

“The God that We Should Know”

Acts 17:22-34

1. Opportunities to preach and teach come along when we have hearts that are looking for opportunities to preach and teach.
2. It may be as simple as a conversation about knowing God’s in control or it may be an in-depth Biblical theological study.
3. The Gentile world in which the church was born was not a stranger to beliefs and practices that accorded with their pantheistic beliefs (many gods).
4. Our own world is seemingly pantheistic in nature, although, many might argue that they don’t worship or bow down to idols.
5. The message of God and His nature is still relevant today as it was when Paul preached on Mars Hill about “the God that we should know.”
6. Consider 5 proclamations of His divine nature that we (and our world) need to think more about:

I. _____ of the Universe (v.24)

II. _____ of Everything (v.25)

III. _____ over Nations (v.26-28a)

IV. _____ of Human Beings (v.28b-29)

V. _____ of the World (v.30-31)
