

Design Professionals Responsible for Specifications

- Specifications: Define the Qualitative requirements for products, material and workmanship upon which the contract is based.
- Design Professional's Responsibility:
  - Define qualities of all materials and equipment.
  - Set requirements for physical qualities and characteristics of the products.
  - Establish standards of workmanship associated with the manufacture and installation of materials equipment and components.