A share of first place in the AFC West will be on the line on Halloween night when the 4-2 Chargers venture into Arrowhead Stadium to face the 3-3 Kansas City Chiefs on ESPN's Monday Night Football on Monday, Oct. 31 at 5:30 p.m. PDT. It's the second meeting between the Chargers and the Chiefs in the last six weeks. The Bolts won the first meeting, 20-17, on Sept. 25 in San Diego.

Dating back to 2010, the Chargers have won their last four AFC West games and dating back to 2007, the Chargers have won four of the last five AFC West titles. The Chiefs ended the Chargers' four-year reign in 2010.

Since the Chiefs' Week 3 loss to the Chargers, Kansas City has rattled off three-straight wins, including a 28-0 win over Oakland last Sunday in which they intercepted six Raiders passes. The Chargers will look to bounce back into the win column after a 27-21 loss to the New York Jets snapped a three-game win streak.

This week's game marks the second year in a row the Chargers and Chiefs will meet in Arrowhead Stadium on Monday Night Football. They kicked off the 2010 season as the second half of a MNF double-header in Kansas City. The game turned when a driving rainstorm moved through the area and the Chiefs won, 21-14. The Chargers bounced back from that loss with a convincing 31-0 win over the Chiefs in the rematch in San Diego in mid-December.

Mike Tirico will call the game for ESPN, while Jon Gruden and Ron Jaworski provide game analysis and Rachel Nichols reports from the sidelines.

Road Tested

Monday night marks the Chargers' third-straight road game. It's the team's longest stretch away from home since 2003 when the Bolts played three road games, followed by a neutral-site game against Miami that was shifted to Arizona due to wildfires in San Diego, and a fifth game in Chicago. The Chargers will return home from this week's trip to face the defending Super Bowl champion Green Bay Packers on Nov. 6 at Qualcomm Stadium. It will be San Diego's first home game since Oct. 2.

Series History

Next Monday night, the Chargers and Chiefs will meet for the 104th time since 1960. The series is deadlocked at 51-51-1. The Chargers have won two straight and seven of the last eight to even the series. Further, the Chargers have won three of the last four games played at Arrowhead Stadium.

The Chargers have shut the Chiefs out in eight of the last 10 quarters they've played. Including this year's Week 3 meeting, 45 games in the series have been decided by seven points or less.

Familiar Faces

Chargers kicker Nick Novak appeared in six games for the Chiefs in 2008. Tackle Jerome Clary went to Kansas State. Safety Darrell Stuckey is from Kansas City (Washington HS) and attended Kansas University. Linebacker Andrew Gachkar is from Overland Park, Kan. Familiar Faces, cont.

coordinator Greg Manusky was a linebacker and special teams standout in Kansas City from 1994-99. Strength and conditioning coach Jeff Hurd held that post for the Chiefs from 1998-06 and is a Fort Hays State (Kan.) alum. Assistant secondary coach Cris Dishman started at cornerback for the Chiefs in 1999. Wide receivers coach Charlie Joiner manned the same post for the Chiefs from 2001-07. Director of player personnel Jimmy Raye was an assistant-quality control coach for the Chiefs in 1995.

Chiefs defensive lineman Amon Gordon is from San Diego (Mira Mesa High). Other Chiefs players with ties to Southern California include quarterback Matt Cassel (Chatsworth, Calif. and USC), wide receiver Keary Colbert (Oxnard, Calif. and USC) and practice squad linebacker Justin Cole (Chino Hills). Assistant offensive line coach Pat Perles was a defensive assistant with the Los Angeles Rams from 1992-93.

Milestones

With 107 career wins, Norv Turner is tied with Ray "Buddy" Parker for 34th in NFL history, playoffs included. Turner can break the tie on Monday. John Madden is 33rd on the list with 112 career victories.

Vincent Jackson comes into Sunday's game with 4,071 career receiving yards, ninth in team history. He needs 114 to move past Tony Martin (4,184) into eighth place.

Jackson also ranks 10th in team annals with 31 touchdown catches and needs just three more to overtake Martin (33) for ninth.

Mike Tolbert (15) needs two rushing touchdowns to crack the Chargers' all-time Top 10 list. Currently Hank Bauer, Rod Bernstine, Dick Post and Clarence Williams (17) are tied in that position with the seventh most touchdowns in team history.

