Winners of two-straight in convincing fashion, the Chargers now look to make it three in a row when they host one of the NFL's hottest teams, the 10-3 Baltimore Ravens, on NBC's Sunday Night Football. The game is set for Sunday, Dec. 18 at 5:30 p.m. PT in San Diego's temporarily-renamed Snapdragon Stadium.

Al Michaels and Cris Collinsworth will call the game from the broadcast booth, while Michele Tafoya reports from the field.

The Chargers, who picked up their 400th win in franchise history last Sunday, will look to even their record at 7-7, while also attempting to keep their postseason aspirations afloat. The Chargers have outscored their last two opponents (Jacksonville and Buffalo) by a combined 75-29. It should be quite a contest as the Chargers' eighth-ranked offense, led by quarterback Philip Rivers, faces a Ravens defense that ranks third in the NFL. The Ravens have won four in a row and six of their last seven.

With three games left to play, the Chargers find themselves third in the AFC West, two games behind Denver and a game behind Oakland.

Much of the Chargers' recent resurgence can be credited to the stability which has returned along the offensive line. In a four-week span, the Chargers lost the Pro Bowl left side of their offensive line to the "Reserve-Injured" list with guard Kris Dielman going on it Nov. 16 after sustaining a season-ending concussion Oct. 23 at the New York Jets and tackle Marcus McNeill going on the list Nov. 30 after suffering a season-ending neck injury Nov. 10 against Oakland. In addition, backup center Scott Mrczkowski went on the list on Nov. 25. The Chargers' offensive line for the last two weeks now features Jared Gaither at left tackle, Tyrone Green at left guard, Nick Hardwick at center, Louis Vasquez at right guard and Jerome Clary at right tackle. It has given up just one sack, helped the Chargers rush for 289 yards, and allowed Rivers time to complete 46 of 61 (75.4 pct) pass attempts for 534 yard with six touchdowns and no interceptions. Furthermore, running back Ryan Mathews has put up three-straight 100-yard games.

"Power Blues"

The Chargers will wear their "Power Blue" jerseys on Sunday night. When wearing them, the Chargers have won 11 of their last 14. Overall since the powder-blue color first reappeared in 1994 during the NFL's 75th Anniversary Season, Chargers have a 13-8 record in those colored jerseys. The team redesigned its uniform in 2007, introducing a new powder blue alternate uniform, and team is 8-3 in it since '07.

Series History

The Ravens lead the series, 4-3. Five of the seven meetings have been played in San Diego where the Chargers are 3-2.

Familiar Faces

Chargers linebacker Antwan Barnes was a fourth-round pick by the Ravens in 2007 and spent three seasons (2007-09) there. Tackle Jared Gaither was a fifth-round supplemental pick by Baltimore in 2007. He spent the 2007-10 seasons with the Ravens. Guard Tony Moll played for the Ravens from 2009-10. Kicker Nick Novak was an honorable mention All-ACC pick at the University of Maryland.

Ravens head coach John Harbaugh is the brother of former Chargers quarterback, Jim Harbaugh. Offensive coordinator Cam Cameron was the Chargers' offensive coordinator from 2002-06. Defensive coordinator Chuck Pagano is the brother of Chargers' linebackers coach John Pagano. Assistant strength coach John "Mother" Dunn was the Chargers' head strength coach from 1990-96. Assistant offensive line coach Todd Washington was an offensive line coach and offensive coordinator at the University of San Diego.

Nose tackle Brandon McKinney played for the Chargers from 2006-07. Running back Ricky Williams is from San Diego and graduated from Patrick Henry High. Other Ravens with Southern California ties include: linebacker Brendon Ayanbadejo (UCLA), tight ends Ed Dickson (Bellflower, Calif.) and Dennis Pitta (Moorpark, Calif.) and cornerback Jimmy Smith (Colton, Calif.).

Milestones to watch for

Ryan Mathews is 57 yards away from his first-career 1,000-yard season. He'd become the 10th player in team history to top 1,000 yards, joining LaDainian Tomlinson (8 times), Paul Lowe (2), Natron Means (1), Marion Butts (1), Gary Anderson (1), Earnest Jackson (1), Chuck Muncie (1), Don Woods (1) and Mike Garrett (1).

Mathews

Mathews has rushed for more than 100 yards in the last three-straight games. The last Chargers player to do so in four straight was Tomlinson in 2007.

Mathews has 1,363 total yards from scrimmage. He needs 137 more to become the 14th player in team history to reach 1,500 in a single season.

Mathews has a run of at least 30 yards in each of the Chargers' last three games...the last Charger with a run that long in four straight games was LaDainian Tomlinson in 2007.

Philip Rivers needs 255 passing yards for the fourth-straight 4,000-yard season of his career. It would be the most-consecutive 4,000-yard campaigns in team history, breaking a tie he currently shares with Dan Fouts (1979-81). In passing 4,000 yards, Rivers would also join Payton Manning (1999-04 and 2006-10) and Drew Brees (2006-11) as the only QBs in NFL history with at least four-straight 4,000-yard seasons. Rivers threw for 4,009 in 2008 — 4,254 in 2009 — and 4,710 in 2010.

Rivers

Rivers needs three more touchdown passes to reach 25 for the fourth-straight season. Already the team record-holder with three-straight 25-touchdown seasons, Rivers would become just the sixth signal-caller in NFL history with at least four straight, joining Payton Manning (1998-2010), Brett Favre (1994-98 & 2001-04), Dan Marino (1984-88), Drew Brees (2006-11) and Aaron Rodgers (2008-11).

Antonio Gates has 582 career catches, second in team history, and he needs 5 to overtake Charlie Joiner (586) for first.

Gates needs two touchdown catches to extend by another year his NFL record streak of seven-straight seasons with at least eight touchdown catches. Gates caught two scoring passes last Sunday against Buffalo, his fifth and sixth of the 2011 season. And Gates (75) needs six touchdown catches to match Lance Alworth's (81) team record.

