-after attempts...Scifres also handled kickoffs and had two touchbacks...Kaeding suffered season-ending torn ligaments in his left knee on on the game's opening kickoff.

Antoine Cason had a game-high two passes defended...both came on third down plays to force Minnesota punts...the last gave the ball to the Chargers for the go-ahead touchdown drive.

Philip Rivers' 335 yards were his most ever in a season opener...it was his 21st career 300-yard game and the 13th time in his career that he led the Chargers back for a win when trailing in the fourth quarter.

Mike Tolbert scored a career-high three touchdowns, including a career-high two receiving touchdowns...Tolbert scored the game-winner for the Chargers on his second touchdown reception, a 19-yarder with 5:01 remaining in the fourth quarter... he became the third player in team history to have two touchdown catches and a rushing touchdown in the same game...his nine catches were a career high.

Antonio Gates caught eight passes to move into third place on the team's all-time receptions list with 537...he passed LaDainian Tomlinson (530) for third place.

Shaun Phillips made a great play on Minnesota's first offensive play of the game, tipping a Donovan McNabb pass in the air and intercepting it at the Vikings' six...it was his fifth-career interception and led to a Chargers touchdown three plays later to tie the game at 7-7.

Ryan Mathews had a career-high 73 yards receiving, including a career-long 37-yard catch. Antwan Barnes made two big plays in the second half...on the last play of the third quarter, his pressure on third-down helped force an incomplete pass and a punt...on the ensuing drive, Scifres kicked a 40-yard field goal to tie the game at 17-17...then late in the fourth quarter, Barnes' 10-yard sack on third-down capped off a three-and-out and the Chargers offense ran out the clock on the ensuing possession to close out the win.

Takeo Spikes received a game ball for his first game with the Chargers after leading the team with 13 tackles.

Corey Liuget had a team-high two tackles for loss in his first-career NFL game.

Week 2 at New England

The Chargers lost a heartbreaker to the Patriots, falling by a 35-21 score at Gillette Stadium in Foxborough. San Diego turned the ball over four times leading to 10 Patriots points, including a fourth-quarter fumble just three plays after stopping the Patriots on downs near midfield in a six-point game. The Patriots answered with a touchdown and two-point conversion to stretch their lead to 14. Tom Brady was nearly flawless for New England, completing 31 of 40 (77.5%) for 423 yards with three touchdowns and no interceptions.

Vincent Jackson

Philip Rivers went over 20,000 career passing yards on his first completion of the game, a 29-yard pass to Vincent Jackson...Rivers finished the game 9 of 11 for 139 yards and a touchdown on third down.

Jackson had a monster day, setting new career highs with 10 catches and 172 yards, and catching two fourth-quarter touchdown passes (3 and 26 yards)...helped keep second touchdown drive alive with 14-yard catch on 3rd-and-10.

Malcom Floyd set up Chargers' first touchdown of game with 23-yard catch on 3rd-and-5, followed by 36-yarder to 10 on 3rd-and-4...injured groin on second catch and did not play rest of game.

Week 3 vs. Kansas City

The Chargers didn't trail the entire afternoon and withstood a furious comeback effort by Kansas City in defeating the Chiefs, 20-17, at Qualcomm Stadium. San Diego led 10-0 at the break after a dominating first two quarters in which they held the Chiefs to just 34 total yards and no first downs. The Chiefs rallied to get within three points late in the fourth quarter and had the ball with a chance to tie or take the lead, but Eric Weddle sealed the victory for the Chargers with an interception at the Bolts' 49-yard line and just 55 seconds left, allowing the offense to take a couple of kneel-downs to close out the win.

Ryan Mathews tallied a career-high 149 yards of total offense...he had 98 yards rushing and two rushing touchdowns, his most in a game at Qualcomm Stadium.

Nick Novak made his first field goal as Charger from 35 yards in the second quarter...it was his first field goal in an NFL regular-season game since Oct. 19, 2008 (with the Chiefs)...he later added a 41-yarder to go 2-for-2 on the day.

Eric Weddle's fourth-quarter interception with 55 seconds left sealed the victory...it was the Chargers' first of the season by a member of the team's secondary.