Nick Novak has made his first 11 field goal attempts. He needs three more without a miss to break the team record for consecutive made field goals at the start of a season (13) set by John Carney in 1993.

The Chargers have not missed a field goal in their first six games, including one by Mike Scifres in the 2011 season opener after Nate Kaeding got hurt. The Chargers haven't gone this far into the season without a missed field goal since 2005 when they made it to the seventh game without a miss.

Shaun Phillips is coming off his first multi-sack game of the season and now has 59.5 for his career. He's fourth in team history and needs six more to tie Lee Williams (65.5) for third.

Norv Turner

Norv Turner, whose teams have won three of the last four AFC Western Division Championships, has led one of the most successful eras in Chargers history.

Norv Turner

Named NFL Coach of the Year by USA Today in 2009, Turner's accomplishments from 2007-10 are among the best in franchise history. His 41 wins over the four-year stretch are second only to the team's 42 from 1978-81, and he and Don Coryell are tied for the most AFC West titles in a four-year period (three).

Turner's .643 winning percentage in the regular season (45-25) is the franchise's best, as is his combined .632 mark, including playoffs (48-28). He's tied with Coryell and Bobby Ross for the most playoff wins in team history (three). Turner has saved some of his best coaching for late in the season as evidenced by his 28-7 regular-season record after Nov. 1, including 17-2 in December and January.

In 2010, Turner's Chargers led the NFL in total offense and total defense. San Diego finished the season strong, winning seven of its last nine. The Chargers led the NFL in 2010 in total offense (395.6 ypg), average yards per play (6.1) and yards per pass play (8.7). They scored the second-most points in the NFL (441) and averaged 27.6 points per game, becoming the NFL's first team ever to average more than 25.0 points a game for seven consecutive seasons, including four-straight under Turner.

Turner faced one of the more challenging seasons of his NFL coaching career in 2010 as the Chargers' roster endured constant change throughout the season. Seventy-four different players appeared in at least one game for the Bolts, equaling Arizona's NFL record (2005) for the most players in a nonstrike season. In total, the Chargers made 109 roster moves between final cuts (Sept. 4) and the end of the regular season.

Despite the constant roster shuffling, the Chargers offense rarely wavered. At the end of the year, the Chargers were one of only two NFL teams to feature a quarterback with at least 30 touchdown passes, a running back with at least 10 rushing touchdowns and a receiver or tight end with at least 10 touchdown catches. It's a feat that had been achieved only one other time in franchise history (1981).

The Chargers' running game also showed significant progress in 2010. After falling to 31st among the league's 32 teams in 2009, the Chargers ranked 15th in 2010 and showing balance, they were the NFL's only team to register more than 4,500 yards through the air and 1,800 on the ground.

Noteworthy

Twenty-three of Vincent Jackson's 24 catches this season have gone for first downs. Jackson's 17.6 yards per catch average is fifth-best among the league's top 25 receivers.

This season, Jackson has three touchdowns in 24 catches, a score for every 8.0 times he catches a pass. Among active NFL receivers with at least 200 career catches, Jackson owns the second-highest touchdown-to-catch ratio (1 TD for every 7.61 receptions), trailing only Detroit's Calvin Johnson (1 TD for every 7.23 receptions). Antonio Gates (1-to-7.74) is third.

Mike Tolbert and Ryan Mathews have combined for 52 catches, second-most by any running back tandem in the NFL this season. Only New Orleans' Darren Sproles and Pierre Thomas (65) have combined for more.

Mathews is seventh in the NFL with 739 total yards from scrimmage this season and he's 12th with 452 rushing yards. He is on pace for over 1,205 yards rushing and a 1,971 total yards from scrimmage.

Mathews has three rushing touchdowns in his last two games against the Chiefs. Mathews has racked up 31 first downs this season, tied for ninth-most in the NFL.

Tolbert has been successful on all four of his third-and-one rushing attempts.

Philip Rivers, the Chargers' all-time leader for career completion percentage (63.8%), currently ranks fifth in the NFL (64.7%) in 2011.

Donald Butler has a takeaway in each of the Chargers' last two games. Butler had his first career interception Oct. 9 at Denver and followed that up with a forced fumble and 37-yard fumble return for a touchdown Dec. 23 in New York.