Vincent Jackson needs two more touchdown catches to become the Chargers' first wide receiver with a 10-touchdown season since Tony Martin (14) in 1996.

Should Gates (6) and Jackson (8) both reach the 10-touchdown mark, it would be only the second time in team history (1968 — Lance Alworth-10 and Gary Garrison-10) that two Chargers had at least 10 touchdown catches in the same season.

Jackson (53) and Gates (53) each have more than 50 catches. Ryan Mathews (45) and Mike Tolbert (45) are each five away. Should Mathews and Tolbert join Jackson and Gates with at least 50, it would mark just the third time in team history (1984 and 2005) that four different players had at least 50 catches in a season.

Jackson (36) needs one touchdown catch to break his tie with John Jefferson for eighth in team history and move into a tie with Anthony Miller for seventh.

Jackson needs 48 receiving yards for his third-career 1,000-yard season.

Should Mathews and Jackson both reach 1,000 yards in rushing and receiving, respectively, it would mark just the seventh time in team history that there's been a 1,000-yard rusher and receiver — And if Rivers reaches 4,000 yards, it would mark just the third time in franchise history (1981 & 2008) that there's been a 4,000-yard passer, a 1,000-yard rusher and a 1,000-yard receiver.

Mike Tolbert (18) has the seventh-most rushing touchdowns in team history and needs just one more to catch No. 6 on that list, Tim Spencer (19).

Eric Weddle's team-leading seven interceptions are tied for the NFL lead and tied for the fourth-most in a season in team history. With one more, he'll move into a tie for the third-most (8) with Ryan McNeil (2001), Dick Harris (1963), Claude Gibson (1962) and Bob Zeman (1961). Antonio Cromartie holds the team's single-season record with 10.

Shaun Phillips has 59.5 career sacks. With his next one, Phillips will become the 92nd player since sacks became an official NFL stat (1982) to reach 60 sacks for a career. Phillips ranks fourth in team history and needs six more to tie Lee Williams (65.5) for third.

Mike Scifres is averaging 48.1 yards per punt this season on 43 attempts. He needs seven more (min. 50) to qualify for the team's single-season record for highest season average. Scifres set the current mark (46.7) last season on 52 punts and he's currently on pace to top that mark in 2011.

Nick Novak has hit 10 field goals of 40 yards-or-longer this season...several others in team history, including Nate Kaeding in 2010, have hit 10 from 40-or-longer in a season but nobody has ever kicked more.

Quentin Jammer is expected to play in his 154th career game Sunday, tying John Hadl (1962-72) and Walt Sweeney (1963-73) for the 10th most games played in team history.

The Chargers are just 76 points away from reaching 400, which would extend their NFL-record streak of consecutive 400-point seasons to eight.

Noteworthy

Norv Turner has led the Chargers to a 19-2 record in December and January.

The Chargers are one of just two teams (Houston) to rank in the NFL's Top 10 in total offense and defense. The Chargers rank eighth in both. After spending eight of the season's first nine weeks ranked in the top 10, the Chargers' defense dropped out for four weeks, but with two recent strong showings, the Bolts have returned to the Top 10.

The Chargers' defense shut out Buffalo in the first, second and fourth quarters last Sunday...including the second half of last Monday night's game in Jacksonville, the Bolts' D has pitched shutouts in five of its last six quarters played.

Philip Rivers, 22-2 as an NFL starter in December (including 11-1 at home), has the highest passer rating of all-time for the month (102.0). Thus far in two Dec. games, Rivers has continued his trend of excellence, completing 46 of 61 (75.4 pct) pass attempts for 534 yard with six touchdowns and no interceptions. For his career, Rivers has completed 453 of 713 (63.5%) for 5,754 yards with 46 TDs and just 14 INTs.

After throwing 17 interceptions in the Chargers' first 11 games, including one on his last throw in Week 11 at Chicago, Rivers has now gone three games without one...in the last three games, he's thrown seven touchdowns and no interceptions, while completing 65 of 97 (67.0%).

This is the first time in his career too that Rivers has thrown three touchdown passes in consecutive games without an interception.

Vincent Jackson has four 100-yard games this season. His career-high for 100-yard games in a season is six (2009).

Jackson this season qualified for the team's list for average yards per catch (min. 250 receptions). His career 17.4-yard average is third-highest in team history. Lance Alworth (19.4) and Gary Garrison (18.6) rank 1-2. Wes Chandler (16.4) is fourth.

Jackson

Jackson has 26 catches for 480 yards (18.5 avg.) and five scores in the Bolts' last six contests. For the season, he's 12th in the league with 952 yards receiving and his 18.0 season average is third-highest among the league's top 25 receiving yardage leaders. Forty-seven of Jackson's 53 catches this season have gone for first downs (or touchdowns), tied ninth-most in the league.

Jackson has a team-leading eight touchdowns on 53 catches this season, a score for every 6.63 times he catches a pass. Among active NFL receivers with at least 200 career catches, Jackson owns the highest touchdown-to-catch ratio (1 TD for every 7.36 receptions), ahead of Detroit's Calvin Johnson (1 TD for every 7.60 receptions) and teammate Antonio Gates (1-to-7.76).

Gates is coming off his first multi-touchdown game of the season and has four touchdowns in the Chargers' last four games. Jackson has five in the last five games.

Of Malcom Floyd's 25 catches this season, 24 have gone for first downs or touchdowns. Floyd has topped 100 yards in three of the last five games he's played in.

Ryan Mathews is tied for ninth in the NFL with 943 yards rushing, and combined with his 420 yards as a pass-catcher, he's seventh in the league with 1,363 total yards from scrimmage.

Mathews and Mike Tolbert have combined for 90 catches this season, second-most by any running back tandem in the NFL. Only New Orleans' Darren Sproles and Pierre Thomas (117) have combined for more.

Antwan Barnes leads the team with a career-high seven sacks.

Takeo Spikes had four tackles last Sunday to raise his season total to 100. It marks the second year in a row and the 11th time in his 14 seasons that Spikes has hit the century mark in stops.

