Dear Goodtree.com,

Thank you for your generous 3/22/2007 donation of $310.38 to Freedom from Hunger. With your generous support, we are reaching over 500,000 women living in poverty in 17 countries throughout the developing world.

Your gift will make a tremendous difference in the lives of these women and their children. It will enable a mother to buy medicine, send her child to school or buy food during the hungry season. Or, it will help women in our programs learn the importance of breastfeeding and how breastfeeding saves babies' lives. It will stop the spread of malaria by delivering nets and education to rural villages, or it will deliver a loan and education to a woman so she can provide for her family and become an inspiration to her community.

How can your gift do so much? Because, with your help, we serve the hardest-working people in the world, women who—motivated by the burning desire to make a better life for their children, their families and their communities—are filled with energy and love and hope.

Thank you for making these outcomes possible—for using your own energy, love and hope for a better world to make a difference in the lives of women and their families half a world away.