Eric Weddle is tied for fifth in the NFL with three interceptions.

As a team, the Chargers rank second in the NFL in third-down conversion rate (55.4%) and fourth in first downs per game (24.0).

The Head Coaches

Todd Haley is in his third season as head coach of the Chiefs. He was so-named by Chiefs Chairman and CEO Clark Hunt and General Manager Scott Pioli on Feb. 6, 2009.

Todd Haley

The second-youngest head coach in franchise history (44), Haley consistently pushes his players with a passionate and demanding approach.

Haley is in his 17th NFL season in 2011 and his 15th campaign as a coach in the league. Haley began his professional career as a scouting assistant with the N.Y. Jets in '95. Haley is one of five current NFL head coaches who at one time served as an assistant under Bill Parcells, working six seasons with the highly-respected coach with the New York Jets from 1997-99 and in Dallas from 2004-06. Haley's NFL coaching career includes stops in Arizona (2007-08), Dallas (2004-06), Chicago (2001-03) and the N.Y. Jets ('97-00), earning playoff berths with all four of those franchises.

In 2010, Haley's second season as head coach, the Chiefs completed the greatest single-season turnaround in franchise history. Kansas City added six more victories to the win column than in 2009 and earned the club's first AFC West Division crown since 2003 with a 10-6 record. The 2010 Chiefs reached the postseason for the first time since 2006 and hosted their first playoff game at Arrowhead since the 2003 season. Following the club's highest win total since 2005, Haley was named the 101 AFC Coach of the Year voted on by national media members. Haley also captured the NFL Alumni Coach of the Year award as voted on by former players and coaches.

In Haley's well-balanced offense, the Chiefs won the NFL's rushing title in 2010, racking up 2,627 yards on 556 carries (164.2 ypg). The Chiefs also threw 27 touchdown passes in 2010, tying for the seventh-highest total in franchise history. Kansas City's defense allowed a stout 20.4 points per game and forced 23 takeaways in '10, helping the club finish +9 in turnover differential. The Chiefs defense gave up only 34 TD drives on the season, 12th-fewest in the NFL.

In Haley's first season with the club, the Chiefs made significant progress in all three phases of the game and improved in 30 different statistical categories, laying the foundation for a bright future.

Born in 1967 in Atlanta, Georgia, Haley attended Upper St. Clair High School in Pittsburgh. He played golf at Florida and Miami and earned a degree in communications from the University of North Florida in '91.

They said it

Philip Rivers speaking of Ryan Mathews and the Chargers' depleted running back corps during the Oct. 9 game at Denver — "It's a good group. Ryan [Mathews] battled. I told him, 'If you can give us 30 more minutes, we'll give you a week off.' He fought all he could. Obviously [Mike] Tolbert couldn't return, but we found a way to win. That's something we've been saying around here. Just find a way to win."

Takeo Spikes on Raiders coach Hue Jackson's prediction that the Raiders would win the AFC West in 2011 — "I would hope he would think like that. That's the reason we're in this profession. We think like that over here too, but ... we understand that we're not going to direct our attention toward that. We don't play Oakland this week. We play Denver, and the only number in our mind is four, trying to get that fourth win before the bye week."

Kris Dielman about Norv Turner's preminion to the team of a game-clinching 15-play drive Oct. 2 vs. Miami — "I mean, that was pretty crazy. That's what happened. It seems to happen a lot. (Stuff) that he says (will happen), happens a lot more than it doesn't."

Norv Turner

Mike Tolbert speaking of AFC West games after a Sept. 25 win vs. Kansas City — "Division games are always physical and tough. Nose-bleeders, so to speak. Whenever you get out there and just grind it out and go at it, it's a good feeling to come out on top."

Norv Turner assessing the Chargers' Sept. 25 win over Kansas City — "There's some guys that really aren't household names around here that have really stepped up and played for us in some situations where we needed them. A guy like Vaughn Martin, it's his second start ever... I thought he did a great job at defensive end replacing Luis (Castillo). I think Donald Butler probably had his best game. Marcus Gilchrist going in the game had really never played corner. He went in the game for (Quentin) Jammer and was outstanding. I mean, looked like a starting NFL corner. That was impressive to me... Randy McMichael stepped in for (Antonio) Gates and I can't say enough about him and what he brings to us because he does so much in our pass protection and then he catches four or five balls and big plays on third down. To see those guys step up, that means a lot to us because we need every guy."