Nick Novak has made 23 of his 28 field goal attempts, including three of longer than 50 yards and 10 of longer than 40 yards. It's an 82.1% clip and a significant improvement from his 63.3% career total prior to joining the Chargers. Novak has hit five field goals in a game once this season and four twice. His only misses this season are from 46, 48, 52, 53 and 55 yards.

Mike Scifres ranks fifth in the NFL in gross punting average (48.1), well above his career average of 44.5. He's also on pace to average a new career high for the season. His current season high is last season's 46.7-yard average.

Richard Goodman, in his first season as a kick returner, ranks eighth in the NFL with a 26.1 yards per return average.

The Head Coaches

Norv Turner, whose teams have won three of the last four AFC Western Division Championships, has led one of the most successful eras in Chargers history.

Norv Turner

Named NFL Coach of the Year by USA Today in 2009, Turner's accomplishments from 2007-10 are among the best in franchise history. His 41 wins over the four-year stretch are second only to the team's 42 from 1978-81, and he and Don Coryell are tied for the most AFC West titles in a four-year period (three).

Turner's .610 winning percentage in the regular season (47-30) is second in franchise history to Sid Gillman, and his combined .602 mark, including playoffs, (50-33) is first. Turner is tied with Coryell and Bobby Ross for the most playoff wins in team history (three). Turner's regular-season record in San Diego is 30-11 after Nov. 1 and he's 19-2 in December and January.

In 2010, Turner's Chargers led the NFL in total offense and total defense. San Diego finished the season strong, winning seven of its last nine. The Chargers led the NFL in 2010 in total offense (395.6 ypg), average yards per play (6.1) and yards per pass play (8.7). They scored the second-most points in the NFL (441) and averaged 27.6 points per game, becoming the NFL's first team ever to average more than 25.0 points a game for seven consecutive seasons, including four-straight under Turner.

Turner faced one of the more challenging seasons of his NFL coaching career in 2010 as the Chargers' roster endured constant change throughout the season. Seventy-four different players appeared in at least one game for the Bolts, equaling Arizona's NFL record (2005) for the most players in a nonstrike season. In total, the Chargers made 109 roster moves between final cuts (Sept. 4) and the end of the regular season.

Despite the constant roster shuffling, the Chargers offense rarely wavered. At the end of the year, the Chargers were one of only two NFL teams to feature a quarterback with at least 30 touchdown passes, a running back with at least 10 rushing touchdowns and a receiver or tight end with at least 10 touchdown catches. It's a feat that had been achieved only one other time in franchise history (1981).

The Chargers' running game also showed significant progress in 2010. After falling to 31st among the league's 32 teams in 2009, the Chargers ranked 15th in 2010 and showing balance, they were the NFL's only team to register more than 4,500 yards through the air and 1,800 on the ground.

27th NFL Season and 6th with Chargers (5th as Head Coach)
Career Regular-Season Record: 104-112-1
Career Playoff Record: 4-4
Career Record vs. Baltimore: 2-2
Career Record vs. John Harbaugh: 0-1

John Harbaugh is the only coach in NFL history to take over a team with a losing record (5-11) the previous season and then go to and win a playoff game in each of his first three seasons as head coach.

Harbaugh

With Harbaugh at the Ravens' helm, Baltimore is the only team to have won at least one playoff game in each of the past three postseasons — all coming on the road.

In Harbaugh's initial season (2008), the Ravens advanced to the AFC Championship game after winning at Miami (27-9) and at the AFC's top-seeded Tennessee, 13-10. Pittsburgh, the eventual Super Bowl champion, stopped the Ravens, 23-14, in the AFC title matchup. With the 13 total victories in '08, Harbaugh set the NFL record for the most wins ever by a rookie head coach starting a rookie quarterback (Joe Flacco).

In 2009, Baltimore dominated at New England, 33-14, in the Wild Card game before dropping a 20-3 contest at Super Bowl-bound Indianapolis in the Divisional Round. The victory at New England was the Patriots' first playoff loss at home since 1978.

After earning a 12-4 mark in 2010, the Ravens won at Kansas City (30-7) in the Wild Card playoffs before falling at Pittsburgh, 31-24, in the Divisional Round.

In 2010, Harbaugh and Flacco once again set an NFL record when they became the first quarterback-head coach duo to start their NFL careers at the same time and lead a team to the postseason in each of their first three seasons.

Harbaugh, a graduate of Miami (Ohio) — where he played defensive back — is from a football family. His father, Jack, is a 41-year coaching veteran who won the 2002 NCAA Division I-AA football championship as the head coach at Western Kentucky. His brother Jim, who was the Ravens' starting QB in 1998, played 14 seasons in the NFL and was named the San Francisco 49ers' head coach in January 2011. Their sister Joani is married to Indiana basketball coach Tom Crean.

As an assistant at the University of Pittsburgh in 1987, Harbaugh was mentored by legendary former Chargers coach Sid Gillman, a member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

Harbaugh earned a degree in political science at Miami (OH), where he won the Football Scholar Athlete Award. He then earned his master's in physical education at Western Michigan. John, who attended Ann Arbor (MI) Pioneer HS, his wife, Ingrid, and their daughter, Alison, live in Reisterstown, MD.

They said it

Takeo Spikes on the Chargers' history of strong finishes — "Everyone knows the history of the Chargers, they get hot late. I hate being in this position but, hey, this is the bed we made and we have to lay in it. But I tell you what. I'm proud of the guys for what we've been through."

Takeo Spikes on having fun playing — "You only have fun when you are winning. I hear a lot of football players say, 'Let's go have fun.' I never have fun (losing). You have fun when you put yourself in position to win."

Tommy Harris on staying the course during a tough stretch — "You're a man and are paid for this profession and to come to work and that's the end of the story. It's not about crying and making excuses, it's about getting up in the morning and going to work and getting ready for the next week."

