Dear Friend of the Red Cross,

Your gift enables the American Red Cross to reach those in need throughout the year.

Thousands of individuals and families across the nation and around the globe count on the Red Cross for help through some of the toughest times. In the past year, we have been called to respond to the devastating tsunami event in Southern Asia, a string of horrific hurricanes in the southeastern portion of the United States, and the ongoing civil conflict in the Sudan.

Thank you for your gift of $218.60 received with a postmark date of December 22, 2006 to support our lifesaving work. We are always ready – 24 hours a day, seven days a week throughout the year. There will never be an end to our assistance – only a beginning. Our work is backed by the service of thousands of committed volunteers, who carry out our important mission, and the financial assistance of caring individuals like you.

But disaster response is not all we do. We also support the families of the United States military through our Armed Forces Emergency Services, and we serve as stewards of a portion of the nation's blood supply. While our first priority is the immediate relief of disaster victims from natural and man-made events, our charge also is to their full recovery from these challenging hardships.

Whether it's a hurricane, wildfire, flood, conflict situation or tragic terrorist attack, the Red Cross will be there to provide support. Thank you for supporting us.

Sincerely,

Lauri Rhinehart
Vice President, Development Operations