Randy McMichael started for Antonio Gates (foot) and had two key third-down catches on team's first touchdown drive...he also ignited third-quarter touchdown drive with game-long 26-yard catch on first play.

Patrick Crayton played his first game of season after recovering from ankle surgery and tied for team high with five catches, including third-down catch on opening touchdown drive and 23-yard catch of fourth quarter field goal drive that provided final scoring margin in 20-17 win.

Antwan Barnes set up second-quarter field goal drive for 10-0 lead with sack and forced fumble on third-down play to force a Kansas City punt...was team's only sack.

Quentin Jammer (hamstring) and Jacques Cesaire (knee) both left the game injured and did not return...Marcus Gilchrist saw his first-career regular-season action at cornerback in place of Jammer.

Week 4 vs. Miami

The Chargers matched their best start since 2006 (3-1) by defeating the Miami Dolphins, 26-16. For the second week in a row, a late fourth quarter interception by Eric Weddle helped seal the opponents' fate. The Chargers fell behind early, 7-0, but tied the game on a long pass from Philip Rivers to Vincent Jackson and the Chargers never trailed again.

Marcus Gilchrist

Marcus Gilchrist started his first-ever game and recorded his first career NFL interception on the first pass thrown in his direction in the first quarter...Gilchrist later broke up a pass in the end zone in the third quarter that prevented a Dolphins touchdown and forced a field goal try.

Shaun Phillips and Donald Butler both pressured Dolphins quarterback Chad Henne on Gilchrist's interception with Butler getting a hit on Henne...Butler finished the game with two tackles for loss and two quarterback hits.

Vincent Jackson had a 55-yard touchdown catch in the first quarter and in doing so, moved past Ronnie Harmon (3,928) and LaDainian Tomlinson (3,955) and into ninth place on the Chargers' all-time receiving yardage list...on the Chargers' first field goal drive of the second quarter, Jackson caught a 42-yard pass...on that catch, he went over 100 yards for the game and 4,000 yards for his career...Jackson finished the game with three catches for 108 yards, his second 100-yard game of 2011.

Vincent Brown's first NFL catch went for a first down on a 3rd-and-2 in the second quarter...it helped sustain a field goal drive...his only other catch went for 20 yards on a 3rd-and-15 to help keep alive a third-quarter touchdown drive.

Nick Novak tied his career high with four field goals, hitting from 27, 48, 23 and 38 yards...the only other time he hit four in a game was Sept. 28, 2008 against Denver when kicking for the Kansas City Chiefs.

Philip Rivers had his best statistical outing of the season, completing 21 of 31 (.677) for 307 yards with a touchdown and no interceptions. His rating was a season-high 110.6. It was also his first game of the season without an interception...Rivers was also fleet of foot, rushing for 15 yards to set up a late second-quarter field goal and for seven to help sustain a late fourth-quarter field goal drive.

Mike Tolbert scored the Chargers' second touchdown of the game for a 20-10 lead with a dive over the pile, outstretching the ball across the goal line for the score...he also ignited a late second-quarter field goal drive with catches of six, 19 and seven yards on first three plays...field goal gave Chargers 13-10 lead at half.

Larry English had a career-high two sacks.

Takeo Spikes had his first sack as a Charger.

Eric Weddle had his second-straight game-clinching interception with 2:53 left in the fourth quarter a week after picking off Kansas City's Matt Cassel with 55 seconds left in the final quarter.

Ryan Mathews had 149 yards of total offense for the second-consecutive week, including a career-long 42-yard catch-and-run on 2nd-and-18 during the Chargers' third-quarter touchdown drive.

Week 5 at Denver

The Chargers improved to 4-1 and picked up their first road win of 2011, hanging on for a 29-24 victory at Denver's Sports Authority Field. The Chargers led 23-10 at the half and dominated the Broncos statistically. Denver's lone touchdown came via a 55-yard interception return. Tim Tebow came on for an ineffective Kyle Orton in the second half and led the Broncos to a pair of fourth quarter touchdowns, but the Chargers' defense prevented a third in the game's final seconds as the Bolts hung on for the win.