Philip Rivers speaking of Ryan Mathews and the Chargers' depleted running back corps during the Oct. 9 game at Denver — "It's a good group. Ryan [Mathews] battled. I told him, 'If you can give us 30 more minutes, we'll give you a week off.' He fought all he could. Obviously [Mike] Tolbert couldn't return, but we found a way to win. That's something we've been saying around here. Just find a way to win."

Takeo Spikes on Raiders coach Hue Jackson's prediction that the Raiders would win the AFC West in 2011 — "I would hope he would think like that. That's the reason we're in this profession. We think like that over here too, but ... we understand that we're not going to direct our attention toward that. We don't play Oakland this week. We play Denver, and the only number in our mind is four, trying to get that fourth win before the bye week."

Kris Dielman about Norv Turner's preemption to the team of a game-clinching 15-play drive Oct. 2 vs. Miami — "I mean, that was pretty crazy. That's what happened. It seems to happen a lot. (Stuff) that he says (will happen), happens a lot more than it doesn't."

Mike Tolbert speaking of AFC West games after a Sept. 25 win vs. Kansas City — "Division games are always physical and tough. Nose-bleeders, so to speak. Whenever you get out there and just grind it out and go at it, it's a good feeling to come out on top."

Norv Turner assessing the Chargers' Sept. 25 win over Kansas City — "There's some guys that really aren't household names around here that have really stepped up and played for us in some situations where we needed them. A guy like Vaughn Martin, it's his second start ever... I thought he did a great job at defensive end replacing Luis (Castillo). I think Donald Butler probably had his best game. Marcus Gilchrist going in the game had really never played corner. He went in the game for (Quentin) Jammer and was outstanding. I mean, looked like a starting NFL corner. That was impressive to me... Randy McMichael stepped in for (Antonio) Gates and I can't say enough about him and what he brings to us because he does so much in our pass protection and then he catches four or five balls and big plays on third down. To see those guys step up, that means a lot to us because we need every guy."

Antonio Gates on Norv Turner — "There's a lot of coaches in this league that think it's about them. It's about their records, it's about what they need to accomplish, how many wins they need to get to increase their resume, etc., etc. One thing I feel I've figured out about Norv is (to him) it's just about enjoying what he does, going out and winning and having you be the best that you can be."

Philip Rivers on Norv Turner — "Guys that have been around long enough to know, they know he cares about them. He knows football, he loves football and he's going to do everything he can to help you play your best football. They know what his passion is for. They know he's not a guy who's going to go, 'I told them.' He truly wants it -- not so he can get the credit, obviously. He doesn't care about getting any of the credit. But the guys who have been around him appreciate the way he goes about it -- the way he pops in the training room, the way he pops in the weight room, the way he's around the meeting room. You see him. He's not a head coach that just hits the walk-thru, that you just see on the field, just going to call the plays. He truly knows guys."

Scott Mruzkowski on Philip Rivers "He's an offensive lineman playing quarterback. He's as competitive as we are. Every play he's super energetic, super ready to go. He has the most passion I've seen anybody have about the game. It's incredible."

Patrick Crayton on Philip Rivers — "It's the first away game, everyone dresses up. I see Philip, he's in Dockers, cowboy boots, baseball hat. I'm like, 'OK, he's ready to play ball.' There's no flash there. His being down to earth is critical. It trickles down. He doesn't separate himself from the rest of the locker room. You feel it."

Jacques Cesaire on Philip Rivers — "Philip is a bona fide NFL superstar and I don't think he's ever acted like an NFL superstar. Philip is Philip, who he is, his Piggly Wiggly shirts, and he comes to work with his lunch pail every day, and he works hard. ... Sometimes you look at yourself in the mirror, you think you work hard, but then you see Phillip and you're like, 'He works harder.' He is a cliché, like a walking cliché. Just to see how much of a leader he really is and how important he is to this team, you can ask anybody in this locker room who they think is the most fun person in the locker room and they'll tell you. He also ... is a competitor. He's a warrior and hates losing. And that's the mentality that we're building around here."

Mike Tolbert — "I'm more happy with the protection things than I am with the touchdowns. The touchdowns are great. I have fun doing that, obviously, because I dance. The protection, being able to pick up protections and see different things, being able to keep Philip (healthy), that's what I take pride in."

Steve Gregory on being an every-down player — "It's football. I've been playing it my whole life. I've always been the smallest guy. I've always hit the bigger guy."

Defensive line coach Don Johnson on defensive lineman Vaughn Martin — "Something that big moving that fast? Vaughn's like a Ford truck with Porsche quickness."

Special teams coach Rich Bisaccia — "I'd like to believe [special teams can make a difference]. We're kind of the glue that combines it all together. We don't have three downs. We have one down to make a play, and if we don't handle our job on that one play, it could be a deterrent to the entire game, or it can be a momentum-changer to the entire game."

Vincent Jackson on Quentin Jammer being one of the NFL's top cover cornerbacks — "He's always in great position and the fact that his interception numbers are not high, it means nothing to me. I don't think it means anything to any receiver in this league. If a guy is in your hip pocket and you're not catching the ball, it's tough whether it's intercepted or not."

Week 1 vs. Minnesota

The Chargers opened the season with a 24-17 win over the Vikings, overcoming a fourth-quarter deficit and scoring 17 unanswered points in the win. Philip Rivers passed for two touchdowns, including the game-winner to Mike Tolbert at 5:01 of the fourth quarter. San Diego's defense dominated the Vikings, holding them to just 187 yards of total offense and just 26 in the second half. After the Vikings' second touchdown of the game at 9:44 of the second quarter, they didn't manage to cross the 50-yard line into Chargers territory for the rest of the game. The Chargers finished the game with 31 first downs to the Vikings' 10, and possessed the ball for 37:17 to Minnesota's 22:43.

Norv Turner earned his 100th career regular-season win against the Vikings and received a game ball from the team in the locker room afterward.