Antonio Gates on Norv Turner — "There's a lot of coaches in this league that think it's about them. It's about their records, it's about what they need to accomplish, how many wins they need to get to increase their resume, etc., etc. One thing I feel I've figured out about Norv is (to him) it's just about enjoying what he does, going out and winning and having you be the best that you can be."

Patrick Crayton

Philip Rivers on Norv Turner — "Guys that have been around long enough to know, they know he cares about them. He knows football, he loves football and he's going to do everything he can to help you play your best football. They know what his passion is for. They know he's not a guy who's going to go, 'I told them.' He truly wants it -- not so he can get the credit, obviously. He doesn't care about getting any of the credit. But the guys who have been around him appreciate the way he goes about it -- the way he pops in the training room, the way he pops in the weight room, the way he's around the meeting room. You see him. He's not a head coach that just hits the walk-thru, that you just see on the field, just going to call the plays. He truly knows guys."

Scott Mruzkowski on Philip Rivers "He's an offensive lineman playing quarterback. He's as competitive as we are. Every play he's super energetic, super ready to go. He has the most passion I've seen anybody have about the game. It's incredible."

Patrick Crayton on Philip Rivers — "It's the first away game, everyone dresses up. I see Philip, he's in Dockers, cowboy boots, baseball hat. I'm like, 'OK, he's ready to play ball.' There's no flash there. His being down to earth is critical. It trickles down. He doesn't separate himself from the rest of the locker room. You feel it."

Jacques Cesaire on Philip Rivers — "Philip is a bona fide NFL superstar and I don't think he's ever acted like an NFL superstar. Philip is Philip, who he is, his Piggly Wiggly shirts, and he comes to work with his lunch pail every day, and he works hard. ... Sometimes you look at yourself in the mirror, you think you work hard, but then you see Phillip and you're like, 'He works harder.' He is a cliché, like a walking cliché. Just to see how much of a leader he really is and how important he is to this team, you can ask anybody in this locker room who they think is the most fun person in the locker room and they'll tell you. He also ... is a competitor. He's a warrior and hates losing. And that's the mentality that we're building around here."

Mike Tolbert — "I'm more happy with the protection things than I am with the touchdowns. The touchdowns are great. I have fun doing that, obviously, because I dance. The protection, being able to pick up protections and see different things, being able to keep Philip (healthy), that's what I take pride in."

Steve Gregory on being an every-down player — "It's football. I've been playing it my whole life. I've always been the smallest guy. I've always hit the bigger guy."

Defensive line coach Don Johnson on defensive lineman Vaughn Martin — "Something that big moving that fast? Vaughn's like a Ford truck with Porsche quickness."

Special teams coach Rich Bisaccia — "I'd like to believe [special teams can make a difference]. We're kind of the glue that combines it all together. We don't have three downs. We have one down to make a play, and if we don't handle our job on that one play, it could be a deterrent to the entire game, or it can be a momentum-changer to the entire game."

Vincent Jackson on Quentin Jammer being one of the NFL's top cover cornerbacks — "He's always in great position and the fact that his interception numbers are not high, it means nothing to me. I don't think it means anything to any receiver in this league. If a guy is in your hip pocket and you're not catching the ball, it's tough whether it's intercepted or not."

First pitches

Several Chargers have been invited to throw out the first pitch before San Diego Padres games this year at Petco Park. On Sept. 2, Vincent Brown and Shareece Wright each threw out the first pitch before a game against the Colorado Rockies and on Sept. 24, Takeo Spikes threw out the first pitch before the Pads game against the Los Angeles Dodgers. Philip Rivers and Larry English have both thrown out first pitches in the past as Chargers.

Week 1 vs. Minnesota

The Chargers opened the season with a 24-17 win over the Vikings, overcoming a fourth-quarter deficit and scoring 17 unanswered points in the win. Philip Rivers passed for two touchdowns, including the game-winner to Mike Tolbert at 5:01 of the fourth quarter. San Diego's defense dominated the Vikings, holding them to just 187 yards of total offense and just 26 in the second half. After the Vikings' second touchdown of the game at 9:44 of the second quarter, they didn't manage to cross the 50-yard line into Chargers territory for the rest of the game. The Chargers finished the game with 31 first downs to the Vikings' 10, and possessed the ball for 37:17 to Minnesota's 22:43.