Nick Novak

Nick Novak hit a career-high five field goals and was a perfect 5-for-5 on the day, including a career-long 51-yarder...Novak also forced touchbacks on seven of his eight kickoffs...his fifth field goal, a 35-yarder with 24 seconds left, gave the Chargers a five point lead and forced Denver to try and win the game with a touchdown.

Patrick Crayton ignited the Chargers' first field goal drive with a season-long 29-yard punt return.

Donald Butler intercepted his first NFL pass off Kyle Orton in the first quarter...Shaun Phillips helped force the interception by pressuring Orton.

Ryan Mathews rushed for a career-high 125 yards and set up a late first quarter field goal with a career-long 36-yard run...it was Mathews' second-career 100-yard game, with both coming in Denver's Sports Authority Field.

Philip Rivers scored the Chargers' first touchdown of the game on a two-yard run in the second quarter...it was his third career rushing score and first since 2009...Kory Sperry helped set up the score with a 32-yard catch, his first of the season.

Malcom Floyd had 100 yards receiving on three catches and closed out the first half with a 42-yard TD catch to give the Bolts a 23-10 lead...late in the fourth quarter, Floyd's 38-yard catch on a 3rd-and-10 set up the field goal that gave the Chargers a 29-24 lead, forcing Denver to drive for a game-winning touchdown instead of a field goal.

Randy McMichael caught his 400th career pass early in the third quarter...he became the 27th tight end in NFL history to reach the 400-catch mark.

Antoine Cason made a huge play to break up a pass to Brandon Lloyd in the end zone on a two-point conversion attempt after Denver scored to get within 26-24 with 3:30 left in the fourth quarter.

Jacob Hester rushed for a career-best 47 yards on a career-high 11 carries, taking over as the team's primary ballcarrier after Ryan Mathews (calf) and Mike Tolbert (concussion) both were forced from the game with injuries.

Dante Hughes got a hand in to help break up the pass on Denver's Hail Mary into the end zone on the last play of the game.

Week 7 at New York Jets

The Chargers could not hold on to an 11-point first half lead as New York rallied for 17 points in the second half en route to a 27-21 win over the Chargers at Met Life Stadium. The Jets took advantage of two Philip Rivers interceptions in the fourth quarter, one of which came off a tipped pass, leading to all 10 of the Jets' fourth-quarter points.

Phillips

Donald Butler scored a touchdown on the game's opening drive, stripping the Jets' Dustin Keller after a catch and returning the fumble 37 yards for a score...Takeo Spikes showed tremendous effort on the play, hitting quarterback Mark Sanchez in the pocket as he threw and then getting up and running downfield to hit Keller while he was chasing Butler down the sideline.

Eric Weddle intercepted Sanchez at the goal line late in the first quarter, setting up a touchdown drive that gave the Chargers a 14-3 lead...Weddle's pick came just after defensive Corey Liuget negated a 23-yard touchdown pass to Santonio Holmes by drawing an offensive holding penalty.

Antonio Gates gave the Chargers the 14-3 lead with a two-yard touchdown catch early in the second quarter...it was his 70th-career TD catch making he and Atlanta's Tony Gonzalez the only two tight ends in NFL history with at least 70 scoring catches...Gates finished the game with five catches (542 career) and moved past Kellen Winslow (541) for the second-most catches in team history.

Mike Tolbert gave the Chargers a 21-10 lead on a one-yard TD run in the second quarter...he also had a season-long 29-yard run during the drive...Malcom Floyd also aided the drive with a 28-yard, leaping one-handed catch on a 3rd-and-1.

Shaun Phillips had a season-high two sacks and led the team with three hits on Jets quarterback Mark Sanchez...his second sack late in the fourth quarter helped hold the Jets to a field goal to keep it a one-possession game.

Randy McMichael had a season-long 30-yard catch on a fourth-quarter 3rd-and-10.

Week 8 at Kansas City Chiefs

The Chargers dropped a heartbreaker to the Chiefs on ESPN's Monday Night Football, falling in overtime, 23-20. The Chargers trailed nearly the entire night and by as many as 10 points, but a touchdown and two-point conversion tied the game at 20-20 with 7:11 left in the fourth quarter. After a defensive three-and-out, the Chargers had the ball and were driving for a potential game-winning score when Philip Rivers fumbled a snap deep in Chiefs territory with less than a minute remaining. The game went to overtime and the Chargers won the coin toss and took possession, but a Tamba Hali sack contributed to a three-and-out by the Chargers on their first possession. Kansas City made the Bolts pay, driving 69 plays in 14 yards and Ryan Succop won the game on a 30-yard field goal 9:44 into the extra session.