Mike Scifres earned a game ball after taking over for an injured Nate Kaeding and scored his first-career NFL points, including a game-tying 40-yard field goal with 10:05 remaining in the fourth quarter...it tied the game at 17-17...Scifres' last made field goal in a live game (college or pro) was a 56-yard game-winner as time expired to give Western Illinois a 44-41 win over Northern Iowa in 2000 for a conference title...Scifres was also good on all three point-after attempts...Scifres also handled kickoffs and had two touchbacks...Kaeding suffered season-ending torn ligaments in his left knee on on the game's opening kickoff.

Antoine Cason had a game-high two passes defended...both came on third down plays to force Minnesota punts...the last gave the ball to the Chargers for the go-ahead touchdown drive.

Philip Rivers' 335 yards were his most ever in a season opener...it was his 21st career 300-yard game and the 13th time in his career that he led the Chargers back for a win when trailing in the fourth quarter.

Mike Tolbert scored a career-high three touchdowns, including a career-high two receiving touchdowns...Tolbert scored the game-winner for the Chargers on his second touchdown reception, a 19-yarder with 5:01 remaining in the fourth quarter... he became the third player in team history to have two touchdown catches and a rushing touchdown in the same game...his nine catches were a career high.

Antonio Gates caught eight passes to move into third place on the team's all-time receptions list with 537...he passed LaDainian Tomlinson (530) for third place.

Shaun Phillips made a great play on Minnesota's first offensive play of the game, tipping a Donovan McNabb pass in the air and intercepting it at the Vikings' six...it was his fifth-career interception and led to a Chargers touchdown three plays later to tie the game at 7-7.

Ryan Mathews had a career-high 73 yards receiving, including a career-long 37-yard catch. Antwan Barnes made two big plays in the second half...on the last play of the third quarter, his pressure on third-down helped force an incomplete pass and a punt...on the ensuing drive, Scifres kicked a 40-yard field goal to tie the game at 17-17...then late in the fourth quarter, Barnes' 10-yard sack on third-down capped off a three-and-out and the Chargers offense ran out the clock on the ensuing possession to close out the win.

Takeo Spikes received a game ball for his first game with the Chargers after leading the team with 13 tackles.

Corey Liuget had a team-high two tackles for loss in his first-career NFL game.

Week 2 at New England

The Chargers lost a heartbreaker to the Patriots, falling by a 35-21 score at Gillette Stadium in Foxborough. San Diego turned the ball over four times leading to 10 Patriots points, including a fourth-quarter fumble just three plays after stopping the Patriots on downs near midfield in a six-point game. The Patriots answered with a touchdown and two-point conversion to stretch their lead to 14. Tom Brady was nearly flawless for New England, completing 31 of 40 (77.5%) for 423 yards with three touchdowns and no interceptions.

Vincent Jackson

Philip Rivers went over 20,000 career passing yards on his first completion of the game, a 29-yard pass to Vincent Jackson...Rivers finished the game 9 of 11 for 139 yards and a touchdown on third down.

Jackson had a monster day, setting new career highs with 10 catches and 172 yards, and catching two fourth-quarter touchdown passes (3 and 26 yards)...helped keep second touchdown drive alive with 14-yard catch on 3rd-and-10.

Malcom Floyd set up Chargers' first touchdown of game with 23-yard catch on 3rd-and-5, followed by 36-yarder to 10 on 3rd-and-4...injured groin on second catch and did not play rest of game.

Week 3 vs. Kansas City

The Chargers didn't trail the entire afternoon and withstood a furious comeback effort by Kansas City in defeating the Chiefs, 20-17, at Qualcomm Stadium. San Diego led 10-0 at the break after a dominating first two quarters in which they held the Chiefs to just 34 total yards and no first downs. The Chiefs rallied to get within three points late in the fourth quarter and had the ball with a chance to tie or take the lead, but Eric Weddle sealed the victory for the Chargers with an interception at the Bolts' 49-yard line and just 55 seconds left, allowing the offense to take a couple of kneel-downs to close out the win.

Ryan Mathews tallied a career-high 149 yards of total offense...he had 98 yards rushing and two rushing touchdowns, his most in a game at Qualcomm Stadium.

Nick Novak made his first field goal as Charger from 35 yards in the second quarter...it was his first field goal in an NFL regular-season game since Oct. 19, 2008 (with the Chiefs)...he later added a 41-yarder to go 2-for-2 on the day.

Eric Weddle's fourth-quarter interception with 55 seconds left sealed the victory...it was the Chargers' first of the season by a member of the team's secondary.

Randy McMichael started for Antonio Gates (foot) and had two key third-down catches on team's first touchdown drive...he also ignited third-quarter touchdown drive with game-long 26-yard catch on first play.

Patrick Crayton played his first game of season after recovering from ankle surgery and tied for team high with five catches, including third-down catch on opening touchdown drive and 23-yard catch of fourth quarter field goal drive that provided final scoring margin in 20-17 win.

Antwan Barnes set up second-quarter field goal drive for 10-0 lead with sack and forced fumble on third-down play to force a Kansas City punt...was team's only sack.

Quentin Jammer (hamstring) and Jacques Cesaire (knee) both left the game injured and did not return...Marcus Gilchrist saw his first-career regular-season action at cornerback in place of Jammer.

Week 4 vs. Miami

The Chargers matched their best start since 2006 (3-1) by defeating the Miami Dolphins, 26-16. For the second week in a row, a late fourth quarter interception by Eric Weddle helped seal the opponents' fate. The Chargers fell behind early, 7-0, but tied the game on a long pass from Philip Rivers to Vincent Jackson and the Chargers never trailed again.

Marcus Gilchrist

Marcus Gilchrist started his first-ever game and recorded his first career NFL interception on the first pass thrown in his direction in the first quarter...Gilchrist later broke up a pass in the end zone in the third quarter that prevented a Dolphins touchdown and forced a field goal try.

Shaun Phillips and Donald Butler both pressured Dolphins quarterback Chad Henne on Gilchrist's interception with Butler getting a hit on Henne...Butler finished the game with two tackles for loss and two quarterback hits.

