

Welcome

We're glad you've joined us this morning for worship! Today, Palm Sunday, is the first of three times we'll gather together this week to consider the events leading to the crucifixion and resurrection of Jesus.

Friday evening, we'll share Communion together in the chapel as a somber remembrance of Good Friday, the day Jesus died. Next Sunday, on Easter, we'll gather again to celebrate His glorious resurrection.

On the bottom half of this card, we've provided a list of Bible passages that record the events of the days leading up to Friday. We urge you to make time throughout the week to read and consider these verses as you prepare for our Good Friday service.
