

VINTAGE VICE, LLC is seeking future professionals who are currently pursuing a degree or career in fashion design, writing, entertainment, marketing, business or the media arts. We are excited about our proximity to the MSU Fashion Technology Department and the main campus and are always seeking out new opportunities to both teach and learn.

We are looking for people who are passionate, energetic, outgoing, talented and have a sincere desire to pursue careers in fashion, design, writing, marketing or business. We aren't looking for people to push brooms and make coffee, we are looking for people who will be actively engaged in helping us create a better business for our customers.

Program Requirements

Our program is an 8 week unpaid internship, designed to provide a holistic view of the day-to-day operations of a retail clothing store. A basic working knowledge of online social media platforms is a must. In addition, we are looking for smart, stylish, friendly and confident people who are self-starters and have one or more of the following skills:

- Writing or Public Relations
- Marketing, Advertising or Promotion
- Photography or Graphic design
- Sketching, Sewing or Pattern Making
- General Knowledge of Fashion Industry
- Trendspotting & Research

Duties will include but not be limited to:

- Creating & Administering Surveys
- Social, online and street level marketing
- Writing and content development
- Developing and implementing promotional micro-campaigns
- Suggesting ideas for new product lines & product development
- Creating floor plans, layouts and other planning guides
- Assisting in day to day visual merchandising
- Data input and other general clerical duties
- Maintaining and updating products on our e-commerce store