Vincent Jackson had a 55-yard touchdown catch in the first quarter and in doing so, moved past Ronnie Harmon (3,928) and LaDainian Tomlinson (3,955) and into ninth place on the Chargers' all-time receiving yardage list...on the Chargers' first field goal drive of the second quarter, Jackson caught a 42-yard pass...on that catch, he went over 100 yards for the game and 4,000 yards for his career...Jackson finished the game with three catches for 108 yards, his second 100-yard game of 2011.

Vincent Brown's first NFL catch went for a first down on a 3rd-and-2 in the second quarter...it helped sustain a field goal drive...his only other catch went for 20 yards on a 3rd-and-15 to help keep alive a third-quarter touchdown drive.

Nick Novak tied his career high with four field goals, hitting from 27, 48, 23 and 38 yards...the only other time he hit four in a game was Sept. 28, 2008 against Denver when kicking for the Kansas City Chiefs.

Philip Rivers had his best statistical outing of the season, completing 21 of 31 (.677) for 307 yards with a touchdown and no interceptions. His rating was a season-high 110.6. It was also his first game of the season without an interception...Rivers was also fleet of foot, rushing for 15 yards to set up a late second-quarter field goal and for seven to help sustain a late fourth-quarter field goal drive.

Mike Tolbert scored the Chargers' second touchdown of the game for a 20-10 lead with a dive over the pile, outstretching the ball across the goal line for the score...he also ignited a late second-quarter field goal drive with catches of six, 19 and seven yards on first three plays...field goal gave Chargers 13-10 lead at half.

Larry English had a career-high two sacks.

Takeo Spikes had his first sack as a Charger.

Eric Weddle had his second-straight game-clinching interception with 2:53 left in the fourth quarter a week after picking off Kansas City's Matt Cassel with 55 seconds left in the final quarter.

Ryan Mathews had 149 yards of total offense for the second-consecutive week, including a career-long 42-yard catch-and-run on 2nd-and-18 during the Chargers' third-quarter touchdown drive.

Week 5 at Denver

The Chargers improved to 4-1 and picked up their first road win of 2011, hanging on for a 29-24 victory at Denver's Sports Authority Field. The Chargers led 23-10 at the half and dominated the Broncos statistically. Denver's lone touchdown came via a 55-yard interception return. Tim Tebow came on for an ineffective Kyle Orton in the second half and led the Broncos to a pair of fourth quarter touchdowns, but the Chargers' defense prevented a third in the game's final seconds as the Bolts hung on for the win.

Nick Novak

Nick Novak hit a career-high five field goals and was a perfect 5-for-5 on the day, including a career-long 51-yarder...Novak also forced touchbacks on seven of his eight kickoffs...his fifth field goal, a 35-yarder with 24 seconds left, gave the Chargers a five point lead and forced Denver to try and win the game with a touchdown.

Patrick Crayton ignited the Chargers' first field goal drive with a season-long 29-yard punt return.

Donald Butler intercepted his first NFL pass off Kyle Orton in the first quarter...Shaun Phillips helped force the interception by pressuring Orton.

Ryan Mathews rushed for a career-high 125 yards and set up a late first quarter field goal with a career-long 36-yard run...it was Mathews' second-career 100-yard game, with both coming in Denver's Sports Authority Field.

Philip Rivers scored the Chargers' first touchdown of the game on a two-yard run in the second quarter...it was his third career rushing score and first since 2009...Kory Sperry helped set up the score with a 32-yard catch, his first of the season.

Malcom Floyd had 100 yards receiving on three catches and closed out the first half with a 42-yard TD catch to give the Bolts a 23-10 lead...late in the fourth quarter, Floyd's 38-yard catch on a 3rd-and-10 set up the field goal that gave the Chargers a 29-24 lead, forcing Denver to drive for a game-winning touchdown instead of a field goal.

Randy McMichael caught his 400th career pass early in the third quarter...he became the 27th tight end in NFL history to reach the 400-catch mark.

Antoine Cason made a huge play to break up a pass to Brandon Lloyd in the end zone on a two-point conversion attempt after Denver scored to get within 26-24 with 3:30 left in the fourth quarter.

Jacob Hester rushed for a career-best 47 yards on a career-high 11 carries, taking over as the team's primary ballcarrier after Ryan Mathews (calf) and Mike Tolbert (concussion) both were forced from the game with injuries.

Dante Hughes got a hand in to help break up the pass on Denver's Hail Mary into the end zone on the last play of the game.

Week 7 at New York Jets

The Chargers could not hold on to an 11-point first half lead as New York rallied for 17 points in the second half en route to a 27-21 win over the Chargers at Met Life Stadium. The Jets took advantage of two Philip Rivers interceptions in the fourth quarter, one of which came off a tipped pass, leading to all 10 of the Jets' fourth-quarter points.

Phillips

Donald Butler scored a touchdown on the game's opening drive, stripping the Jets' Dustin Keller after a catch and returning the fumble 37 yards for a score...Takeo Spikes showed tremendous effort on the play, hitting quarterback Mark Sanchez in the pocket as he threw and then getting up and running downfield to hit Keller while he was chasing Butler down the sideline.

Eric Weddle intercepted Sanchez at the goal line late in the first quarter, setting up a touchdown drive that gave the Chargers a 14-3 lead...Weddle's pick came just after defensive Corey Liuget negated a 23-yard touchdown pass to Santonio Holmes by drawing an offensive holding penalty.

Antonio Gates gave the Chargers the 14-3 lead with a two-yard touchdown catch early in the second quarter...it was his 70th-career TD catch making he and Atlanta's Tony Gonzalez the only two tight ends in NFL history with at least 70 scoring catches...Gates finished the game with five catches (542 career) and moved past Kellen Winslow (541) for the second-most catches in team history.

Mike Tolbert gave the Chargers a 21-10 lead on a one-yard TD run in the second quarter...he also had a season-long 29-yard run during the drive...Malcom Floyd also aided the drive with a 28-yard, leaping one-handed catch on a 3rd-and-1.

Shaun Phillips had a season-high two sacks and led the team with three hits on Jets quarterback Mark Sanchez...his second sack late in the fourth quarter helped hold the Jets to a field goal to keep it a one-possession game.