Norv Turner earned his 100th career regular-season win against the Vikings and received a game ball from the team in the locker room afterward.

Mike Scifres earned a game ball after taking over for an injured Nate Kaeding and scored his first-career NFL points, including a game-tying 40-yard field goal with 10:05 remaining in the fourth quarter...it tied the game at 17-17...Scifres' last made field goal in a live game (college or pro) was a 56-yard game-winner as time expired to give Western Illinois a 44-41 win over Northern Iowa in 2000 for a conference title...Scifres was also good on all three point-after attempts...Scifres also handled kickoffs and had two touchbacks...Kaeding suffered season-ending torn ligaments in his left knee on on the game's opening kickoff.

Antoine Cason had a game-high two passes defended...both came on third down plays to force Minnesota punts...the last gave the ball to the Chargers for the go-ahead touchdown drive.

Philip Rivers' 335 yards were his most ever in a season opener...it was his 21st career 300-yard game and the 13th time in his career that he led the Chargers back for a win when trailing in the fourth quarter.

Mike Tolbert scored a career-high three touchdowns, including a career-high two receiving touchdowns...Tolbert scored the game-winner for the Chargers on his second touchdown reception, a 19-yarder with 5:01 remaining in the fourth quarter...he became the third player in team history to have two touchdown catches and a rushing touchdown in the same game...his nine catches were a career high.

Antonio Gates caught eight passes to move into third place on the team's all-time receptions list with 537...he passed LaDainian Tomlinson (530) for third place.

Shaun Phillips made a great play on Minnesota's first offensive play of the game, tipping a Donovan McNabb pass in the air and intercepting it at the Vikings' six...it was his fifth-career interception and led to a Chargers touchdown three plays later to tie the game at 7-7.

Ryan Mathews had a career-high 73 yards receiving, including a career-long 37-yard catch. Antwan Barnes made two big plays in the second half...on the last play of the third quarter, his pressure on third-down helped force an incomplete pass and a punt...on the ensuing drive, Scifres kicked a 40-yard field goal to tie the game at 17-17...then late in the fourth quarter, Barnes' 10-yard sack on third-down capped off a three-and-out and the Chargers offense ran out the clock on the ensuing possession to close out the win.

Takeo Spikes received a game ball for his first game with the Chargers after leading the team with 13 tackles.

Corey Liuget had a team-high two tackles for loss in his first-career NFL game.

Week 2 at New England

The Chargers lost a heartbreaker to the Patriots, falling by a 35-21 score at Gillette Stadium in Foxborough. San Diego turned the ball over four times leading to 10 Patriots points, including a fourth-quarter fumble just three plays after stopping the Patriots on downs near midfield in a six-point game. The Patriots answered with a touchdown and two-point conversion to stretch their lead to 14. Tom Brady was nearly flawless for New England, completing 31 of 40 (77.5%) for 423 yards with three touchdowns and no interceptions.

Vincent Jackson

Philip Rivers went over 20,000 career passing yards on his first completion of the game, a 29-yard pass to Vincent Jackson...Rivers finished the game 9 of 11 for 139 yards and a touchdown on third down.

Jackson had a monster day, setting new career highs with 10 catches and 172 yards, and catching two fourth-quarter touchdown passes (3 and 26 yards)...helped keep second touchdown drive alive with 14-yard catch on 3rd-and-10.

Malcom Floyd set up Chargers' first touchdown of game with 23-yard catch on 3rd-and-5, followed by 36-yarder to 10 on 3rd-and-4...injured groin on second catch and did not play rest of game.

Week 3 vs. Kansas City

The Chargers didn't trail the entire afternoon and withstood a furious comeback effort by Kansas City in defeating the Chiefs, 20-17, at Qualcomm Stadium. San Diego led 10-0 at the break after a dominating first two quarters in which they held the Chiefs to just 34 total yards and no first downs. The Chiefs rallied to get within three points late in the fourth quarter and had the ball with a chance to tie or take the lead, but Eric Weddle sealed the victory for the Chargers with an interception at the Bolts' 49-yard line and just 55 seconds left, allowing the offense to take a couple of kneel-downs to close out the win.

