

Alberta Golf Hall of Fame

Keith Alexander

Inducted: 2005

Club Affiliation: Calgary Golf and Country Club

Keith Alexander is one of the few accomplished Canadian golfers who take their love of the sport from the course to the boardroom with the same zeal and commitment.

The 1960 Canadian Amateur Champion and six-time Alberta Amateur Champion went on to win the 1992 Senior Golf Championship of Canada before turning professional and focusing his attention on the Senior PGA Tour in 1993.

As an administrator, Keith was an instrumental part of the Alberta Golf Association from 1968 through 1982, serving as President in 1977.

Keith Alexander's Record

International Teams:

 denotes winning team*

- World Amateur Golf Team Member: 1960, 1964, 1966, 1970, 1972, 1976
- America's Cup Team Matches: 1960, 1961, 1963, 1965, 1967 1971
 - New Zealand Centennial Trophy Team Matches
 - 1963 Commonwealth Trophy Team

National:

- 1960 Canadian Amateur Champion
 - 1992 Canadian Senior Champion
- Member of the Alberta Willingdon Cup Team in the Interprovincial Team matches twenty-six times
- Canadian Amateur Medallist in 1965, 1970, 1976 and tied in 1977

Provincial:

- Alberta Amateur Champion: 1957, 1964, 1966, 1977, 1978, 1981
 - Alberta Open Champion: 1967, 1980

Other Items of Note:

- An officer of the Alberta Golf Association from 1968 to 1982 and President in 1977