Randy McMichael had a season-long 30-yard catch on a fourth-quarter 3rd-and-10.

Week 8 at Kansas City Chiefs

The Chargers dropped a heartbreaker to the Chiefs on ESPN's Monday Night Football, falling in overtime, 23-20. The Chargers trailed nearly the entire night and by as many as 10 points, but a touchdown and two-point conversion tied the game at 20-20 with 7:11 left in the fourth quarter. After a defensive three-and-out, the Chargers had the ball and were driving for a potential game-winning score when Philip Rivers fumbled a snap deep in Chiefs territory with less than a minute remaining. The game went to overtime and the Chargers won the coin toss and took possession, but a Tamba Hali sack contributed to a three-and-out by the Chargers on their first possession. Kansas City made the Bolts pay, driving 69 plays in 14 yards and Ryan Succop won the game on a 30-yard field goal 9:44 into the extra session.

Eric Weddle had a career-high two interceptions, both in the second half...the first led to a field goal that got the Chargers within 13-9 and the second forced the game into overtime.

Corey Liuget recorded his first-career forced fumble (Quentin Jammer recovered) and Travis LaBoy had his first sack as a Charger, forcing a fumble as well on the play, which was recovered by Dante Hughes...LaBoy also ended a second-quarter Kansas City drive with a two-yard tackle for loss on a 3rd-and-19.

Nick Novak hit four field goals against the Chiefs, including three of over 40 yards (44, 44 and 42)...his lone miss, a 52-yarder in the second quarter, ended a string of 12-straight to start the season...he bounced back from the miss with three second-half makes.

Antwan Barnes started for an injured Shaun Phillips and his six-yard sack on a 3rd-and-9 on the first series of the third quarter closed out a Chiefs three-and-out.

In the third quarter, Na'il Diggs contributed to a three-and-out with a four-yard tackle for loss on first down, followed by an eight-yard Cam Thomas sack on second down...the offense answered the three-and-out with another field goal to get within one point of the Chiefs (13-12).

Brinkley

Seeing extended time for a banged up Ryan Mathews, Curtis Brinkley scored his first-career touchdown on a two-yard dive over the pile and his two-point conversion catch at the goal line tied the game at 20-20 with 7:11 remaining in the fourth quarter...both plays survived instant replay challenges...Brinkley set up the touchdown with a 20-yard over-the-shoulder catch to the Chiefs' two...Philip Rivers had a key play on the drive, scrambling to stay alive on a 3rd-and-13 before hitting Vincent Jackson for 27 yards and a first down.

Tommie Harris gave the Chargers a shot at a late game-winning drive as his one-yard tackle for loss on a 3rd-and-1 with 5:56 left forced a Kansas City punt.

Tyrone Green started at right guard for Kris Dielman (concussion).

Week 9 vs. Green Bay Packers

The Chargers hosted the defending Super Bowl Champions in front of the third-largest home crowd in franchise history and the Chargers fought the champs tooth-and-nail to the end before dropping a heartbreaking 45-38 defeat. Despite two interception returns for touchdowns by the Packers and a 21-point deficit in the fourth quarter, the Chargers rallied to get within seven points and had the ball at the end of the game in Packers' territory with a chance to tie and send the game to overtime, but an interception with 14 seconds left sealed the victory for Green Bay.

Jackson

The Chargers opened the game with a drive capped off with a 23-yard touchdown pass from Philip Rivers to Vincent Jackson...Rivers completed all three of his pass attempts on the drive, all three to Jackson, for 57 yards, including the score... it was the Chargers' first opening drive touchdown of the season.

Jackson finished the game with three touchdowns (tying his career high) and 141 yards on seven catches...his other three-touchdown game came against San Francisco Dec. 16, 2010 in Qualcomm Stadium...it was his 14th career 100-yard game.

With the three touchdowns, Jackson increased his career tally to 34 and he overtook Tony Martin (33) for ninth place on the team's all-time touchdown receptions list. With the 141 yards, Jackson increased his career tally to 4,261 and moved past Martin for eighth on the team's career receiving yardage list.

Rivers tied his career high with four touchdowns, his fourth-career 4-TD game...he finished the game with 385 yards, the fourth-highest in a game during his career.

Rivers also had the first three-interception game of his career, ending his NFL-record streak of games started at the start of a career without a three-interception game...it was the 90th start of Rivers' NFL career...the previous mark (57) was set by Hall of Fame QB Joe Montana.

Rookie wide receiver Vincent Brown set season highs with four catches and 79 yards, including a season-long 31-yard catch...on the touchdown drive in which the Chargers got within 45-31, Brown had a 20-yard catch and the 31-yarder, which came on a 3rd-and-2 play.

Mike Tolbert had a season-high 83 yards rushing and scored his sixth touchdown of the season, tying him with Jackson for the team lead.

Antwan Barnes tied his career high with two sacks...a would-be third sack was negated by a penalty away from the play late in the contest.

Richard Goodman set up the Chargers' second touchdown of the day with a career-long 42-yard kickoff return.

Nick Novak's 52-yard field goal in the second quarter was a career-long.

Darrell Stuckey had a solid game on special teams with an onside kick recovery after the Chargers got within 45-31 and then he had a shared special teams tackle with

Marcus Gilchrist at the Packers' own eight-yard line after the Chargers had scored to climb within 45-38.

Week 10 vs. Oakland Raiders

Brown

The Chargers suffered yet another heartbreaking loss and gave up a share of the lead in the AFC West after falling to arch-rival Oakland, 24-17, in a Thursday night game at Qualcomm Stadium. The Chargers scored a field goal on their opening possession of the game, but then were silenced for the remainder of the half as the Raiders ran off 17 unanswered points. Oakland dominated the Chargers in first downs (13 to 3), total yards (293 to 65) and time of possession (19:35 to 10:25). The Chargers rallied with 14 points in the third quarter to climb back within seven, but Oakland held the Bolts at bay in the final period, closing out the victory with two late takeaways against the Chargers' offense.

