

On Tuesday Michael and I will return to my favorite continent, Africa, specifically South Africa as guests of our friends at Swain Tours. I thought you might enjoy some photos of where we'll be staying---that's a polite way of saying, "Eat your heart out!" Actually, though, you can forego cannibalism, and just give me a call (800-546-8747) or email me (barbara@greatgetaway.com) to help you plan your own fabulous life-changing, extraordinary, unbelievably wonderful journey to South Africa!
