

COORDINATION OF DRAWINGS AND PROJECT MANUAL

The responsibility of the Specification Writer to

- Coordinate the Drawing Notes
- Responsibility for Coordination: one person should have the responsibility for ensuring consistency between the drawings and the specifications.
- Terminology: consistent terminology throughout the contract documents is important to avoid confusion among the various users.
- Example: “service sink” in specifications should NOT be “janitor sink” in drawings.