Marcus Gilchrist helped put the Chargers on the board early in the game with a 40-yard return following a throwback from Patrick Crayton on a punt return.

Quentin Jammer ended Oakland's first two series with nice defensive plays, including a third-down pass breakup on the Raiders' first and a nice job defending Jacoby Ford on a fake punt attempt on the second.

Mike Scifres had his first touchback of the season, ending a string of 23-straight punts to start the season without one...the punt which ended the string was a 71-yarder that tied his career long.

Vincent Brown caught his first-career touchdown pass (30 yards) to open the third quarter...Crayton kept the drive alive with a 14-yard catch on a 3rd-and-10, followed by an 11-yarder...Antonio Gates also made a big catch for 22 yards on a 3rd-and-7...two series later, Brown had a second touchdown catch of 33 yards taken away by a controversial instant replay reversal.

Antwan Barnes' sack and forced fumble set up the Chargers' second TD of the game after Corey Liuget recovered...Jacob Hester caught a seven-yard scoring strike to make score 24-17 after Brown's touchdown catch was wiped out by instant replay...Mike Tolbert set up the touchdown with a 17-yard catch-and-run to the seven on 4th-and-1.

Paul Oliver gave the Chargers a shot at a game-tying drive with an interception off Carson Palmer deep in San Diego territory early in the fourth quarter.

Week 11 at Chicago Bears

The Chargers dropped their fifth-straight game on a cold in windy day in Chicago's Solider Field, falling to the Bears, 31-20. With four new starters on offense, including three on the offensive line, the Chargers put up a valiant effort against the Bears, matching them score-for-score until late in the third quarter. Looking to answer following a score that gave Chicago a 24-17 lead, the Chargers turned the ball over and the Bears capitalized quickly with a two-play drive for a touchdown and a 31-17 lead. The Chargers scored three early in the fourth quarter to trim the deficit to 11, but two more fourth-quarter turnovers proved costly and Chicago held on for the win.

Philip Rivers threw two touchdown passes, the 150th and 151st of his career to join Dan Fouts (254) and John Hadl (201) as the only players in franchise history with 150 career scoring strikes...Rivers also became the 75th player in NFL history to throw 150 career touchdown passes...Rivers also went over 3,000 yards for the season in the game, marking his sixth-straight 3,000-yard campaign.

Vincent Jackson had a monster day with 165 yards and a touchdown on seven catches...it was the second-most yards in a game for Jackson...he started second-quarter touchdown drive with a 32-yard catch on the first play and set up the score with a 39-yarder to the Bears' 8 on a 3rd-and-11...later his five-yard touchdown catch early in the third quarter tied the game at 17-17...he had a 47-yard catch during that scoring drive.

Jackson

Antoine Cason had an interception and career-long 64-yard return in the fourth quarter...it was the Chargers' longest interception return since 2007.

Richard Goodman had a season-high 144 kickoff return yards, including a season-long 44-yarder...he also averaged a season-best 36.0 yards per return.

Week 13 at Jacksonville Jaguars

Rivers

The Chargers snapped a six-game losing streak in emphatic fashion, handing the Jacksonville Jaguars a 38-14 setback before a national TV audience on ESPN's Monday Night Football. The Chargers scored early to take a 10-0 lead, but saw it evaporate when Jacksonville scored touchdowns on consecutive drives to go up 14-10. But then San Diego put the pedal to the metal, scoring 14 points in the final 1:26 of the second quarter and adding seven more early in the third quarter to take a commanding 31-14 lead. In all, five different players scored touchdowns as the Chargers matched their season-high for points in a game.

Philip Rivers posted a season-high passer rating (146.1) on 22 of 28 completions (.786) for 294 yards with three touchdowns and no interceptions...it included a 52-yard touchdown pass to Malcom Floyd, the Chargers' longest since Week 4 vs. Miami...Rivers also increased his career completion total to 1,842, passing John Hadl (1,824) for second in team history.

Nick Hardwick (neck) left the game early and was replaced by Colin Baxter for the balance of the first half...Hardwick returned to the lineup after halftime...and Jared Gaither made his first start for the Chargers at left tackle as the offensive line did not give up a single sack to the Jaguars.

Mike Tolbert scored the Chargers' first touchdown of the night on a 13-yard run...with the score he moved into a tie for seventh place on the team's all-time rushing touchdowns list...it was also the longest touchdown run of his career...Tolbert also led the team with six special teams tackles, including five unassisted.

Vincent Brown caught his second-career touchdown from 22 yards in the second quarter...Antonio Gates helped set up the score with a 23-yard catch to the 22 on 2nd-and-20 after penalties had pushed the Chargers back.

Antoine Cason and Eric Weddle combined to set up a Chargers touchdown late in the first half as Cason tipped a pass into the waiting arms of Weddle...after a short run, Vincent Jackson caught a 20-yard pass followed by a 35-yarder for a score to put the Chargers up 24-14...the touchdown catch was the 36th of Jackson's career, tying him with John Jefferson for eight-most in team history.

Malcom Floyd, who'd missed the previous four games with a hip injury, put the Chargers on the board with a 52-yard scoring catch to open the third quarter...Floyd finished the game with 108 yards on four catches...on the play before Floyd's touchdown catch, Antonio Gates caught a seven-yard pass on a 3rd-and-4...that catch moved him past Gary Garrison and into third on the team's all-time receiving yardage list.

Ryan Mathews scored the Chargers' final points of the night, tying the longest touchdown run of his career (31 yards)...Mathews finished the game with 112 yards on just 13 carries, averaging a stout 8.6 yards per attempt...it was Mathews' second-straight 100-yard game and the first back-to-back 100-yard efforts by a Chargers running back since 2007.

Cam Thomas and Tommie Harris both recorded sacks.

Jared Gaither made his first start for the Chargers at left tackle, while guards Louis Vasquez (ankle) and Tyronne Green (hand) both returned after missing the previous two games with injuries...the offensive line did not allow any sacks to the Jags.
