

The Hamilton and District CUPE Council and are hosting a panel discussion on:

“The Real Impact of Bill 115 – the Putting Students First Act”

Wednesday, November 21, 2012

WAHC (Workers Arts and Heritage Centre) – 51 Stuart Street Hamilton
6:30 p.m. to 9:30 p.m.

On September 11, 2012, the McGuinty Liberal government passed Bill 115, stripping away the rights to free collective bargaining of all education workers in Ontario. This unprecedented, unconstitutional legislation has created a crisis in our schools, negatively impacting students, families and communities.

Panelists:

- Terri Preston, CUPE Ontario School Boards Coordinating Committee
- Chantal Mancini, OSSTF District 21 President
- Lisa Hammond, ETFO Hamilton-Wentworth Elementary Teachers' Local President
- Tim Simmons, Chair of the Hamilton-Wentworth District School Board
- Peter Tabuns, Ontario NDP – MPP for Toronto-Danforth, ONDP Education Critic

Light snacks and refreshments provided.

This is a free event! But any donations to WAHC will be appreciated.

For more information, please contact: Marlon Picken, Regional Coordinator, 905.902.7707

