

Leaving a Legacy,

A Workshop on Inheritance and Continuous Charity

PRESENTED BY

The Islamic Society of North America

Saturna Trust Co.

Saturday, January 16th, 2010

6:00 PM

Masjid Ar-Rahmah

18001 NE 76th St., Suite 105 • Redmond, WA 98052

SPEAKERS:

MONEM SALAM: Saturna Capital's Director of Islamic Investing and Deputy Portfolio Manager; Mr. Salam received his degrees from the University of Texas: BA (Austin) and MBA (Dallas). In 2008, Mr. Salam received the "20 Rising Stars" Award from Institutional Investor News. He is the co-author of a new book called "A Muslim's Guide to Investing And Personal Finance."

AHMED SHAIKH: Based in Southern California, is licensed to practice law in state courts in California, Texas and Maryland. He is also a member of the Orange County Bar Association and Wealthcounsel, an organization of Estate Planning Attorneys.

Ahmed Shaikh's expertise has focused mostly on the Islamic Rules of inheritance and Charitable Planning, particularly the creation of awqaf by utilizing trust law. He has spoken on Islamic Inheritance and charitable planning nationally, including various ISNA conferences and in dozens of Masajid around the country.

Ahmed Shaikh serves on the Editorial Board of InFocus, a Muslim newspaper in Southern California, is on the Endowment Committee of ISNA, and was recently asked to serve on the Advisory Board of CAIR in Southern California.

