Silver Pines innkeeper Chris Singer with her dogs Ella and Shelby. Since 1994, Chris has been helping her human and canine guests enjoy their time in Idyllwild

Silver Pines Lodge was built in 1923 and was originally used to build rustic furniture for mountain settlers. In the '30s, it operated as the Rustic Tavern Restaurant and the Rustic Theater movie house in 1944. It has been an Inn since the early '50s and has hosted hundreds of mountain guests for the past 43 years. The Lodge sits on 1-1/2 acres of wooded pine forest overlooking Strawberry Creek. The Lodge is approximately 2 blocks from the main village of Idyllwild where eateries and shops abound. Each unit is individually decorated and has its own unique identity. Most rooms have fireplaces and about half have kitchens. Silver Pines also has individual cabins, a duplex and triplex and 5 units connected to the main lodge building. Every room has its own refrigerator, bathroom, color cable TV and complimentary coffee.

Mentoring and working in tandem with some of California's best rising young culinary stars, some of which have gone on to The Culinary Institute of America at Hyde Park, NY and Le Cordon Bleu, Aroma conceptualist Frank Ferro blends his Italian grandmother's time-tested classic recipes with unique new ingredients to create beautiful dishes with French, Nuevo Latino & Asian twists.

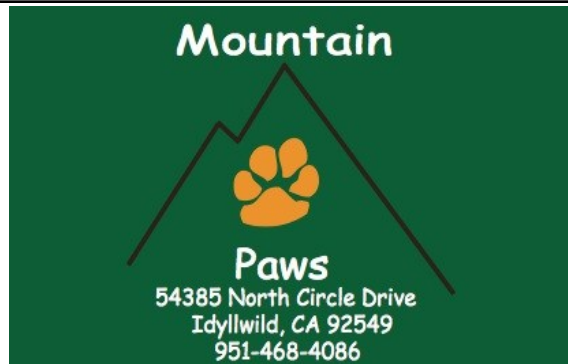

Aroma Idyllwild is proud to support our local farmers, wineries & brewers - such as Sage Mountain Farm, Bau-tista Creek Ranch, Inland Empire CSA, Middle Ridge Winery, Hart Family Winery, Wiens Family Cellars & Green Flash Brewery

the vibe

Idyllwild's funnest and funkier fine dining establishment, Cafe Aroma is the hot spot in Idyllwild. Join us for espresso - freshly made with Wild Rock beans custom-roasted for Cafe Aroma - and one of our world-famous scones in the morning. Or, take in the clean mountain air and panoramic view of Tahquitz Peak while enjoying a relaxing lunch on our free wi-fi enabled deck...the inspiration of Aroma's owner, Hubert Halkin, Professor Emeritus of Mathematics at UCSD.

The community of Idyllwild is comprised of entrepreneur's & worker-bees, hippies & church-goers, old school jazz cats & classical musicians, belly dancers & ballerinas. Cafe Aroma is the gathering place for everybody. A social club that feels like home...if your home was this cool.