Eric Weddle had a career-high two interceptions, both in the second half...the first led to a field goal that got the Chargers within 13-9 and the second forced the game into overtime.

Corey Liuget recorded his first-career forced fumble (Quentin Jammer recovered) and Travis LaBoy had his first sack as a Charger, forcing a fumble as well on the play, which was recovered by Dante Hughes...LaBoy also ended a second-quarter Kansas City drive with a two-yard tackle for loss on a 3rd-and-19.

Nick Novak hit four field goals against the Chiefs, including three of over 40 yards (44, 44 and 42)...his lone miss, a 52-yarder in the second quarter, ended a string of 12-straight to start the season...he bounced back from the miss with three second-half makes.

Antwan Barnes started for an injured Shaun Phillips and his six-yard sack on a 3rd-and-9 on the first series of the third quarter closed out a Chiefs three-and-out.

In the third quarter, Na'il Diggs contributed to a three-and-out with a four-yard tackle for loss on first down, followed by an eight-yard Cam Thomas sack on second down...the offense answered the three-and-out with another field goal to get within one point of the Chiefs (13-12).

Brinkley

Seeing extended time for a banged up Ryan Mathews, Curtis Brinkley scored his first-career touchdown on a two-yard dive over the pile and his two-point conversion catch at the goal line tied the game at 20-20 with 7:11 remaining in the fourth quarter...both plays survived instant replay challenges...Brinkley set up the touchdown with a 20-yard over-the-shoulder catch to the Chiefs' two...Philip Rivers had a key play on the drive, scrambling to stay alive on a 3rd-and-13 before hitting Vincent Jackson for 27 yards and a first down.

Tommie Harris gave the Chargers a shot at a late game-winning drive as his one-yard tackle for loss on a 3rd-and-1 with 5:56 left forced a Kansas City punt.

Tyrone Green started at right guard for Kris Dielman (concussion).

Week 9 vs. Green Bay Packers

The Chargers hosted the defending Super Bowl Champions in front of the third-largest home crowd in franchise history and the Chargers fought the champs tooth-and-nail to the end before dropping a heartbreaking 45-38 defeat. Despite two interception returns for touchdowns by the Packers and a 21-point deficit in the fourth quarter, the Chargers rallied to get within seven points and had the ball at the end of the game in Packers' territory with a chance to tie and send the game to overtime, but an interception with 14 seconds left sealed the victory for Green Bay.

Jackson

The Chargers opened the game with a drive capped off with a 23-yard touchdown pass from Philip Rivers to Vincent Jackson...Rivers completed all three of his pass attempts on the drive, all three to Jackson, for 57 yards, including the score... it was the Chargers' first opening drive touchdown of the season.

Jackson finished the game with three touchdowns (tying his career high) and 141 yards on seven catches...his other three-touchdown game came against San Francisco Dec. 16, 2010 in Qualcomm Stadium...it was his 14th career 100-yard game.

With the three touchdowns, Jackson increased his career tally to 34 and he overtook Tony Martin (33) for ninth place on the team's all-time touchdown receptions list. With the 141 yards, Jackson increased his career tally to 4,261 and moved past Martin for eighth on the team's career receiving yardage list.

Rivers tied his career high with four touchdowns, his fourth-career 4-TD game...he finished the game with 385 yards, the fourth-highest in a game during his career.

Rivers also had the first three-interception game of his career, ending his NFL-record streak of games started at the start of a career without a three-interception game...it was the 90th start of Rivers' NFL career...the previous mark (57) was set by Hall of Fame QB Joe Montana.

Rookie wide receiver Vincent Brown set season highs with four catches and 79 yards, including a season-long 31-yard catch...on the touchdown drive in which the Chargers got within 45-31, Brown had a 20-yard catch and the 31-yarder, which came on a 3rd-and-2 play.