Ryan Mathews tallied a career-high 149 yards of total offense...he had 98 yards rushing and two rushing touchdowns, his most in a game at Qualcomm Stadium.

Nick Novak made his first field goal as Charger from 35 yards in the second quarter...it was his first field goal in an NFL regular-season game since Oct. 19, 2008 (with the Chiefs)...he later added a 41-yarder to go 2-for-2 on the day.

Eric Weddle's fourth-quarter interception with 55 seconds left sealed the victory...it was the Chargers' first of the season by a member of the team's secondary.

Randy McMichael started for Antonio Gates (foot) and had two key third-down catches on team's first touchdown drive...he also ignited third-quarter touchdown drive with game-long 26-yard catch on first play.

Patrick Crayton played his first game of season after recovering from ankle surgery and tied for team high with five catches, including third-down catch on opening touchdown drive and 23-yard catch of fourth quarter field goal drive that provided final scoring margin in 20-17 win.

Antwan Barnes set up second-quarter field goal drive for 10-0 lead with sack and forced fumble on third-down play to force a Kansas City punt...was team's only sack.

Quentin Jammer (hamstring) and Jacques Cesaire (knee) both left the game injured and did not return...Marcus Gilchrist saw his first-career regular-season action at cornerback in place of Jammer.

Week 4 vs. Miami

The Chargers matched their best start since 2006 (3-1) by defeating the Miami Dolphins, 26-16. For the second week in a row, a late fourth quarter interception by Eric Weddle helped seal the opponents' fate. The Chargers fell behind early, 7-0, but tied the game on a long pass from Philip Rivers to Vincent Jackson and the Chargers never trailed again.

Marcus Gilchrist

Marcus Gilchrist started his first-ever game and recorded his first career NFL interception on the first pass thrown in his direction in the first quarter...Gilchrist later broke up a pass in the end zone in the third quarter that prevented a Dolphins touchdown and forced a field goal try.

Shaun Phillips and Donald Butler both pressured Dolphins quarterback Chad Henne on Gilchrist's interception with Butler getting a hit on Henne...Butler finished the game with two tackles for loss and two quarterback hits.

Vincent Jackson had a 55-yard touchdown catch in the first quarter and in doing so, moved past Ronnie Harmon (3,928) and LaDainian Tomlinson (3,955) and into ninth place on the Chargers' all-time receiving yardage list...on the Chargers' first field goal drive of the second quarter, Jackson caught a 42-yard pass...on that catch, he went over 100 yards for the game and 4,000 yards for his career...Jackson finished the game with three catches for 108 yards, his second 100-yard game of 2011.

Vincent Brown's first NFL catch went for a first down on a 3rd-and-2 in the second quarter...it helped sustain a field goal drive...his only other catch went for 20 yards on a 3rd-and-15 to help keep alive a third-quarter touchdown drive.

Nick Novak tied his career high with four field goals, hitting from 27, 48, 23 and 38 yards...the only other time he hit four in a game was Sept. 28, 2008 against Denver when kicking for the Kansas City Chiefs.

Philip Rivers had his best statistical outing of the season, completing 21 of 31 (.677) for 307 yards with a touchdown and no interceptions. His rating was a season-high 110.6. It was also his first game of the season without an interception...Rivers was also fleet of foot, rushing for 15 yards to set up a late second-quarter field goal and for seven to help sustain a late fourth-quarter field goal drive.

Mike Tolbert scored the Chargers' second touchdown of the game for a 20-10 lead with a dive over the pile, outstretching the ball across the goal line for the score...he also ignited a late second-quarter field goal drive with catches of six, 19 and seven yards on first three plays...field goal gave Chargers 13-10 lead at half.

Larry English had a career-high two sacks.

Takeo Spikes had his first sack as a Charger.

Eric Weddle had his second-straight game-clinching interception with 2:53 left in the fourth quarter a week after picking off Kansas City's Matt Cassel with 55 seconds left in the final quarter.

Ryan Mathews had 149 yards of total offense for the second-consecutive week, including a career-long 42-yard catch-and-run on 2nd-and-18 during the Chargers' third-quarter touchdown drive.

