Dear Friends,

Thank you for your charitable gift of $146.07 on 12/22/2006 to Women for Women International. We truly appreciate your support. Thanks to you, more women survivors of war will become self-sufficient, active citizens and rebuild their lives, families and communities.

War leaves an unimaginable scar on nations, communities and women and its effects can last for decades. Women are disproportionately affected by this violence and upheaval. In Rwanda, between 250,000 and 500,000 women were raped. Ten years after the conflict in Bosnia and Herzegovina, 44 percent of women are still unemployed. Women in war-ravaged Eastern Congo survive on just 20 cents per day. In Afghanistan, severe restrictions on education have left only 14 percent of women literate. And in Sudan, 6 million people have been displaced from their homes in Africa's longest-running civil war.

During the last 13 years, we have mobilized more than 70,000 women to change their lives by providing them with direct aid, job skills and leadership training, rights awareness and small business development. With your help, we will reach 50,000 more women this year in Afghanistan, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Colombia, Democratic Republic of the Congo, Iraq, Kosovo, Nigeria, Rwanda and Sudan.

As part of our community, you will receive our newsletter, Outreach, emails about other ways you can be involved and program updates. We look forward to informing you about the advancement of the women in our programs. Thank you for your support and commitment to women survivors of war.

Many thanks,

Zainab Salbi
