Dear Friends,

Thank you for your generous gift of $395.25 to Habitat for Humanity. Your support and partnership in our mission of eliminating poverty housing worldwide helps families move closer to a future full of renewed hope and opportunity to build a simple, decent, affordable home.

Thanks to partners like you, Habitat for Humanity is reaching out to more people in need than ever before. To date, Habitat for Humanity has served more than one million people worldwide, having completed more than 200,000 simple, decent, affordable houses.

Your support and partnership helps provide the materials and resources that are so vitally needed as we move full force into our 31st year of building hope, homes and communities in partnership with people in need.

Again, we are grateful and appreciative of your valued support and partnership. You are the foundation of each home we build - and each life we touch. The official receipt for your gift is enclosed for your records.

In grateful partnership,

Jonathan Reckford
