Dear Friends:

On behalf of the hungry, hurting children you are helping this holiday season, thank you. Your recent gift of $979.58 is such a blessing.

Somehow, at Christmas a hot meal seems to mean more. It's a true gift of the heart given at a time when a child really needs to know someone cares. Your generosity helps ensure their children won't wake up Christmas morning with nothing to eat.

But don't forget the families who still need our help. The coldest months of winter are around the corner.

That's why I want to thank you for the gift you've already sent. But I also ask that you consider sending an extra gift to help during this time of tremendous need.

And thank you again for the gift you already sent -- just in time for the holidays.

For the children,

Larry Jones