Mike Tolbert had a season-high 83 yards rushing and scored his sixth touchdown of the season, tying him with Jackson for the team lead.

Antwan Barnes tied his career high with two sacks...a would-be third sack was negated by a penalty away from the play late in the contest.

Richard Goodman set up the Chargers' second touchdown of the day with a career-long 42-yard kickoff return.

Nick Novak's 52-yard field goal in the second quarter was a career-long.

Darrell Stuckey had a solid game on special teams with an onside kick recovery after the Chargers got within 45-31 and then he had a shared special teams tackle with Marcus Gilchrist at the Packers' own eight-yard line after the Chargers had scored to climb within 45-38.

Week 10 vs. Oakland Raiders

Brown

The Chargers suffered yet another heartbreaking loss and gave up a share of the lead in the AFC West after falling to arch-rival Oakland, 24-17, in a Thursday night game at Qualcomm Stadium. The Chargers scored a field goal on their opening possession of the game, but then were silenced for the remainder of the half as the Raiders ran off 17 unanswered points. Oakland dominated the Chargers in first downs (13 to 3), total yards (293 to 65) and time of possession (19:35 to 10:25). The Chargers rallied with 14 points in the third quarter to climb back within seven, but Oakland held the Bolts at bay in the final period, closing out the victory with two late takeaways against the Chargers' offense.

Marcus Gilchrist helped put the Chargers on the board early in the game with a 40-yard return following a throwback from Patrick Crayton on a punt return.

Quentin Jammer ended Oakland's first two series with nice defensive plays, including a third-down pass breakup on the Raiders' first and a nice job defending Jacoby Ford on a fake punt attempt on the second.

Mike Scifres had his first touchback of the season, ending a string of 23-straight punts to start the season without one...the punt which ended the string was a 71-yarder that tied his career long.

Vincent Brown caught his first-career touchdown pass (30 yards) to open the third quarter...Crayton kept the drive alive with a 14-yard catch on a 3rd-and-10, followed by an 11-yarder...Antonio Gates also made a big catch for 22 yards on a 3rd-and-7...two series later, Brown had a second touchdown catch of 33 yards taken away by a controversial instant replay reversal.

Antwan Barnes' sack and forced fumble set up the Chargers' second TD of the game after Corey Liuget recovered...Jacob Hester caught a seven-yard scoring strike to make score 24-17 after Brown's touchdown catch was wiped out by instant replay...Mike Tolbert set up the touchdown with a 17-yard catch-and-run to the seven on 4th-and-1.

Paul Oliver gave the Chargers a shot at a game-tying drive with an interception off Carson Palmer deep in San Diego territory early in the fourth quarter.

Media Center at Chargers Park

The Media Center at Chargers Park is equipped with free wireless internet access. Parking is available outside the media center and there is plenty of workspace within. During the season, most Monday press conferences are held in the Media Center, along with conference calls from the opposing teams.

Chargers Media Website and Credential Requests

The San Diego Chargers have a media-only website, www.Chargersmedia.com. The website contains online credential application forms, the latest press releases, injury information, a link to download the team's Media Guide, as well as links to other related websites.

Credential requests must be submitted online from the Sports Director, Sports Editor or Photo Editor. Only media outlets covering ALL pre-season and regular-season games may apply for Season Credentials. Your application does NOT guarantee that you will receive either Season or Game-by-Game Credentials. For most weeks, credential requests are due one week prior to the game. Follow-up inquiries regarding single-game or season credentials may be made to Jennifer Rojas at (858) 874-4662 or via email at rojasj@chargers.nfl.com.

Game-Day Media Parking

Media attending Chargers home games have been assigned reserved areas to park at Qualcomm Stadium. Please refer to the map to your right or on the back of your assigned parking permit. Please remember you must park in your assigned area and display your parking permit at all times. As a reminder, parking is limited and is being provided as a courtesy to working media.

Media Entrance

All credentialed media must enter at Gate H and are subject to a search procedure. Please be prepared to open all cases and bags for inspection by stadium security personnel. All items will be inspected and tagged for security purposes. Please make sure your bags are identifiable and limit carry-in items to only what is necessary. Remove any security tags from prior games.