Week 5 at Denver

The Chargers improved to 4-1 and picked up their first road win of 2011, hanging on for a 29-24 victory at Denver's Sports Authority Field. The Chargers led 23-10 at the half and dominated the Broncos statistically. Denver's lone touchdown came via a 55-yard interception return. Tim Tebow came on for an ineffective Kyle Orton in the second half and led the Broncos to a pair of fourth quarter touchdowns, but the Chargers' defense prevented a third in the game's final seconds as the Bolts hung on for the win.

Nick Novak

Nick Novak hit a career-high five field goals and was a perfect 5-for-5 on the day, including a career-long 51-yarder...Novak also forced touchbacks on seven of his eight kickoffs...his fifth field goal, a 35-yarder with 24 seconds left, gave the Chargers a five point lead and forced Denver to try and win the game with a touchdown.

Patrick Crayton ignited the Chargers' first field goal drive with a season-long 29-yard punt return.

Donald Butler intercepted his first NFL pass off Kyle Orton in the first quarter...Shaun Phillips helped force the interception by pressuring Orton.

Ryan Mathews rushed for a career-high 125 yards and set up a late first quarter field goal with a career-long 36-yard run...it was Mathews' second-career 100-yard game, with both coming in Denver's Sports Authority Field.

Philip Rivers scored the Chargers' first touchdown of the game on a two-yard run in the second quarter...it was his third career rushing score and first since 2009...Kory Sperry helped set up the score with a 32-yard catch, his first of the season.

Malcom Floyd had 100 yards receiving on three catches and closed out the first half with a 42-yard TD catch to give the Bolts a 23-10 lead...late in the fourth quarter, Floyd's 38-yard catch on a 3rd-and-10 set up the field goal that gave the Chargers a 29-24 lead, forcing Denver to drive for a game-winning touchdown instead of a field goal.

Randy McMichael caught his 400th career pass early in the third quarter...he became the 27th tight end in NFL history to reach the 400-catch mark.

Antoine Cason made a huge play to break up a pass to Brandon Lloyd in the end zone on a two-point conversion attempt after Denver scored to get within 26-24 with 3:30 left in the fourth quarter.

Jacob Hester rushed for a career-best 47 yards on a career-high 11 carries, taking over as the team's primary ballcarrier after Ryan Mathews (calf) and Mike Tolbert (concussion) both were forced from the game with injuries.

Dante Hughes got a hand in to help break up the pass on Denver's Hail Mary into the end zone on the last play of the game.

Week 7 at New York Jets

The Chargers could not hold on to an 11-point first half lead as New York rallied for 17 points in the second half en route to a 27-21 win over the Chargers at Met Life Stadium. The Jets took advantage of two Philip Rivers interceptions in the fourth quarter, one of which came off a tipped pass, leading to all 10 of the Jets' fourth-quarter points.

Phillips

Donald Butler scored a touchdown on the game's opening drive, stripping the Jets' Dustin Keller after a catch and returning the fumble 37 yards for a score...Takeo Spikes showed tremendous effort on the play, hitting quarterback Mark Sanchez in the pocket as he threw and then getting up and running downfield to hit Keller while he was chasing Butler down the sideline.

Eric Weddle intercepted Sanchez at the goal line late in the first quarter, setting up a touchdown drive that gave the Chargers a 14-3 lead...Weddle's pick came just after defensive Corey Liuget negated a 23-yard touchdown pass to Santonio Holmes by drawing an offensive holding penalty.

Antonio Gates gave the Chargers the 14-3 lead with a two-yard touchdown catch early in the second quarter...it was his 70th-career TD catch making he and Atlanta's Tony Gonzalez the only two tight ends in NFL history with at least 70 scoring catches...Gates finished the game with five catches (542 career) and moved past Kellen Winslow (541) for the second-most catches in team history.

Mike Tolbert gave the Chargers a 21-10 lead on a one-yard TD run in the second quarter...he also had a season-long 29-yard run during the drive...Malcom Floyd also aided the drive with a 28-yard, leaping one-handed catch on a 3rd-and-1.

Shaun Phillips had a season-high two sacks and led the team with three hits on Jets quarterback Mark Sanchez...his second sack late in the fourth quarter helped hold the Jets to a field goal to keep it a one-possession game.

Randy McMichael had a season-long 30-yard catch on a fourth-quarter 3rd-and-10.
