Welcome

We're glad you've joined us this morning! Feel free to check things out and determine whether we might be a good match for you. We're here to help at your invitation—you set the pace.

When you're ready for the next step, consider checking out an additional Sunday activity like Bible Fellowships or Community Groups, or a mid-week study that interests you. There are many great ways to connect with others in our church family each semester as you grow in your relationship with Jesus. Pick up a Guide to Grace Church as you leave for more details!

Online Access

It's now easier than ever to find the information and tools you need from the front page of our website at gracechurch.com!

You can save time and paperwork by quickly registering yourself or your family for activities, giving online using a card or bank account, and subscribing to calendars and email updates. Get the latest details about upcoming classes, studies, small groups, and special events.

It works great on your smartphone or tablet, too!

Sign Up for Summer

This three-week study will help you rediscover the foundational truths about God's grace that shape all we teach and do as a church family. Wednesdays at 6:30 PM during June for adults.

Did you know that what communicates love to you may seem meaningless to your spouse? Discover how to truly speak and receive love within your marriage relationship.

This four-week summer class is offered for both men and senior adults and provides an overview of the methods and purposes for studying the Bible. AM or PM for men, afternoons for seniors.

Enjoy a light lunch as we hear from guest speaker Kerry Scheer from Denton Bible Church, catch up with good friends, and meet new women in your church family. $8, with childcare available.

Summer Guide to Grace Church

The blue seasonal booklets now available throughout the building contain the details of everything planned for our church family during the upcoming summer months. Please take as many as you like to stay informed about what's happening.

We'll also notify you about studies and events as they get closer, and you can always find the latest information on our website at gracechurch.com.

Senior Adults Palo Duro Canyon Trip

Our senior adult group is heading to Palo Duro Canyon for an overnight trip to see the Texas musical on June 22-23. Prices start at $170 per person, and the registration deadline is this Tuesday, May 29. See the information table in the Main Hall today or sign up online.

Family Matters

Please pray for Laurie and Mark Dobson as they grieve the passing of his father.

Congratulations to Corie and Jerry Campbell on the birth of their daughter Carter June.

Lesson 4: A Psalm of Reflection—Psalm 103

Reg

gie Coe, Marriage and Senior Adults Pastor
	e possible background to this psalm of praise is the psalmist's cry for God to hear his yer of anguish in Psalm 102:1–9.
The psalmist calls himself to bless the Lord for all of His benefits—Psalm 103:1–5.
A.	He calls his own soul to bless the Lord— Psalm 103:1–2 .
В.	He exhorts himself to remember all of God's benefits toward him— Psalm 103:3–5 .
The psalmist reminds us how compassionately God deals with us in our frailty, especially in light of our sins—Psalm 103:6–18.
A.	He recalls the graciousness of the Lord— Psalm 103:6–8.
В.	He recognizes that the Lord mercifully forgives our sins— Psalm 103:9–12 .
c.	The Psalmist acknowledges that while we live transient lives, the Lord demonstrates His loyal love toward us— Psalm 103:13–18 .
The psalmist calls for all of creation to bless the Lord—Psalm 103:19–22.
A.	The Lord established His eternal dominion over all creation— Psalm 103:19 .

B. The psalmist calls all angels and heavenly hosts to bless the Lord—Psalm 103:20.

He exhorts all of the Lord's servants to bless Him—Psalm 103:21.

D. He beckons all of God's works everywhere to bless the Lord—Psalm 103:22.
