

Alberta Golf Hall of Fame

Karen Qually-Nelson

Inducted: 2010

Club Affiliation: Olds Central Highlands Golf Club

At her induction, Karen Qually-Nelson became the youngest Alberta Golf Hall of Fame member at just 35 years of age. Her superlative junior and amateur playing record places her among the province's elite female golfers of all time. Karen won the 1998 Canadian Women's Amateur while also finishing as the runner-up in 1994 and bronze medalist in 1999. She was also the Alberta Ladies Amateur Champion in 1995 and 1998; Alberta Junior Ladies Champion in 1993 as well as the Canadian Junior Ladies Silver Medalist in 1992 and 1993.

Karen was internationally recognized being named to the Canadian Ladies Golf Association World Amateur team in 1994 and 1998 as well as the 1995 and 1999 CLGA Commonwealth teams. She also represented the province in interprovincial team play downs at the amateur level from 1994-96 and 1998-99 while also playing on the Alberta Junior Ladies Team from 1992-93.

Kareen has been a terrific ambassador for Alberta golf having played on 6 continents as an amateur and professional golfer. In 1998 she was recognized with the prestigious SCORE GOLF MAGAZINE award as the Outstanding Canadian Female Amateur Golfer.

Kareen Qually-Nelson's Record

International Teams:

1994, 1998 Canadian Ladies World Amateur Golf Team Member 1995, 1999 Canadian Ladies Commonwealth Team Member

National:

 denotes winning team*

*1998 Canadian Women's Amateur Champion
1994 Canadian Women's Amateur Championship Runner-up
1999 Canadian Women's Amateur Championship Bronze Medalist
1992 and 1993 Canadian Junior Ladies Championship Runner-up
1994*, 1995, 1996, 1998, 1999 Alberta Women's Amateur Interprovincial Team Member
1992*, 1993* Alberta Ladies Junior Interprovincial Team Member
1990 Canadian Junior Ladies 15 and Under Champion*

Provincial:

*1995 and 1998 Alberta Women's Amateur Champion
1993 Alberta Ladies Junior Champion
1991 Alberta Junior Ladies Masters Champion
1991 Alberta High School Champion
1989 Alberta Ladies Marg Hembling 15 and Under Champion*

Other Items of Note:

After a distinguished amateur career Kareen played professionally for 7 years. She can boast of competing on 6 continents as an amateur and professional golfer.